The 1980-81 Season at Moorhead State University

THE MINNESOTA ORCHESTRA

September 19

During its 76-year history, the Minnesota Orchestra has performed more than 5,000 concerts in over 500 cities and, according to The New York Times, has become "probably the most important regional orchestra anywhere." New Music Director Neville Marriner will conduct for this appearance.

MR. JACK DANIELS ORIGINAL SILVER CORNET BAND

October 4

Mr. Jack Daniels Original Silver Cornet Band on tour is a faithful reproduction of a turn-of-the-century concert in the park complete with authentic instruments, faithfully reproduced and played by thirteen professional musicians; an entire stage setting featuring the park gazebo, lights, sound and backdrop.

MINNESOTA DANCE THEATRE

February 19-21

Loyce Houlton has trained dancers in her own dynamic contemporary aesthetic — a "dual" aesthetic that savors the classical techniques, tested and valued by time, yet expands the unique extensions, the designs and dissonances of the 20th century. The Minnesota Dance Theatre will be at MSU for a one-half week residency, including two performances.

THE GIN GAME by D.L. Coburn

March 15

During the 1977-78 Broadway season, this harsh two-person comedy won the coveted Pulitzer Prize. The New York touring production will star one of the great ladies of the American theatre, Miss Margaret Hamilton, who is probably best remembered for her performance as the Wicked Witch in the film classic, "The Wizard of Oz."

THE DALE WARLAND SINGERS

Date to be announced

This is the widely acclaimed professional choral ensemble, under the direction of Dale Warland, which has received extensive national and international critical acclaim. Formed eight years ago, this St. Paul-based ensemble will tour to Moorhead with approximately forty singers.
