PARADE PROGRAM FOR HOMECOMING ANNOUNCED TODAY

ORGANIZATIONS TO COMPETE IN THE PRESENTATION OF VARIED FLOATS

Beautiful, humorous, and appropriate floats will again form a part of Homecoming activities, as the parade, representing most of the Campus organizations, leaves the College at 10:15 a. m. Saturday, November 5, to journey through the business section of Moorhead.

Although there was no parade last year, the cups won at the 1930 Homecoming celebration will be up for competition, with the exception of the prize offered for beauty which was won by the Art Club. The prize for the most unique float was won by the Training School in 1930, but will be competed for until some organization wins it for three consecutive years.

The Dramatic Club won the prize for appropriateness in 1930. This prize must also be won for a three year sequence to insure permanent possession.

Game On at 2:30 P. M.

The parade will start at the Campus and go west on Seventh Avenue to Eighth Street, it will then go north to First Avenue, and again west to Fourth Street. From here it will turn north to Center Avenue, go east to Eighth Street, then south to Fourth Avenue, where it will again turn east to Eleventh Street and south to the Campus.

The football game will be the next item of interest on the Homecoming calendar and will be played on Memorial Field at two-thirty in the afternoon between the Dragons and the Wolves of Northern State Teachers College, Aberdeen. The Pep Squad members have been busy at work on activities between halves of the game, but thus far have not divulged their secrets.

DECORATIONS AND REGISTRATION ARE NOW UNDER WAY

FINANCIAL END CARED FOR BY COMMITTEE THROUGH A TAG CAMPAIGN

Handling a gigantic task in an efficient manner, the Homecoming finance committee has already advanced a large share of the way toward the goal of raising $350 to finance the 1932 Homecoming plans. Under the direction of Gorman Thompson, Lyman Bringgold, and James Tye, workers have been busy during the past week distributing Homecoming booster tags to the student body.

Indications are that the ultimate goal will be reached in a short time, insuring the various committees that they will not have to "crimp".

Definite plans have not been made by the registration committee as to the time and place of registration, but all returning alumni are urged to sign the Homecoming Book which will be located at the Alumni headquarters.

As to decoration plans, although various rumors have been heard, those in charge are extremely reticent about divulging any of their plans.

Charged with the duty of advertising Homecoming to the Alumni and students in particular and the world as a whole in general, the publicity committee present as their major contribution this year the eight page edition of the "Western MISTIC," and will send out copies to approximately a thousand Alumni. Tentative plans call for a full page add in the "Moorhead News", half a page in the "Fargo Forum," and sending out to the Alumni a letter containing a program of events, reservation cards for the Alumni-Student Banquet and a general invitation to attend Homecoming festivities. This group, too, is sponsoring the election of the Homecoming Queen and is responsible for broadcasting the various programs as well as all other publicity for the event.

The traditional Owl breakfast will be held at Mrs. Harold Jacksons at 8:00 o'clock Saturday morning and the group expects to have 40 or 50 students and Alumni present.

Bids You Welcome

DEAR ALUMNUS:

The fall homecoming is an institution at Moorhead Teachers College. The faculty, and students will be at home this year, Saturday, November 5. In fact the festivities will begin the evening of the fourth. A program of reunions, pageants, and a football game has been provided.

This letter is addressed to you as an individual to urge you to come back to your Alma Mater for this occasion. Your presence will warm the hearts of those on the campus. It will help to strengthen the bonds of friendships and loyalty upon which the college is built. Then, too, you will want to see the old institution in its new home. The campus has just been landscaped and beautified.

May I urge you to accept the cordial invitation of the folks at home for Homecoming in this year of 1932.

Sincerely yours,

R. B. MacLEAN,
President.

Mrs. H. J. Locke and Eleanor Nesheim of the College participated in the Hayden Memorial program given Monday by the Fargo Music Club in Fellowship Hall, of the First Baptist Church, Fargo.

DINNER, DANCE TO END FESTIVITIES OF HOMECOMING

GLASRUD CHAIRMAN OF DINNER PROGRAM; DUBOIS HEADS DANCE COMMITTEE

A complete evening's entertainment for faculty, alumni, and students has been planned, beginning with the dinner Saturday evening, November 5, and followed by the dance. Six-thirty p. m. is the time set for the annual Homecoming dinner, which will be held in Comstock Hall dining room. The chairman for the dinner program is Clarence Glasrud. Speakers are President R. B. MacLean; Dr. Lura, new faculty member this year; Signe Hanson, principal of Jefferson School; Jack Eininger, alumnus, instructor in the Fargo high school; Henry Booher and Wilson Dokken, students.

The musical numbers will be given by the Double Male Quartette and by Roseltha Nesheim. Reynold Christensen, student music commissioner, will be the song leader.

Convention Hall Name?

The committee in charge of the arrangements for the alumni-student banquet consists of Ward Thompson, Altha Gabrielson, Alice Nelson, Elmer Stanghelle, and Clara Undseth. They will not divulge the fire of the program, not even a spark, but the air sniffs of a coming campaign. Perhaps "Convention Hall" might be a good name for Comstock Dining Hall after the dinner hour, at which time the greater part of the program will be broadcast.

Sande Heads Alumni

The officers of the alumni association are Ole R. Sande, who is in the Minnesota State Department of Education at St. Paul, president; Ralph Iversen, superintendent at Tower, secretary; Wallace Rosel, superintendent at Hendrum, treasurer; Blanche Loudon, M. S. T. C. Training School supervisor, Leonard Erickson, Fergus Falls attorney, James Dahl, Glyndon superintendent, and Anna Lyngstad, Fargo teacher, members of the board of directors.

Trip Light Fantastic

Leonard Dahl's seven-piece orchestra will play for the Homecoming Dance which is to be held from nine to twelve p. m. in the Gymnasium and Ingleside. Specialty numbers will be given between dances, but the exact details have not been given out. Alice DuBois as social commissioner is the chairman of the Homecoming Dance committee, and working under her are the following committees: entertainment—Bernice Onstine, Ruth Hallenberg, and Marjorie Corson; and orchestra—Jack Bridges and James Krajeck.

Speaks For Students

TO THE ALUMNI:

As truly representing the spirit of the student body the Student Commission extends a whole-hearted welcome to the Alumni and their friends to the Annual Homecoming on November fourth and fifth.

With the support of the largest student body in the history of the College, every effort is being expended to make the 1932 Homecoming an outstanding event.

To those of you who find it possible to return for this event we will have an opportunity to express a hearty welcome, and to those who find it impossible to return we extend greetings, hoping that many of you will have an opportunity to enter into the spirit of the occasion through broadcasts of various parts of the festivities.

THE STUDENT COMMISSION,
Henry Booher, President.

Double Quartet Sings In Neighboring Towns

The Double Male Quartet, under the direction of Mr. Preston, gave a concert for the Luther League at Davenport, N. D., Sunday evening. Other numbers on the program were piano solos by Lawrence Norin, a trumpet solo by Jules Herman, and a vocal solo by Mr. Preston. The group also sang at the Glyndon P. T. A. Tuesday evening. The principal speaker of the program was Miss Hawkinson, who discussed her European trip.

Mr. Bridges, member of the College faculty, addressed the Fargo Rotary Club last Wednesday

SPEAKERS WILL ENLIVEN SPIRIT OF '32 PEP FEST

PEPFEST WILL BE BROADCAST OVER KGFK AT EIGHT ON NOVEMBER 4

Hear ye! Hear ye! "alumni". The Pepfest will be broadcast over KGFK Moorhead, at 8 o'clock on November 4. "Seeing is believing", but hearing is quite reliable too. If it's impossible to be sitting in Weld Auditorium on that date—tune in. There will be music by the Band; songs and yells that every graduate of M. S. T. C. knows; speeches by President MacLean, Coach Nemzek, Ole Sande, president of the Alumni Association, and John Ingersoll, graduate of '32. The crowning event of the evening, of course, will be the coronation of the Queen.

Ruth Best, Nina Jorgensen, Elia Johnson, Vivian Nelson, and Eileen O'Laughlin were chosen by the committee in charge as candidates for the Queen. Additional candidates may be added by petitions containing 75 signers. Voting began at 8 a. m. and will conclude at 4:30 p. m. today, at which time the successful candidate will be announced.

At the Pepfest the Queen will be escorted to the stage by her attendants during which the audience will remain standing. The crown will be placed on her head by Henry Booher, while the Band plays "The Priest's March".

Outside the Auditorium the Band will then have formed to lead the torch-light procession downtown and through the streets of Moorhead. When the Queen and her attendants leave the Auditorium they will take their place in line, followed by the Pep Squad and the student body.

Fire Is Rallying Point

"Whoopie", yelled the rejuvenated alum, "Ray", screamed the highly enthused co-ed, "Zowie" boomed the equally excited masculine faction as they broke ranks, leaving the torchlight parade in a terrible state of disorder, and ran for the big open spaces east of Comstock Hall; where a few flickers of light were already beginning to show. This, good folks, is a preview of what will happen immediately following the torch-light parade, which in turn follows the coronation of the Queen.

CAMPUS GROUPS PLAN REUNIONS FOR HOMECOMING

BREAKFASTS ARE SCHEDULED FOR VARIOUS HOURS ON SATURDAY

For the sake of renewing old friendships and making new ones, many of the twenty-four organizations of the College are having homecoming reunions. Those who have arranged for these get-togethers include the following. The Pi Mu Phi sorority is to entertain at a breakfast at 8:30 o'clock Saturday morning at the Comstock Hotel. The Gamma Nu sorority is entertaining at a breakfast between 9:30 and 10:30 a. m. Saturday at the Campus Tea Room.

The Beta Chi sorority is giving a breakfast between the hours of 8:15 and 9:15 a. m. Saturday at the Campus Tea Room. The Owl fraternity is giving its usual reunion breakfast and will announce later where it is to be held.

A number of the education groups entertaining are as follows. Kappa Delta Pi is to give a breakfast at 8 a. m. Saturday morning at the Comstock Hall Dining Room. Kappa Pi will entertain at a breakfast at the home of Mrs. Durboraw, 316 Fifth street south, at 8:30 a. m. Saturday. Lastly, Lambda Phi Sigma is to have a luncheon at 11:50 a. m. Saturday at the Campus Tea Room.

These departmental groups have also planned reunions: Sigma Tau Delta, to meet as guests of Louise Murray, an alumna, at the home of Mr. F. E. Hansche, 1335 Sixth street south, Fargo, after the bonfire; Geography Council, entertaining at a tea in the Geography room between 9 and 10:30 a. m. Saturday; Art Club, entertaining at a luncheon at the Comstock Hotel at 12:30 p. m. Saturday. Other organizations have not concluded plans for reunions as yet, but will announce them soon.

1. One hundred per cent participation in extra-curricular activities.
2. Equalization of extra-curricular activities to give maximum service both to the individual and to the College.
3. Standardization of routine duties to insure more time for cultural life.
4. Greater emphasis placed on standards in the profession of teaching through longer periods of training.

WELCOME ALUMNI!

Welcome Alumni! We welcome you to the first homecoming on the greater M. S. T. C. Campus—one in which old bonds will be strengthened and new ones formed, in order that the students of the College past and present may become a unity. And as we present this homecoming, we the present stewards of the destiny of your Alma Mater entertain the hope that we are carrying on the charge you left to us as well as you fulfilled that mission in the days of your activities here.

We sincerely hope that when we join your ranks as Alumni, we can pass on the same spirit to our successors that you passed on to us. So again welcome to you, the predecessors to whom we are indebted.

CIRCUMSTANCES

"Circumstances—I make circumstances!" said Napoleon. Many of us are inclined to accept conditions as they exist. It is true, we cannot foresee all occurrences; but that should not prevent us from preparing for those that are likely to take place.

No one would claim that the present state of affairs in our nation is the best. Perhaps we feel that the present financial conditions are inevitable; some may feel that these conditions might have been averted. However, we dare not deny that conditions are what they are.

The important question in the mind of every citizen is, "What can I do to improve the present state of affairs?"

We are prone to believe that we are just another "pebble on the beach" when it comes to solving national or international problems. Let us remember that our thoughts, if properly expressed, have a decided influence on the thoughts and actions of others. If our manifestations savor of courage and optimism, they have a beneficial influence; if they savor of discontent and grief, they are destructive to the objective—national welfare. Every day presents many opportunities to those who have the will to conquer adverse circumstances.

From The Editor's Semicircle

The Campus this year will present quite a different aspect from that which it did at Homecoming last year. The landscaping, which has been in progress for the past two months, is practically completed, and a more beautiful M. S. T. C. will greet the returning "grads".

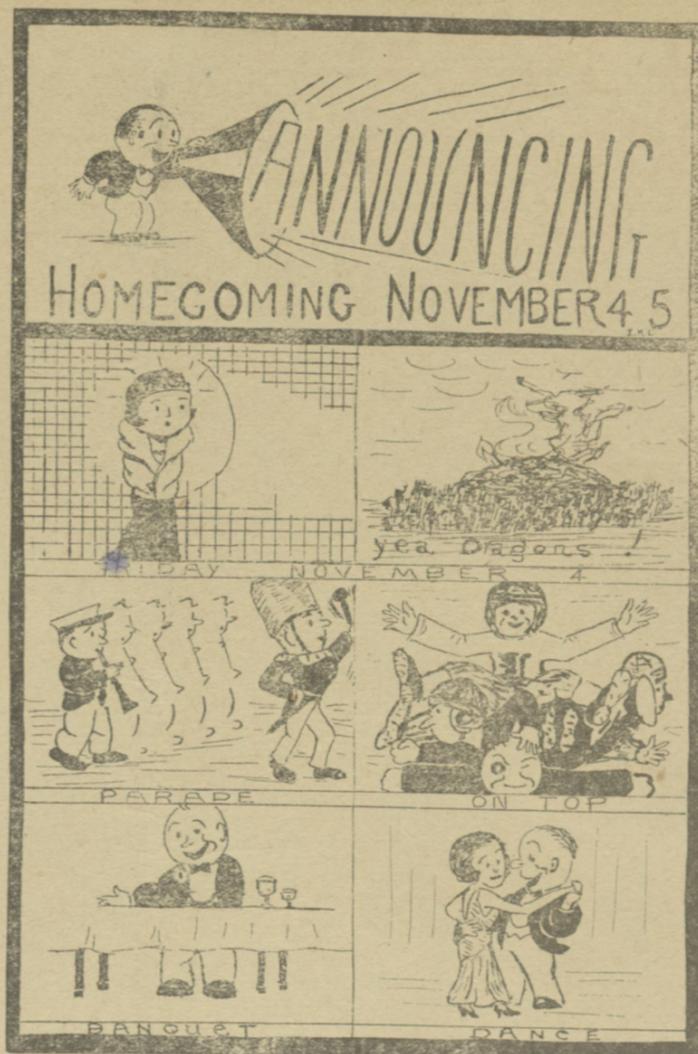

The appearance of the Choir in robes on the stage during chapel programs is another departure from the established way of doing things, and makes the occasion a great deal more impressive.

Followers of the "argumentative sport" will no doubt welcome the coming of the Irish debaters, who will meet a two man team from the College on October 31. This is one means of becoming international-minded.

Judging from comments of various students, the speakers who have appeared at the College during the past few weeks have pleased their audience. This only goes to show that even students are able to appreciate a good thing when they see it.

Music lovers will get a treat on Monday when Josef Lhevinne, gifted pianist, appears as the first of a series of Lyceum course numbers. He has been widely heralded as a man of unusual musical ability, and the Lyceum committee is to be congratulated upon securing him.

"A stitch in time saves nine", said a certain wise man years ago, and his sentiments are probably re-echoed by numerous students who discovered how little they really knew when six-weeks exams were to be written.

Freshman Comment

HOW TO MAKE COLLEGE ENEMIES

There are two things in life which the average person doesn't like, one we don't like and the other we won't take. One is advice, which most people loathe, and the other is abuse, which we absolutely refuse to take.

We have received considerable advice about making college acquaintances and friends; however the advice about making college enemies is seldom discussed. If you were to start with a good beginning, don an air of superiority and be sure not to speak to your neighbors when you meet them in the halls or on the Campus. Never smile at anyone, because he may ask you to do a favor for him if you do.

To make immediate friendship(?) with the Dean of Women or the House Mother, visit your friends after hours in your slippers that clank at every step. Another so-called bit of advice to be carried out after hours is to turn the water on in the bathroom with full force.

If you receive a box from home, let all the girls know about it so they can rejoice with you. Be sure to tell them what a grand cook your Mother is and how she can bake the best cake in town. When the girls stop in for a friendly chat or on business, don't offer them any.

If you are fortunate enough to have an electric iron in your possession, be sure to let everyone know you have one, but never lend it to that unfortunate. Any college student who is unusually brilliant will take this bit of advice and find success by following these directions.

—I. M.

THE OFF-PERIOD

Four students descended the steps of the College. Down the long walk they moved as if they had no other cares than to live and be happy. They were out on an off-period. Ah yes, they knew what to do. The usual chat over the table at the College Club would be very enjoyable. They were Seniors!

Out of the building came four more students. Their faces were masked with frowns which immediately disappeared as they stepped out into the air. Perhaps they would study for the next hour. No, they would not do that. Someone suggested studying for ten minutes and someone else suggested a game of tennis. That was final. A game of tennis was arranged. They too were spending an off-period. They were Juniors!

Next came a group of more serious students. They did not leave the building but went to the library with the purpose of finding reference books. Perhaps they had arithmetic on their minds or maybe it was geography. For twenty minutes all was quiet in the library. Finally the group assembled in the hall, and their chatter amounted to almost nothing. That was one way of spending the off-period. They were

Sophomores!

But there in the study room sat a large group of wide-awake students. They were making good use of the off-period. Books were piled high on the tables, thinking caps were on, and an industrious air filled the room. For fifty minutes this continued. Knowledge was taken from the books and transplanted into the minds of the students. They were Freshmen making use of the off period as only a freshman knows how.

—C. S.

COLLEGE COURTESY

Most of us enter college with little knowledge of courtesy as it is applied in the class rooms and about the college Campus. We have read stories such as "Frank Merriwell's College Days." These have given us a dim and unreal conception of college life. After three weeks here we have a rather distinct idea of the type of courtesy that is desired at college. Have patience, upper classmen, we are willing to learn.

We are grateful to the upper classmen who seemed to take a brotherly or a sisterly interest in us. They have been very kind to us, giving us tips and showing us about the Campus. During the first few days many of us would have been lost had it not been for some Junior or Senior coming to our rescue and leading us out of the darkness into the light. Perhaps these same upper classmen remember when they were "green Freshmen", groping, striving to settle into the routine of college life. Likewise we Freshmen will remember the kindness we were shown and pass it on to Freshmen of coming years.

Of course we all realize that we are not expected to wear our letter "B's" that we earned in football back in good old Beaville. We are aware that the dignity of the "M" shall not be infringed upon. We will respect the upper classmen and show courtesy to the faculty. We shall strive to act in a way to uphold the fine reputation of M. S. T. C. about the town or any place we happen to be.

We feel greatly honored to be accepted as members of the Dragons, and with all solemnity we swear to "carry on" in the best manner we know how.

—R. S.

KAMPUS KAPERS

Oct. 12—Tonight we had open house at the Boys doarm. All the gurls and doctor lok come over to see us. After they had gone me & Oogen went down to the club. We had a good time. We drank 3 bottles of pop.

Oct. 15—Gee we sure had a swel gam with the teachers from winona. Everybody did well werk. So did doneld burd. Doneld helped to brodkast the game. I asked the mane announcer if he thot doneld was perty good. Yah, he sed. He's good for getting in the way.

Oct. 16—There was church today, so I got up erly. The birds were singing and it reminded me of the berds in the trees at hoam so I thot of the time when I first went to skool. I gess I didn't know very much then. But Gee, the first teacher we had was pretty. She looked a lot like miss holmkvist only she was taller and hevvier and was dark komplektoned. I have always thot that she was to blame for my sukkess. I hoap she gets a good steady husband like gorman thompson.

Oct. 20—Babe, but I shur am havin fun lately. Me and Orris Jonson, Monk munsen, lennerd larsen, peat myers, Joa best, and donneld Stende have oragnised a glea klub. weve been praktising every nite this week and we shur are getting good. We know Bury me out On the Loan Prary, Kasy joanes, the wondering Kowboy, and A mans best feller is his ma. Some of the boys think we aint so very good, but i gess they dont know much about reel music. At our last meeting we desided to give frea performances for a doller a piece. Gea it wood shur be fine if we culd sing our way threw skool. Maybe the owls will like to have us do there sing-in for them.

PLANS MADE FOR POLITICAL RALLY ON ELECTION EVE

APPEARANCE OF LEGION DRUM AND BUGLE CORPS ADDED TO PROGRAM

Final plans have been practically completed this week for a College political rally on the evening before the national election on November 8, to be featured by the appearance of the Moorhead American Legion drum and bugle corps.

A special edition of the "Western MISTIC" will be published on Monday, November 7, carrying the details of the event and the speakers for the various candidates. In the meantime, however, the various party chairmen will be organizing their groups and spreading propaganda from the general headquarters in room 105, MacLean Hall.

Directory Is Made For Enlightening Of "Lost" Alumns

An amused smile passed over the face of an upperclassman as a stranger asked directions to the swimming pool. Could it be that some poor Freshman (running true to tradition) did not yet know his way about the Campus? The Senior might have withheld the raised eyebrows and patronizing air, because the questioner happened to be an alumnus who, having been gone for three years, was rather puzzled at the new arrangement of the Campus.

In order to prevent such a thing from happening (for of course the above story is not really true) some kind of directory should be provided for Homecoming "alumns". Read on, friend Alumnus.

The building standing on the site of Old Main, is MacLean Hall, the administration building, which is connected to the Physical Education building by a hallway on second floor, and separated from it by a driveway on the ground floor. (The swimming pool, by the way may be found by entering the west door of the Physical Education building and going straight down the hall.)

The Science and Music departments are still in Weld Hall. The brown frame building beside Weld Hall is the men's dormitory, which is probably familiar to some Alumni as the Exchange. The Training School stands east of the men's dormitory.

It is taken for granted that any former M. S. T. C. student, coming back to visit his Alma Mater, will know Comstock and Wheeler Halls.

"Victory March" Is Homecoming Song

As its special contribution toward Homecoming, the College Band will offer two new attractions, "The Victory March" by Vance Hallack and "The Crimson and the White" by Mr. Uggan, director. These songs, which have been used at recent games, will be of interest to the Alumni. The Brass Quartet, organized this year, pleased the crowd with a specialty number at the Concordia game, and will be featured at the Pep Fest and other events.

This M. S. T. C. organization of fifty pieces will be of major importance in developing the Homecoming spirit, and in welcoming the Alumni. It will also march in the Parade.

Personals

Oscar Thompson, Rosholt, S. D., who received his Bachelor of Education degree from the College last June, has accepted a position as teacher in East Grand Forks. He teaches history, bookkeeping, and assists with music in the high school.

Eighteen faculty members attended the luncheon of the local chapter of the American Association of University Professors, held in the Hollyhock Room last Friday. There was general discussion of plans for the year, and committees were appointed to carry these out.

NOTICE, DEGREE STUDENTS!
All degree students who plan to teach during the winter term who have not as yet reported should do so not later than Monday, according to Mr. Kise, adviser to the degree students.

ST. PAUL TO BE HOST TO ANNUAL M.E.A. CONVENTION

SEVERAL OF COLLEGE FACULTY TO PLAY IMPORTANT ROLES IN 69TH MEET

The sixty-ninth annual convention of the Minnesota Education association will be held at the Municipal Auditorium in St. Paul on October 27, 28, and 29. The general program has been divided into five sessions, each to be characterized by some special entertainment or educational feature.

"National and World Movements" will be interpreted by speakers of sober, mature, impartial judgment. Dr. Cox of New York University, George E. Sokolsky, an international student, Miss Amy Woods, from repeated attendance at Geneva and other European Congresses, William McAndrew, a national school executive, Morris Fishbein, Secretary of the American Medical association, President Coffman, of Minnesota University, are the speakers to appear at the four general program events. On Thursday evening the Minneapolis Symphony is scheduled to give a concert for the association.

"Section programs have never shown a more carefully selective assembling of leaders in the subject, group, and department sections than will be evidenced on their programs this year", states the Minnesota Journal of Education. Among those who will preside over the various sections or give addresses are the following Moorhead State Teachers College faculty members: Joseph R. Schwendeman, presiding officer of the Geography section; Miss Lou O'Laughlin, presiding over the Handwriting division; Joseph Kise, address before the Civic-Economics department; Miss Blanche Loudon, address before Elementary Teachers. Miss Georgina Lommen, Director of the College Training School, is the secretary-treasurer of the Western division of the M. E. A.

The Assembly, which is the governing body of the M. E. A., will meet in the Palm Room of the Saint Paul Hotel on Wednesday evening, October 26. Delegates from the Western Division who will attend are as follows: Supt. Reinertsen, Moorhead; Supt. Hugelien, Twin Valley; Supt. Stolen, Fertile; Supt. L. U. Towle, Detroit Lakes; Miss Katherine Leonard, Teachers College; Mr. Kise, Teachers College, substituting for Supt. Aas of Fertile; Supt. J. McArthur, Pelican Rapids, and President of the Western division, and Miss Lommen.

OWLS PLAN ORGANIZATION CHANGES

Slight changes in the organization are being planned by the Owls. Temporary officers were elected: James Krajeck, Father Owl, and Eugene Eininger, secretary-treasurer.

Mr. W. R. Tainter of Hawley, father of Miss Tainter, faculty member of M. S. T. C., broke his hip in a fall and was brought to St. John's hospital on Saturday morning.

Mr. B. F. Mackall, Moorhead druggist, who has been ill at his home for a short time, was taken to St. John's hospital on Saturday. Mr. Mackall is well known to the faculty and to many students.

"Men are made by nature unequal. It is vain, therefore, to treat them as

Here Next Monday

JOSEF LHEVINNE, RUSSIAN PIANIST, TO PLAY MONDAY

PROGRAM TO CONSIST WHOLLY OF NUMBERS COMPOSED BY CHOPIN

The program of Josef Lhevinne, pianist, who comes here next Monday as the first number on the 1932-33 Lyceum, will consist entirely of Chopin numbers. These numbers will consist of the following: group I—Bacarelle, F sharp major; Impromptu, G flat major; Three Mazurkas, C sharp minor; Opus 50, No. 3, A minor; Opus post-humos, G major; Opus 50, No. 1; and Ballade F, minor. Group II—Sonata, B minor; Allegro maestoso; Scherzo, Molto vivace; Lanzo, and Finale, presto, ma non tanto. Group III—Twelve Etudes, opus 25 and Polonaise, A flat major.

The piano on which Mr. Lhevinne will play is a Masterpiece Baldwin and is his own piano.

The Lhevinne family resided in a small town close to Moscow. His father was a trumpet player in the Royal Opera but was too poor to indulge in any luxuries, much less a piano. But fortune smiled upon the lad from the start. By chance, a brother-in-law sent them an old, square instrument to keep for him, rather than store it. With this valuable accessory, the father put his son through a test and was astonished at the talent nature had bestowed upon the lad—outstanding among these being a perfect and uncanny sense of pitch.

How to obtain instruction was the next problem, for none of the family could play. Luck again to the rescue—the elder Lhevinne knew several conservatory pupils who, flattered by the invitation, taught his child the rudiments. A start was all the young genius required, and so, at the age of 6, he could sing melodies and play the accompaniments to songs by Schubert, Schumann and Mendelssohn. At the age of 8 he essayed with perfect composure and gave with triumphant success in public no less exacting a composition than a Clementi sonata.

Here And There With The Alumni

"Babs" Brown, B. E. '30, of Ulen, who teaches at Leonard, N. D., spent the week-end in Fargo.

Ralph Smith, B. E. '30, principal at New York Mills, was in Moorhead last week-end.

Helen Chamberlain, three-year student of M. S. T. C., whose home is at Hutchinson, is teaching the lower grades at Biscay.

Mildred Graves, teacher at Mentor, spent the week-end here with her sister, Evelyn, who is a student.

Bernice Kravick and Beatrice Thomas, teachers at Breckenridge, came up for the Gamma Nu sorority dance on Friday evening.

Mrs. Chris Helmers (Eleanor Fugleth), formerly of Fertile and principal of Washington school at Crookston, now lives in Milwaukee, Wisconsin.

Eudell D. Everdell is professor of Education at Antioch College at Yellow Springs, Ohio. He received his B. A. in 1912 from the University of Minnesota and his M. A. in 1925 from Columbia University. He has done graduate work at Harvard and Oxford and studied in England during the summers of 1927 and 1928.

Kenneth Nelson Is Dragon Rooter King

Kenneth Nelson, a Junior from Moorhead, was elected rooter king, and Lenore Kravik, a Sophomore, Madison, and Hazel Bernu, New York Mills, a freshman, were selected as assistants at a meeting of the Student Commission Monday evening.

FINAL PHASE OF LANDSCAPE WORK NEAR COMPLETION

WORK INCLUDES PLANTING OF SHRUBS AND PLACING OF LAMP-POSTS

With the installation of eleven granite lamp-posts capped with decorative globes, and the placing of the last load of deciduous trees at carefully located spots about the campus, work on the landscaping project which has been under way for the past two months will soon be drawing to a finish for this year. Planting of grass seed and numerous flower beds as soon as the frost is out of the ground in the spring will add the finishing touches to the metamorphosis of the College campus.

This week has been one of varied activity. The crew Monday turned their hands to digging countless holes at staked spots about the campus in preparation for the arrival and planting of trees and shrubs. On Monday afternoon the first truck-load of evergreens arrived. Within an hour numerous brilliant spots of green relieved the sombre scene of somnolent dirt.

This first load consisted of 38 specimens of Mugho pine, 4 of Austrian pine, 35 of Colorado blue spruce, 14 of Colorado Juniper, and 7 of Pfitzer's Juniper. Placed at strategic points about the buildings and the central circle, these will supply the motif of green for the low shrubs and numerous flowers. The trees and shrubs are placed in rich black dirt just as they arrive, bound in burlap balls, the roots soon tearing their way through the burlap.

The contract for all trees and shrubs was awarded to the Cashman Nursery Company, according to R. W. Law, supervising engineer, for Morrel and Nichols, landscape architects of Minneapolis. From the Northwest Nurseries, Inc. at Valley City, the Cashman Nursery has secured some special evergreens, some green ash, and a few specimens of blue spruce.

A shipment arriving Thursday morning consisted chiefly of deciduous trees, such as elms, ash, sugar maple, hackberry, and a number of varieties of shrubs. Likewise, on Thursday morning work was begun on the laying of cables in trenches prepared, and the placing of the lamp posts, and two newel posts in front of Weld Hall. The labor on this project is also being done by the regular crew under Max Bussjaeger, foreman, of St. Paul. Of the 25 men employed at these various tasks, Mr. Bussjaeger is the only man from outside this locality. The electrical part of the campus lighting installation will be done by Dick Holzer of Moorhead.

PRESIDENT WILL TALK TO ALUMNI AT M.E.A. DINNER

"LOOKING AHEAD AT M. S. T. C." TO BE THEME AT RE-UNION BANQUET

"Looking Ahead at M. S. T. C." is the theme of the program for the Moorhead State Teachers College reunion dinner to be held at the tea room of the Golden Rule, St. Paul, at Seventh and Roberts, at 6:00 p. m. on October 28 during the M. E. A. convention. President MacLean will speak on the topic, "Looking Ahead at M. S. T. C." from an executive's standpoint.

C. A. Ballard, instructor in Science at the College, will speak from the standpoint of the faculty. Miss Mamie Carlson, B. E. '30, a rural supervisor in St. Louis County, will speak on the same topic from the viewpoint of an alumna, while Ray Johnson, B. E. '30, coach at Red Wing, will talk from the athlete's point of view.

Mr. O. R. Sande, former faculty member, who is in the department of education at St. Paul and who is president of the M. S. T. C. Alumni association, will be toastmaster. Musical numbers will be given by alumni.

Alumni members in and about the Twin Cities, with Marie Redlinger in charge, will receive the guests. The committee in charge of the program is made up of Mr. Weltzin, Mrs. Durboraw, Miss Sorkness and Mr. Gilpin.

Dr. W.W. ATWOOD TO SPEAK IN ASSEMBLY

IS WELL-KNOWN LECTURER, EDITOR AND WRITER OF TEXTBOOKS

Wallace Walter Atwood, president of Clark University of Worcester, Massachusetts and geographer of world wide fame, will address the faculty and student body at Chapel, Wednesday, October 26.

Before attaining his present position Dr. Atwood was connected with various colleges as professor of geography, geology and physiography. He was employed by the United States Geological Survey in 1901-1909. He is the author of the "Atwood Series of Geographies and Maps" commonly used in the public schools, and has published a number of books on the geography and geology of sections where he has made surveys. Dr. Atwood is editor of Economic Geography, a periodical, and has published several other scientific and educational papers.

On November 2, Dr. No Yong Park, the Oriental Mark Twain, will appear. He is noted as an author, humorist and lecturer on Far East problems. George Elias, a Shepherd of the East, a man born in Mesopotamia and raised as a shepherd is scheduled to speak November 16. Born in Mesopotamia, he is known as a soldier of fortune, a lecturer, and a shepherd.

Three Marriages Are Listed Among Alumni

Cairns—Cheney
Miss Alvene Cheney of Appleton, Minnesota, a two-year graduate of June, was married to Howard Cairns, also of Appleton on October 11. The young couple took a trip to Winnipeg and other points in Canada, stopping for a brief visit with relatives of Mrs. Cairns in Moorhead.

Gludt-Ruebke
Two Dent, Minnesota, teachers and former M. S. T. C. graduates, Lucille Ruebke, '28, and Albert Gludt, '31, were married August seventh. The newlyweds made a tour through Iowa, Missouri, Kansas, Wisconsin, and Minnesota.

Weston—Eastlund
The wedding of Miss Gladys Eastlund and Mr. Lloyd Weston of Clearbrook took place at the home of Mrs. Ellen Eastlund, 317 Ninth Street South, Moorhead, at 5:30 p. m. Tuesday.

Miss Eastlund is a graduate of Moorhead High School and of the College, and is a former teacher in the Clearbrook school. After a wedding trip to the Twin Cities, the couple will make their home in Clearbrook.

CARTOON CONTRIBUTED

The cartoon depicting The Spirit of Homecoming printed on page two was contributed by Ione Larson, of Moorhead, a Senior, who is majoring in art.

"Here lies Ann Mann: she lived an Old maid and died an old Man."

SIX COLLEGE HIGH STUDENTS HONORED

Six of the College High School students have obtained at least two A's and no mark below B in their full credit subjects during the last six weeks. Those to be honored are Leverett Hoag, Mary Holmquist, and Fern Lea, twelfth grade; Ione Foss, eleventh grade; Nancy Ann Heggelund, ninth grade; and Alton Peterson, eighth grade. Eight others have had no mark below B in full credit subjects. They are: Hugh Price, twelfth grade; Alfred Amundson, Delores Kelly, and Martha Lou Price, eleventh grade; Frances Nemzek and Kenneth Whitnack, tenth grade; and Dick Hoag and Ethel Nemzek, ninth grade.

All the French classes in both the Training School and College have exchanged names with French students in Europe with whom they will correspond during the rest of the school year.

Phyllis Focin, Harold Nelson and John Hanson entertained the Junior High School at their party Friday October 14. Phyllis tap-danced and Harold and John gave a negro comedy sketch. During the rest of the evening the group played games and had refreshments.

Sixteen Have Perfect Records

Sixteen Junior High School students have been neither tardy nor absent during the first six weeks of school. Eight of these are ninth graders: John Hanson, Dick Hoag, Harold Holmquist, Harold Nelson, Harold Johnk, Elaine Larson, Ethel Nemzek, and Olive Thortvedt, five are eighth graders: Phyllis Focin, Doris Holm, Minnie Orud, Jennie Stusiak, and Margaret Vandenbos; and three are seventh graders: Stanley Stusiak, Nels Thysell, and Molly Preston.

Miss Hawkinson To Talk

Today Miss Hawkinson will address the Training School assembly. She is going to speak of her experiences in the European tour, dealing especially with "Legends of the Rhine Region".

The third and fourth graders have been interested in the study of Columbus. Monday October 13 they gave a Columbus Day program and they have made Columbus Day friezes in their art work. In their history class the third and fourth grades are making a wall map showing the routes of the early Minnesota explorers. They are also making a movie from their study of the Tigris and Euphrates Rivers.

Second Grade Studies Holland

The members of the second grade have been interested in plant life. They have studied about bulbous plants and about seed plants and how the seed is scattered. The second graders are composing verses about Holland and the Dutch people. They have learned about the Junior Red Cross and are bringing their money for room membership.

The first grade reading class has been composing experience stories in reading class. The members of the class have recently made a story about a Dutch doll that Miss Korsbrek brought from Holland. During the past week, they made one about Enola Schramm's white rabbits which she brought to school. The first graders completed their jelly project last week and are now studying wheat and the making of bread. They are planning to make bread.

Miss Hayes Hostess At Sigma Tau Delta Dinner

The active and alumni members of Sigma Tau Delta were dinner guests of Miss Hayes at the Comstock Hotel on Monday, October 17, at 6:30. There was a short business meeting at which the fraternity voted to sponsor the annual literary supplement. It is planned to make it larger than ever before, and while no definite date has been set for its publication it will probably be during the winter term.

After the business meeting, they adjourned to the parlor and listened to the reading of original manuscripts by Mrs. Myrtle Archer, Helen Kiland, Florence Powell, Allen Erickson and Wilson Dokken.

LOCKE, GLASRUD SPEAK

Dr. H. J. Locke, professor of sociology of the College, and Clarence Glasrud, president of the International Relations Club, participated in the program at the first fall meeting of the Fargo Good Will society, October 12.

BIERI, OWENS ENTERTAIN

Miss Bieri, and Miss Owens entertained the American Association of University Women at a Fellowship dinner last week. Miss Bieri led the evening's program, the theme of which was "Fields in Education for the Disabled." Miss Lumley gave a talk on "The History of Preventoria."

It seems that nowadays the way one can tell a football player around here is by his innjuries. At least, that's what one girl said.

Maybe this is the secret to the outcome of last Friday's yelling contest: The Frosh yelled because they wanted to; the Sophomores because they had to; the Juniors and Seniors didn't yell because they didn't want to. Anyway the Frosh walked off with the honors.

Miss Leonard's Arithmetic class was discussing expenses and the use of a budget when one Freshie piped up: "Then would a doctor's bill come under operating expenses?"

It isn't spring, but it seems that some of our young men's fancies have turned. Witness the strenuous use of the huddle system in the library.

Everyone is talking about our nice Freshmen, but no one has mentioned our nice Fresh women.

Many of the girls report that the Student Directories are being well used. In fact the boys have covered the first five pages. (We hope with success!)

Advice to Freshmen—enter into the spirit of Homecoming but avoid all spirits. You know what I mean—?

Altha Gabrielson: "You can't usually fool me about nuts, but I don't believe I know what these are."

Past Homecomings

One Year Ago

The impressive ceremony of the laying of the cornerstone of MacLean Hall will feature talks by Dr. Livingston C. Lord and Dr. Frank A. Weld, former presidents of the College.

Two Years Ago

The parade this year will see the addition of a large Dragon banner, symbolic of the Dragon power, carried by a standard bearer and guards, leading the parade.

Three Years Ago

The Committee on Decorations has spared neither time nor effort to make this Homecoming the most pretentious occasion of this sort the school has ever had.

Four Years Ago

Besides all the floats, bonfires, music, dancing and banqueting that goes with Homecoming, there will be something else, vitally real and significant—the game with Concordia.

Five Years Ago

The "Peds", smarting under the defeat handed them by St. Cloud, are preparing themselves for the Wildcat (Wahpeton) invasion.

Regular instruction in Library work will be given by Miss Hougham, Miss Mostue, and Miss Powell to High School students who desire it.

GEOGRAPHY COUNCIL HEAR SCHWENDEMAN TALK

On Monday, October 10, Mr. Schwendeman gave a very interesting talk before the Geography Council on "An Audience with the Pope". A lunch served by Tracy Schroeder and Charles Jahr concluded the events of the afternoon.

ALTHAIA TO PLAY FOR HOMECOMING PROGRAM

A special meeting of Althaia was held Wednesday afternoon, October 19, at four o'clock in room 208. Plans for homecoming were discussed and new members elected.

MISS CORNELIUSSEN ON COUNTRY LIFE PROGRAM

The regular meeting of the Country Life Club was held Monday. There was a discussion on Homecoming plans and the Homecoming float. Following this, there was a short program of music and readings, and also a talk by Miss Alice Corneliusson on her trip through the Black Hills.

FORMAL TEA TO BE GIVEN BY PI MU PHI GROUP

The Pi Mu Phi sorority gave a formal tea for their rushees on Wednesday at Ingleside. Jane Caniff was pledged as an honorary member at the meeting last Wednesday.

GAMMA NU'S HOLD AUTUMN PARTY SATURDAY

An informal dancing party for the members of the Gamma Nu Sorority and their friends, was held last Saturday evening in the small gymnasium and social room.

Special features were given by Marlys Gerraghty, a reading (Norwegian) in Norwegian costume and also interpretative dancing in special costume. A solo "Without a Song" was given by Enid Peterson, accompanied by Ethel Erickson. The dance programs were designed by Roseltha Neisheim.

The patronesses, honorary members and their husbands were: Dr. and Mrs. Gosslee, Mr. and Mrs. Price, Mr. and Mrs. Manchester, Dr. and Mrs. Shaw, and Miss Hawkinson.

RUSHING IS BEGUN BY BETA CHI SORORITY

The Beta Chi sorority opened informal rushing with a tea at Ingleside Monday.

SPEECHES AND MUSIC FEATURE Y. M. C. A. MEETING

The Y. M. C. A. met Thursday evening in the Recital room, Weld Hall. After introduction of officers by Dr. Locke, the program, consisting of short talks by Axel Taffin, Ragnar Hanson, and Wilson Dokken, and a piano solo by Lawrence Norin, was given. Plans were made for future activities.

Y. W. C. A. ALSO MAKES PLANS FOR HOMECOMING

The Y. W. C. A. held their weekly meeting at Wheeler Hall Fireside Thursday evening, in the form of a song service of Louise Murray. A short business meeting was held and temporary plans were made concerning Homecoming.

KAPPA PI WILL INITIATE NEW MEMBERS SOON

Kappa Pi members gave a party yesterday in the Kindergarten room. The members came dressed as characters of Mother Goose. Initiation of new members will take place on Wednesday, October 26. The fall party will be on November 12.

NANCIO PLAN TO CONCENTRATE ON ASSEMBLIES

Nancia Club of the Jr. H. S. and H. S. teachers will meet on October 25 at 4 o'clock. Reports will be given by planning and program committees. Nancio members have agreed to run their club without dues, substituting their whole-hearted abilities to plan and develop high school assemblies and clubs.

MISS KORSBREK SPEAKS ON IMPRESSIONS OF EUROPE

"Norway and Switzerland As I Saw It" was the topic on which Miss Korsbrek spoke to the Gamma Gamma chapter members of Kappa Delta Pi in Ingleside on Tuesday evening. She gave the highlights of the two countries as she saw them on her tour this past summer. Miss Korsbrek brought back some articles characteristic of the country which were displayed at this time.

Mrs. Kise sang two songs. One of these was by a Norwegian composer and was sung in the original language. The other song was a Swiss song. The William Tell Overture was played on the new R. C. A. combination radio-phonograph. William Tell is known as the "Hero of Switzerland."

W. A. L. SELECTS TWO COMMITTEES FOR HOMECOMING

The regular W. A. L. monthly meeting was held last Thursday. Plans for Homecoming activities were discussed. It was decided to sell lunches at Homecoming, and Lillian Peterson, Gunda Hansen, and Ruth Roragen were appointed as a committee to plan the lunches. The float was discussed also and a committee consisting of Edith Alexander, Olive Askegaard and Bernice Campbell were appointed to work on it.

MISS HAWKINSON ADDRESSES LAMBDA PHI

Miss Hawkinson gave an informal talk on her trip to Europe on October 11 at the Lambda Phi Sigma meeting in the social room. A committee consisting of Clarence Glasrud, Agnes Duffy and Charles Jahr was appointed to take care of the news letter which is sent to the alumni members each quarter. The following were appointed on the float committee for "Homecoming": Elmer Stanghelle, Kenneth Johnson, and Mae Tangen.

Agnes Dahl and Lucia Askegaard form the "Homecoming" luncheon committee. The luncheon will be at the Campus Tea Room at 11:50 a. m. on November 5. Election of new members will take place at the next regular meeting October 25.

Gamma Nu's Guests At Autumn Tea Dance

Mrs. T. M. Manchester, Fargo, and Mrs. W. S. Shaw, Fargo, were hostesses to the members of the Gamma Nu sorority and their guests at an Autumn Tea dance held at the Fargo Country club Thursday from four to six. Autumn leaves and flowers were used throughout the rooms, while candles furnished the only light. Presiding at the tea table were Mrs. A. J. Nemzek, patroness of the sorority, and Miss Ella Hawkinson, honorary member.

A musical program during the tea was provided by Miss Audre Casselman, vocalist, who is a sorority alumna, Roseltha Nesheim, violinist, and Adele Jensen, pianist. In the receiving line were Miss Bernice Onstine, sorority president; Mesdames W. S. Shaw, T. M. Manchester, and Marian Sutherland Page, patronesses; and Mrs. Agnes Kise, sorority counsellor.

AFFILIATED SCHOOL NEWS

School began last Monday in the Koester district. The supervising teacher, Miss Mabel Granfor, with the aid of Miss Bieri's Rural School Methods class repaired, cleaned and classified about 200 library books on Thursday, Friday and Saturday of last week.

Miss Bieri and Miss Corneliusson visited at the Koester school Tuesday. Miss Frick, college Physical Education Director, accompanied Miss Corneliusson, rural supervisor, to the seven affiliated schools and demonstrated types of playground activities. Miss Frick, with the assistance of the student teachers now in these schools, began work on the kinds of games and sports to be carried out in the play day.

The primary children of Clearview gave a dramatization on Columbus Day depicting the story of Columbus. The first scene showed Columbus in the court of Spain before King Ferdinand and Queen Isabelle.

PACK AGAIN WILL ATTACK DRAGONS AT HOMECOMING

ABERDEEN WOLVES RETURN TO FEATURE AFTERNOON OF HOMING FETE

Featuring the Homecoming celebration will be the football game between the Northern State Teachers College Wolves of Aberdeen and the Dragons to take place on Memorial Field, Saturday, November 5, at 3:30 p. m. The Northern Wolves are not strangers to Moorhead alumni or students, for last year they held a superior Dragon crew to a scoreless tie, thereby marring an otherwise perfect Homecoming.

Boasting of victories over Huron College and Dakota Wesleyan, the Wolf pack, under the tutorage of Robert N. Campbell, will come to Moorhead confident of victory. A crew of revengeful fighting Dragons is not to be denied, however, and they intend to present visiting alumni with a victory if it is humanly possible.

The Dragon-Wolf game will feature power against craftiness and speed. The Wolves boast of a powerful fullback in the person of Leland, whereas the Dragons will rely on the fleet-footed Robinson and the shifty Knauf and the crashing Krajeck for yardage. Two veteran lines will oppose each other, insuring a close and hard fought battle.

Just Rambling

(By Jack Bridges)

Well, it was a real game with Winona last Saturday, was it not? . . . . For a while it looked like Winona might hold strong and defend their 6-point margin, but then the Dragons tightened up their offense and displayed the traditional spirit to score the second touchdown . . . . and were we relieved when Mathiasconusiferous Knauf booted over the extra point? Dunt eskl! . . . Right now Edward Eastman is hatching out a story of the contest, and we believe that he will present a true account of what happened . . . . But that will be enough out of you, as the farmer said when he moved his pail to the next cow . . . . One fellow around here that is going places as a lineman is Julien Bjerkness, who takes his football the most seriously of any man on the team. You know, "Jim" finishes training for the football season about the middle of the winter, and then starts in right away to train for the next year . . . . and having the build which he does, he can't be stopped from going right up into the star chart . . . . Alfred Elwan Cocking says that Winona thought Herb Moberg was triplets, and rightly so. Herbie turned in just another game to prove that centers don't come any better than he . . . . Yes, future maitre, that is correct English . . . . For a fellow with a bummed ankle, Billy Robinson turned in an extraordinary game too. When Bill is in condition, there is no better halfback in the two cities . . . . and, to take a leaf from the Notorious Northern Lights, that is nobody's bug house fable . . . . The Homecomings (rah, rah) are coming pretty quick . . . . Well, let's pitch in and make it a real, peppy homecoming (rah, rah) . . . . After a short study of the weather conditions, we have been forced to the conclusion that it might be cold at the time of this annual event, but then, what is the difference if we have a torrid pep fest, a warm bonfire, a heated game, and a hot dance? . . . . Bill Stevenson is even going to come home . . . . From the expression on Bill's face after the Cobber game, we were just a little bit worried . . . . We always miss out on everything—here there was a big fire over in Fargo, and we were sound asleep . . . . Sidney Kurtz is looking for ideas for his Kampus Kapers, and so any of you young men or women who wish to do a little publicity work can get pretty reasonable rates from Kidney . . . . we understand that he did this work at a reasonable price last year . . . .

Moorhead High school showed power in taking Detroit Lakes 12-0. Big Lyle Sturgeon went through the Laker line like it wasn't there. His 235 pounds of beef are rather unusual for a high school man.

. . . . Miss Leonard was explaining a problem in Math when she made this break: "Now watch the blackboard while I go through it." . . . . Gee, we wish we could be a professional punster—all they do is sit around and have a grind old time! . . . . But forget this rubbish and will see you at homecoming (rah, rah) but remember that only the brave deserve the fare (at least that is what the bandit said as he poked the gun in the street-car conductor's stomach . . .

FIGHTING DRAGON TEAM OVERCOMES WINONA ELEVEN

REJUVENATED NEMZEK MEN BEAT PURPLE FOR FIRST CONFERENCE WIN

(By Ed Eastman)

An unconquerable fighting spirit which prevailed in the minds of a band of snarling, raging Dragons enabled them to overcome a series of disastrous "breaks" and score a 14-13 victory over a stubborn Purple eleven from Winona on Memorial Field last Saturday before a fair-sized crowd. It was the first victory for the Dragons in the Northern Teachers Conference and the first defeat for Winona.

It was the trusty toe of a freshman quarterback, Matty Knauf, that spelled the final margin of victory, after the Purple Winonans had maintained a 13-7 lead into the last quarter. A touchdown by Bill Robinson, the spearhead of the Dragon offense, even though crippled, had tied the score at thirteen all, when Knauf stepped back to make the kick for the final point. With Robinson holding the ball, Knauf calmly booted the ball squarely between the uprights, putting the Dragons in the lead and relieving the spectators of a constantly growing anxiety.

Dragons Score Early

In the first few minutes of the game it looked as if the Dragons would win in a walk, as they carried the ball for a touchdown in seven plays. Krajeck returned the kickoff to the Moorhead 35-yard line. From there Edlund carried the ball around end for 17 yards, Robinson went out of bounds on the next play, Edlund made two yards off tackle, Robinson streaked around end for a long jaunt to the 6-yard line, from where Krajeck went to the one-yard line and then over for a touchdown. Knauf kicked goal to make the score Moorhead 7, Winona 0.

Before the end of the quarter, after an exchange of kicks, Edlund and Robinson alternated in carrying the ball and reached the 20-yard line, where they lost the ball on downs. Winona kicked the ball out to their 40-yard line to Knauf, who immediately returned it to the 20-yard line, but again the Purple well held for downs.

Winona Counts Twice

Opening the second quarter on their own 40-yard line, Anderson, who had replaced Robinson, made a poor punt which was partially blocked by one of the Dragons. Gislason, Winona end, caught the ball and dashed undisturbed for 20 yards to score. The kick for the extra point was blocked, making the score Moorhead 7, Winona 6.

After Winona had kicked off, the Dragons were forced to punt. Nemzek kicked to the Purple forty-yard line, where Viezbecke caught the ball and ran 60 yards to place the Winonans in the lead. Rogge kicked goal to make the score Winona 13, Moorhead 7.

Shortly after the resumption of hostilities after the half, Winona advanced to the 10-yard stripe, where Robinson intercepted a pass to end their most serious scoring threat of the half. The Dragons threatened the Winona goal continually throughout the remainder of the third period, the quarter ending with the ball in Moorhead's possession on the Winona eight-yard marker.

Knauf Kicks Goal

Nemzek and Knauf made four yards through the line in two plays, after which Robinson was given the ball and carried it around end to knot the count. It was then that Knauf made good his placement that placed the cohorts of the Crimson and White in the lead, 14-13.

Again the Dragons threatened to score when Hank Booher intercepted a lateral pass on the Winona ten-yard line, only to lose the ball when the

Bemidji took advantage of the ragged, fumbling play of the St. Cloud team and upset them, 6-0, to spoil an otherwise perfect Homecoming for the Saints. The game was St. Cloud's first in the Northern Teachers Conference

Duluth was hard pressed to win from Virginia Junior College but had just enough power to emerge with a 12-6 victory.

The new rules may not have changed the game much, as some authorities claim, but nevertheless they have left the spectators looking puzzled at the seeming weirdness of some decisions.

When Hank Booher intercepted a lateral pass and ran for a touchdown only to have the play called back, the decision left some of the spectators befuddled as to the why and wherefore. For purpose of enlightenment, the rule covering this play states that when a lateral pass is intercepted by a member of the defensive team, the ball goes to that team at the point of interception and may not be run back.

With no team yet having played more than two conference games and with every team but Mankato suffering a defeat, the chances for an undefeated Conference champion seem mighty slim.

St. Cloud made ten first downs to Bemidji's one, and yet they lost. Who can blame them for feeling that they should have won?

Purple made a desperate last stand to repulse the Dragons without further score. A futile Winona attempt to count via the aerial route was in vain, the game ending with the Dragons triumphant for the first time this season.

Moberg, Robinson Outstanding

Herb Moberg was easily the outstanding linesman of the game. Ably assisting him in the Dragon line were Hank Booher and Wayne Stephens, ends, and Jeffy, guard. In the backfield, Bill Robinson was the most consistent ground gainer, while Knauf, Edlund, Krajeck, and Nemzek contributed largely to the Dragon victory.

Rogge, Viezbecke, and Kozlowski were the outstanding performers for Winona. The Purple team played an alert, hard, clean game that was a credit to that institution.

HARD LUCK JINX DOGS FIRST PART OF GRID SEASON

INJURIES, INEXPERIENCE TAKE HEAVY TOLL IN FIRST THREE CONTESTS

An avalanche of injuries, lack of experienced field generalship, and a "hard luck" jinx which refused to be shaken off until last Saturday, have made life anything but rosy for Coach Alex Nemzek's Dragon football squad this season.

With a number of capable veterans and a very promising array of freshman material appearing for the first practice, prospects were exceedingly bright. But then Fate took a hand, and ever since, football has been a grim, serious, unprofitable business with every practice producing a new batch of problems to a much-harassed coaching staff.

Sioux First Opponents

Opening the season against the powerful Sioux squad of the University of North Dakota, the Dragons showed great possibilities in offensive and defensive play against a foe definitely recognized as their superior. The Dragons, playing without the services of Jim Krajeck, veteran guard, managed to hold the Sioux to a score of 25-0, a highly creditable performance. Bill Robinson, star halfback, played a consistent game that had the Sioux ends on their toes most of the time. The sweeping end runs of Pierce and Knauf were the cause of the four touchdowns scored against the Dragons.

Lose To Cobbers

The game with Concordia, preceded by the announcement that Krajeck was out of the game indefinitely, was typical of the hard-fought battles of previous years. The Dragons failed to exhibit the polish and the drive that they had shown against the Sioux, while the Cobbers played an inspired brand of ball. Through the combined backfield efforts of Moran, Fritz, and Hilde, the Cobbers amassed a total of twenty points before Robinson scored on the most spectacular play of the game, a forward-lateral pass followed by a 75-yard run for a touchdown. Although the final score was 20-6 in the Cobbers' favor, yet the thing which drew the most favorable comment was the sportsmanlike attitude of both players and spectators.

Injuries Take Toll

Previous to the departure for Duluth came the news that Bill Robinson, star halfback, had been injured and that MacAllister, veteran guard, was disabled indefinitely. Ross Stephens, freshman quarterback, and Jim Blaine, experienced end, were also on the injured list. Minus the services of these men, the Dragons lost a heart-breaking 7-6 tilt to the Duluth Peds in the opening Northern Teachers College Conference game. Notably lacking during the game was the "spirit" that usually goes with Nemzek-coached aggregations. Loss of the game may be attributed partly to faulty field generalship.

Win From Winona

With the preparation for the Winona game came a revival of the old "spirit", a vigor and a determination that were reminders of previous Dragon elevens. It was a real, typical "Nemzek" team that took the field Saturday against Winona and emerged victorious by a 14-13 score.

If the Dragons play as they did last Saturday, and indications are that they will, there is no doubt but that the remainder of the schedule will be accomplished with a great deal more success than that with which they have been previously awarded.

The fifth grade students are making a collection of Minnesota leaves to send to a grade in the Los Angeles school system.

DRAGONS TO PLAY LAST CONFERENCE GAME OF SEASON

TO MEET BEMIDJI IN FORENOON TOMORROW; TACKLE N. D. STATE NEXT WEEK

Fresh from its first Conference victory, the Moorhead Teachers College football team will engage the Bemidji Peds in the last conference tilt of the season for the Dragons. The game will take place on Memorial Field tomorrow morning at ten-thirty o'clock. The game is to be played at this unorthodox hour to give ardent fans an opportunity to witness the Nodak-Bison and the Concordia-St. Thomas games which will take place in the afternoon.

Although the Moorhead and Bemidji teams have each suffered defeat in the loop, the game will be hard fought, for the winner will have a problematical share in the conference title. If Mankato, now undefeated, drops a game, the Dragons will tie for the flag. The Bemidji team will be stronger than dopesters predicted, for last Saturday they defeated the highly-rated St. Cloud team. The revamped Dragons also showed strength in their game with Winona last week when they won by the close margin of 14-13.

Second Tilt With Bemidji

This will be the Dragons' second meeting with Bemidji, for two years ago the team journeyed to Bemidji to return with a 33-0 victory. This year, however, we are meeting a more experienced team, coached by Jack Sterritt, who made an enviable record at Glencoe High School.

The following Saturday, October 29, the Dragons will step across the Red River to meet the highly-rated and successful North Dakota State Bison. Although the odds will be in favor of the A. C. team, a hard battle is assured, for an improved and fighting Dragon machine will take the field in an endeavor to prove their strength to a doubtful audience.

Last year the Dragons lost to the Bison by the score of 19-6. This year, however, the Bison strength is concentrated in Fritz Hanson, speedy ball carrier, and it is the opinion of many sports writers that if you stop Hanson, you stop the Bison; there is therefore a chance for anything to happen.

COLLEGE HIGH IS BEATEN BY SPUDS

DEFEAT IS FIRST OF THE SEASON; WILL PLAY MAHNOMEN AND HAWLEY

Failing to gain after the ball had been placed on the five-yard line by Berthoff, the Baby Dragons lost their first football game of the season last Saturday afternoon on Memorial Field to the fast Moorhead High School team, 6-0. The game was played as a preliminary to the Dragon-Winona game and gave the students an opportunity to view some future Dragon stars in action. Moorhead did not use all of its first-stringers.

The only score of the game came late in the second quarter when a pass placed the ball on the Baby Dragon five-yard line. Spencer Jones, Moorhead quarterback, then carried the ball over. The Baby Dragons lost their only chance to score when three plays failed to advance the ball from the Moorhead five-yard marker. Olson and Briggs gained most of the yardage for the College High while Captain Hugh Price was a tower of strength on the defense, continually throwing Moorhead ball-luggers for a loss.

Tomorrow afternoon at one o'clock the Baby Dragons will meet Hawley H. S. on Memorial Field. The following Wednesday the Baby Dragons will journey to Mahnomen to meet their first High School team. This will be the last game for the College High and should prove to be a good one, for Mahnomen defeated Dilworth last week 20-0.

New Dramatic Club Members Give Plays

"The Weak Spot" was one of the two one-act plays with which new members of the Dramatic Club, under the direction of Miss Tainter, entertained the student body this morning in assembly. The cast was comprised of the following students: John Parson, Middle River; Lillian Kankel, Red Lake Falls; and Florence Grove, Morris.

The second play, entitled "Wisdom Teeth", was played by the following: Vance Hallack, Fargo; Rhoda Salverson, Ada; Signe Olson, Fargo; and Mildred Bengson, Esmond, N. D.

That the combined casts is composed of first-year students with the exception of two of its members is a fact worthy of mention.

Psi Delta Kappa Group Has Tea at Larson Home

Members of Psi Delta Kappa sorority entertained rushees at an autumn Tea Tuesday afternoon at the home of Ione Larson, 422 11th St. S., Moorhead. An Autumn motif was chosen for the tea, and the centerpiece was a pumpkin filled with fruits of the season. Setting and refreshments were in keeping with the season, fall leaves, autumn flowers, and a color scheme of brown and orange being used in decorations.

Cello and piano music was furnished by Jean McDonald and Eleanor Hyatt, Fargo, throughout the afternoon. Those in charge of arrangements were Florence Powell, Alice Skottem, Sarah Chaffee, and Miss Larson.

BETA CHI TEA BEGINS RUSHING ACTIVITIES

Beta Chi sorority began its Fall rushing activities with a tea held in Ingle-side on Monday from four to six. Mrs. Britt, Mrs. Lura, Mrs. Rustad, and Miss Ellen Anderson poured.

Music was furnished throughout the tea by Mr. Sandness, accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Locke; Alice Nelson, accompanied by Lawrence Norin; and Joan Storrs.

These Five Will Help Generate Pep

Reproductions Of Paintings, Sculpture That Decorate MacLean Hall Reviewed

"An honest confession is good for the soul". How many M. S. T. C. students, as they pass in and about MacLean Hall have stopped and enjoyed the many pictures, some old and some new, that are to be found within its walls.

The casual person was a rather hazy idea about painters and paintings. They are usually a people and a field set apart, and not to be understood by the "practical" bread-winners. It is for this very reason that the attention of the Homecoming visitors as well as the student body is being called to the various fine copies of some of the masterpieces in MacLean Hall.

The picture hanging on the east wall in the reserve library is of the statue of Lincoln, the monument in Lincoln Park, Chicago, sculptured by Augustus Saint Gaudens. This statue is recognized as one of the noblest conceptions of the character of the Great Emancipator. It is of bronze, eleven and one half feet high. The simple but impressive figure inspires dignity, despite the homely everyday attire.

With his firmly planted feet, his erect body, squared shoulders and resolute bearing, Lincoln is here depicted as a tribute of the people, as a man accustomed to face a mob, if need be, and bend them to his will. In contrast to this is his slightly-bowed head, sad features, and quiet but impressive hands, betokening Lincoln, the thinker.

In the waiting room near President MacLean's office is a copy of a famous portrait of George Washington painted by Gilbert Stuart and presented to the College by Mr. B. F. Mackall, a pioneer of Moorhead. In this, as in the other portraits which Stuart made of Washington, we see him in powdered wig, black coat, ruffled jabot and full neckcloth, against a neutral background. All of our interest is centered in the face, whose features wear an expression of kindly dignity and strength. The roundness of the forehead and cheeks and the delicate carvings of the nose are shown with simple strokes, by means of shadows cast by the light from overhead. It is the eyes and the strong line of the mouth that give life to the portrait.

On the third floor, in the reading room of the Fine Art Studio is the statue of Sacagawea, sculptured by Cyrus Dalling. She is an Indian woman who acted as guide for the Lewis and Clark expedition from Bismarck to the Pacific coast and back again. Born among the Shoshone or Snake Indians, in what is now the state of Idaho, she had been captured by another tribe when a girl and sold to her husband, a French interpreter.

There have been two statues erected in memory of her, one in Bismarck, N. D., and the other one in Oregon. The one in the reading room is a copy of that erected in Oregon by the women of the United States, in honor of the pioneer mother of the Oregon country.

On the west wall in the main reading room of the library are pictures of the three Sibylls, Libyque, Jeremiah and Delphique, painted by Michael Angelo and copied from the ceiling of the Sistine Chapel in Rome. The "Sibyl" had been adopted by the Italians from the ancient historical mythology, as a personification of prophecy.

The Sibylla Libyque, represented as having powerful proportions, but less closely draped, has taken down a massive volume from above her head. The Sibylla Jeremiah has his feet crossed under him, is bent forward, supporting the elbow of his left arm against his side, his hand across his mouth, and is buried in the great beard of his leaning head—the image of the deepest, calmest thought. The Sibylla Delphique, with her waving hair escaping from her turban, is a beautiful young being, the most human of all, gazing into vacancy or futurity. She holds a scroll.

The following is a directory of other pictures to see: Moses, painted by Michael Angelo—President MacLean's office; Saint Etienne du Mont, Paris, an etching by Louis Orr—Mrs. Vowles office; The Prayer in the Desert by E. Frennoghi—south wall of the main reading room in the library; The Parthenon and The Ruins of Persepolis—children's literature room; Zons by Blum—north wall reserve reading room; The Coming of the Storm by Innes, presented by Miss Margaret McCarten—Women's faculty room; Landscape by Childe Hassens, Flower Decoration by Jean Baptiste, and Moonlight by Chabanian—Ingleside.

M.S.T.C. DEBATERS MEET IRISH TEAM

Representing M. S. T. C., Gorman Thompson and Wilson Dokken, both of Thief River Falls, will meet the debaters from Trinity College, Dublin, on October 31. The College team will uphold the negative side of the question: "Resolved that nationalism is a bar to peace and progress."

Wilson Dokken has been a member of M. S. T. C. for the past three years, and Gorman Thompson for two years. The latter also attended the second assembly of the Minnesota Model League of Nations last year. During 1931-32, both men made an extensive tour with the debate team, meeting St. Cloud Teachers, Macalester, St. Thomas, Winona Teachers, River Falls, and Carleton College.

The debate will be held in Weld Hall Auditorium at 8 o'clock, with President MacLean acting as chairman. The International Relations Club will entertain the debaters at a luncheon after the debate.

Old World Romance, Old World Scenery Brought to Us by Local Travellers

(This is the second installment of excerpts from a series of letters written by J. R. Schwendeman to The Moorhead News presenting a rather detailed account of the European Tour during the past summer.)

From Florence, Italy—"We have had the most comfortable weather this far. Through England, France and Switzerland we have slept under a blanket and feather tick. Rain has made us uncomfortable only one day and that in London, England.

Sightseeing has been well carried out. Our first day out included the Old Tower of London. Aside from stories of gruesome beheadings, the presentation of the crown jewels was most impressive. Kenilworth and Warwick Castle were included in the Stratford-on-Avon trip. Kenilworth is a magnificent old English ruin of the Elizabethan period; Warwick links the past to the present and is occupied by present Earl of Warwick.

Shakespeare's birthplace and Ann Hathaway's cottage has all the romance of the genius represented. Other features were Westminster Abbey, St. Paul's Cathedral, and many monuments and gardens, including a view of the royal palace.

In Paris Napoleon's tomb was most impressive. Notre Dame and the Eiffel Tower were all they are represented to be. Malmaison was interesting as the home of Napoleon and Josephine. The Versailles Palace in addition to the hall of mirrors where the peace of 1919 was signed is elaborate in paintings, and statuary. The League of Nations buildings at Geneva are striking only in their significance.

Venice is truly a city of the sea. Three hundred eighteen islands are included in the city limits. All the streets are canals. All of our sightseeing was done by boat.

From a boat on the River Rhine—"We are now on a palatial Rhine river steamer, the Mainz. Since I left you at Venice at the last writing, I must return there and bring the tour up to date.

In Venice most of the presentations in St. Marks Cathedral and the Doges palace are of royal and religious subjects. St. Marks is one of the most interesting cathedrals in Europe. Florence appeared to us the most beautiful of all Italian cities.

Rome presents her ruins of past fame to the tourist. The Forum, Baths, and Coliseum stand hugely as gaunt skeletons of a momentous past. The cathedrals of St. Peter and St. Paul are unmatched in hugeness, newness of appearance and ornamentation. Our visit to the Vatican and audience with his Holiness Pope Pius XV and High Mass with the Sistine choir at St. Peter's cathedral was sublimely impressive.

*From Copenhagen—"We are in Copenhagen this morning. Going back for a moment, I will bring the tale up to date. Switzerland's snow-capped Alps charmed us from the moment they broke the horizon until they became dim in the blue haze of distance as we reluctantly left. The Alps are sublimely thrilling because of their rugged height and heavy snow caps.

At Interlaken we watched the color change on the snow-capped Jungfrau from the shimmering whiteness of the day to rose and lavender in the sunset and the soft blue of moonlight. From both the Furka and Grimsel passes on our Alpine motor tour we viewed the summit panorama of the Alps, a glaring expanse of snow and ice pierced by sharp summit of rock. The Rhine glacier is a frozen cataract about 2,000 feet in height from the valley bottom to the point over which it cascades from its lofty mountain valley of origin.

Switzerland is an impregnable country from the standpoint of defense. At the entrance to the country from Italy, for instance, we were shown their fortifications. The "Lion of Lucerne" was the most significant feature there. It recalled the Swiss guard which we saw at the Vatican and the Versailles Palace.

We left Wiesbaden, Germany, on the palatial Rhine steamer, Mainz. The legends and folk-lore of the Rhine add to the charm of the trip. The six hours we spent on the Rhine rank as one of our most pleasant experiences. We spent the night at Aachen, where the Dutch choir on a vacation tour entertained us for dinner.

Our stop in Belgium recalled some of the war scenes and events. We were taken to the barracks where Edith Cavell was shot. From thence to little Denmark, and here we are."

From Denmark the group sailed for the United States, and taking train from New York arrived in Moorhead during the first week in September. Thus ended the most extensive tour ever sponsored by the Geography Department of the College.

The Book Shelf

The College Library is rapidly approaching the standard of quantity of the old library which was destroyed in the fire February 9, 1930. In quality it is in almost every respect superior, since there are thousands of new books and new editions of older masterpieces. The MiSTiC has been printing partial lists in several past issues and presents an additional list herewith.

THE AGE OF INNOCENCE (By Edith Wharton)

"... An unalterable and unquestioned law of the music world required that the German text of French operas sung by Swedish artists should be translated into Italian for the clearer understanding of English-speaking audiences." This is only a sample of the delightful form of amiable satire employed by Edith Wharton in her novel, "The Age of Innocence," a new accession to the Library. Despite the fact that bits of Old New York with all its conventionalities and quaintness are pictured, the setting is yet incidental, and the portrayal of characters is most significant.

Intriguing, romantic, conventional, aristocratic, whatever they may be, Edith Wharton's characters are always human. One sympathizes alike with Newland Archer in his desire to escape from the stilted life of New York society, with May Welland in her helpless ignorance of any other but this life, with Mrs. Manson Mingott and her bold disregard of petty mannerisms, and with Ellen Olenska in her struggle to regain her foothold in this world of Family, while at the same time ignoring its rigid demands of Form.

Like a strong silken thread the plot is interwoven, binding characters and setting into one unit, and, while avoiding the sensational, yet holding the reader from an entertaining beginning to the unexpected ending. . . . This volume is in our library and you will find it well worth your reading.

LORD OUTLINES ATTRIBUTES OF GOOD TEACHERS

RECEIVES EXCELLENT RECEPTION AT APPEARANCE ON WEDNESDAY

The fine tribute paid Dr. Livingston C. Lord, first president of Moorhead State Teachers College and president of the Eastern Illinois State Teachers College, Charleston, as he was introduced by President MacLean, and the excellent reception of his address as displayed by the applause, were marked features of the Wednesday Chapel period.

With no preliminaries, Dr. Lord began outlining and illustrating the qualities of good teaching. First in rank, he said, is the importance of character training. To inspire a child to learn to do by giving him a high incentive rather than a concrete inducement is the highest aim. Secondly, he stated, "We must know something." Without fundamental knowledge teachers lack the ease of mind so necessary to good teaching. "Recitation is the heart, mind and soul of a school." It is the thing that differentiates the student from the scamp. Organization, as characterized by promptness, regularity and economy of time, is very essential.

In conclusion he stated that every teacher should be equipped with the following six attributes: first, sound learning; second, ability to be just—neither kind nor unkind; third, hospitality as the opposite of sarcasm; fourth, preparation; fifth, clearness in questions and assignments; and sixth, culture.

Among those present at Chapel besides the students and faculty were Dr. G. L. Gosslee, resident director of the College, Mrs. S. G. Comstock, and Mrs. Morris Stadum, an alumna of the Teachers College.

Former Student Passes Away in Ada Hospital

Miss Ruby Ferry, who finished a one-year rural course last spring, passed away at the Memorial Hospital in Ada on Tuesday morning, October 11. Her death was caused by heart failure following an operation for a tumor, which had been performed the previous day. This was Miss Ferry's first year of teaching, and she was employed in District 66, Hegne.

In addition to her father and mother, she is survived by one sister, Mrs. Ole Sorenson of Twin Valley; and two brothers, Merl Ferry of Minneapolis, and Earl Ferry of Chicago. Funeral services were held on Thursday, October 13 in the First Lutheran church in Ada, Rev. L. C. Jacobson officiating. Interment was made in the Ada cemetery.

RETURNS FROM MEETING

Miss Sarah Hougham, librarian of the College, returned Sunday from Des Moines, Iowa, where she attended a regional meeting of the American Library association. Delegates and members from five states attended—Minnesota, Iowa, Missouri, Kansas and Nebraska. A large attendance at the session, at which outstanding persons in the library world were speakers, is reported by Miss Hougham.

Students Urged To Get Absent Voter Blanks in Room 208

For the benefit of those students who will be voting by absent voters' ballot, which includes all those voters on the Campus who are receiving financial aid from their home community, the following information has been gathered.

1. Give your name to Clarence Glasrud, or leave name in Room 208 on the editor's desk. You will then receive information as to absent voters' ballots and the necessary blanks.
2. If your name is in by Thursday at two o'clock, you may get your blanks Friday.
3. Envelopes received with ballot should be sent as addressed, putting "Ballot Envelope" inside of "Return Envelope."

PRESIDENT OF N. E. A. COMMENDS RALLY IDEA

Commendation for the proposed political rally to be held November 7 at the College is expressed by Dr. Joseph Rosier of Fairmont, West Virginia, president of the National Education Association, in a letter written October 14 to a member of the committee in charge of the event. "I think your ideas are sound and I see no reason why this undertaking should not be a success," he said.

SPEAKERS WILL ENLIVEN SPIRIT

For weeks past the Freshmen, under the capable leadership of Ragnar Hanson, have been gathering and hoarding (let us hope President Hoover doesn't hear of this) wood and brush. Several good-sized piles have mysteriously grown legs and walked away—whither we know not, but still a goodly supply remains. The Northwest Bell Telephone Company has donated a pole to be used as the crowning glory, and when the fires are lighted and the songs and gayety burst forth, you'd better all be there. Time and bonfires wait for no man. There is no time like Homecoming, and no bonfire as bright as the one to be burned in your honor.

Mrs. Harry G. Anderson (McGuire) is a member of League of Western Writers and Seattle Verse Writers. Her poems are published in some of the leading periodicals.

Northern Lights

We have been informed from the surrounding experts that it was Winona's poor playing and not the Dragon's par excellence that sent the Southern Minnesotans scurrying for their crying towels last Saturday.

In a moment of distraction we thought that possibly when Bill Robinson and his cohorts tore through the first few minutes, that this might have had something remotely to do with the defeat.

And when we saw the cantering Knauff complete the magic of passing through 11 Winona boys without being seen, we thought that something of the sort may have contributed to Winona's embarrassment.

On the other hand our attention was diverted to a couple of times that the Dragons attempted to put the outcome of the game on a nice platter and pass it over to the Winona boys.

And it looked to your withering old badeker that the Dragons might have agreed among themselves to lay off as long as they were ahead.

We merely point these things out to prove that it was a grave error to be content with that one point—nuff sed.
