DRAGONS, WOLVES WILL TANGLE IN TUESDAY'S GAME

LA CROSSE PEDS WILL FURNISH OPPOSITION THE FOLLOWING SATURDAY

(By Ed. Eastman)

Faced with the problem of encountering two powerful teams in the next week, following a strenuous game with the University of North Dakota Sioux last night, Dragon basketball players will engage in a busy weekend of polishing off the rough spots in their offensive and defensive play. The Dragons will meet the Northern Wolves of Aberdeen Teachers College next Tuesday night and the LaCrosse Peds on the following Saturday, both games to be played in the College gymnasium at 8:00 p. m.

Lineup Undecided

With a group of capable men to choose from, Coach Nemzek is undecided as to which combinations he will use, but the starting quint will be selected from the following men: Forwards, Bill and Buzz Robinson, Herb Moberg, and Harold Matson, all lettermen, and Herb Lange, Willard Anderson, and Helmer Langlie, Freshmen. Centers, Cliff Rasmussen and Wally Erickson; Guards, Hank Booher, the only letterman available, Matty Knauf, Carl Fridlund, Maynard Thompson, Dave DuVall, and Howard Ruegamer.

Wolves Powerful

Comparative strength of the Wolves can be gained only by matching their 38-37 victory over Jamestown college with the Dragon 42-32 victory over the Jimmies last year. Although an unsatisfactory method of securing a comparison, nevertheless this would seem to indicate that the Aberdeen cagers play a classy brand of basketball, featuring a powerful attack.

In the Jamestown game, the two Aberdeen forwards, Gregerson and Williams, scored 27 of the team's 38 points. These two men with Wolvington at center and Willard and Leland at

Weekly Social Hour To Begin Next Week

Due to the postponement of the All-College party until the resumption of school after Christmas, the first of a series of weekly hops will be held next Tuesday from 4:30 to 5:45 in the newly redecorated room in the west end of the top floor of Weld Hall.

This room has the floor sanded and finished for dancing, it will be the locale for a short dance every week of school until the spring term.

Mr. Murray spoke at the meeting Tuesday night of Lambda Phi Sigma on the subject, "The Appreciation of Literature." Sydney Kurtz presided at the business session that preceded the formal program.

Talk of "Pigs" Permeates Campus As Dramatic Cast Prepares For Play

The talk of the town is "pigs"—the talk of the college is "Pigs", and tonight is the night of nights when that homely agrarian theme will be dramatically portrayed on the stage of the auditorium by a predominantly Freshman cast of the Dramatic Club. With the incantation of two realistic pigs from the ethereal air, forthwith ensconced in a none-too-stable pig-sty, and the discovery of one who could volubly imitate the oral emanations of those earthy animals, all is in readiness for the raising of the curtain on one of the most side-splitting dramas ever presented at the college.

With the woe and grief of the director's nightmare—the dress-rehearsal—over, even the cast is optimistic and cheerful about the market price of

FAMOUS READER COMING

Making his second appearance in the College within the last four years, Henry Lawrence Southwick, president of the Emerson College of Oratory, Boston, and noted as a lecturer and dramatic reader, will read Shakespeare's "King Richard III" on January 9, as the third number of the lyceum series, according to announcement made today by Miss Hayes, chairman of the lyceum committee.

A unique wall hanging worked out by Rachel Stowe, B. E. '32, editor of the 1930 Praeceptor, has been presented to the Praeceptor and is hung in the yearbook office, room 208. Worked with crayons on cloth, the oriental scene depicted is entirely original in design and has worked out in bright colors a very attractive picture.

CHRISTMAS WILL FEATURE CHAPEL

ASSEMBLY TO MEET ON THURSDAY EVENING INSTEAD OF ON FRIDAY

Rev. Ralph Conard, pastor of the Plymouth Congregational Church, Fargo, will give a Christmas message to the student body in chapel next Wednesday.

Student assemblies will be held next Thursday evening at 8:00 p. m. instead of Friday at the fourth hour. This has been arranged to give the students the benefit of the extra hour, vacation beginning at 11:00 instead of at noon. The program on Thursday evening will be composed of Christmas carols presented by the choir. Between numbers, one of Miss Tainter's pupils will give a reading.

Talking about criminal law and procedure in last Wednesday's chapel program, Mr. James Garrity, Clay county attorney, showed the part the states attorney had in dealing with persons charged with violating a criminal law. Dwelling with the part a county attorney played in criminal procedure, Mr. Garrity showed what rights and privileges a person accused of crime had in the courts of the state. In summing up his talk, he gave a glimpse of cases of pathos and cases having an element of humor that come before a states attorney in his work.

ENROLLMENT FOR WINTER QUARTER SHOWS INCREASE

TOTAL NUMBER REACHES 684 TO SET AN ALL-TIME M. S. T. C. RECORD

Enrollment for the winter quarter totals 684, the largest number of students ever enrolled on the campus, according to Miss Owens, registrar. The roll by classes now is: Freshmen, 278; Sophomores, 260; Juniors, 66, and Seniors, 68. Of the total enrollment there are 502 women attending, with a masculine element of 183, according to Miss Owen's report.

An increase of 21 over the fall term total of 663 indicates the increase in the number of women enrolled from 484 in the fall term to 502 at the present time, and an increase in the male enrollment from 177 to 183.

Going down the line from the Seniors, who show a substantial increase, 68 this term to 59 during the fall term, the Junior class shows a slight drop from 73 to 66, the Sophomores have swelled their numbers from 234 to 260, while the Freshmen also show a slight drop to 278 from 287.

Registration is practically complete at this time. A supplement to the fall term student directory will be completed soon and distributed to the student body.

MUSICAL GROUPS TO STAGE PARTY

ORCHESTRA WILL PLAY AT THE PRODUCTION OF "PIGS" TO BE GIVEN TONIGHT

The musical organizations of the college will conclude the week end at a party to be given tomorrow night at 8:00 in the rehearsal room of Weld Hall. Games, stunts, and dancing are on the evening program. The musical groups have been busy the past week preparing for coming events.

The orchestra, under the direction of Mr. Preston, will play a number of selections at the Dramatic Club's play, "Pigs", to be given tonight at 8 o'clock. Among them are "Uspania", a Spanish rhapsody by Chabrien; "Coronation March", Meyerbeer; and "Around the Country Church" by Jean Begham.

Making their first appearance this term, the College Band, directed by Elmer Uggen, played last night at the basketball game with the University of North Dakota. A second band also under the direction of Mr. Uggen was organized last Monday. As its membership is still tentative, more information concerning this organization will be given later.

A. A. U. P. Will Elect Officers On Monday

The College Chapter of the American Association of University Professors will hold a tea on Monday, at which time new officers will be elected. At the meeting last week a discussion of "Registration in Its Relation to Placement" was led by Miss Lommen and Dr. Archer.

The A. A. U. P. includes at present over 10,000 members from 341 universities and colleges. The objects of the Association as defined in the constitution are: "To facilitate a more effective cooperation among teachers and investigators in universities and colleges and in professional schools of similar grade, for the promotion of the interests of higher education and research and in general to increase the usefulness and advance the standards and ideals of the profession."

PLATFORM

1. One hundred per cent participation in extra-curricular activities.
2. Equalization of extra-curricular activities to give maximum service both to the individual and to the College.
3. Standardization of routine duties to insure more time for cultural life.
4. Greater emphasis placed on standards in the profession of teaching through longer periods of training.

MEETING OUR OBLIGATIONS

Here and there some disgruntled business man is moved to comment on the failure of his patrons to understand the full meaning of a business contract. His comment is not without cause, and one begins to wonder who doesn't pay? Why doesn't he pay? What philosophy permits him to dismiss obligations so lightly? In this analytical survey one notes a tendency to criticize the professional group for its failure to fulfill contracts. Generally this is an unfair attack but nevertheless one wonders if there isn't just a grain of truth in it?

Professional people often give unsparingly of their services, frequently with no thought of compensation. Contracts as the business man understands them, however, do not figure in their lives. Theirs is a philosophy of service. This may account for the situation some claim to exist. Anyway its something to think about—something to check on and to eliminate if it does exist.

A PLACE TO STAND

Archimedes once said, "Give me a fulcrum and a place to stand and I will move the earth." He was speaking in a mechanical sense, and we recognize that he is right in theory although the accomplishment of the deed would be impossible.

Looking at the problem from a philosophical sense the outlook is different. It does not seem so foolhardy or impossible of realization. We honor the person who has the courage of his convictions to stand firm in what he believes is right even if he is alone in that belief. Copernicus dared to defy the powers that be in stating that the earth moved around the sun instead of the sun revolving around the earth, as was the common belief at that time. Columbus braved the dangers of the unknown sea to prove his theory that the earth was round. So down through history we find pioneer souls standing alone, unshaken in their beliefs and ultimately being recognized by the masses as right.

A great many of us are too prone to let others do our thinking for us. We eagerly follow the crowds in order to be in the majority, when in reality we should take a cue from Archimedes, find a place to stand and theoretically move the earth.

MEETING A FELT NEED

That there is a strong demand for a skating rink at the college this year is all to evident. Some thirty men have expressed their desire to participate in organized hockey, and countless other students have divulged a wish to skate in their spare moments.

It is true that Moorhead provides a fine rink some seven blocks from the college. But M. S. T. C. students are loath to form skating parties where so many others congregate. Moreover, when one considers the fine gymnasium and football field we have, it seems unusual that we should be so lax as to be without skating facilities.

Situated as we are in the cold belt it would be comparatively easy matter to provide a rink for the college. The city would undoubtedly provide us the water as they do for other rinks. A place on the practice field or where the bonfire is situated each fall would suffice admirably. A board enclosure of an abandoned rink could no doubt be procured at a reasonable cost.

So why not build a rink? Student labor would be plentiful; water would be no problem; and hockey boards could doubtless be purchased at little cost.

From The Editor's Semicircle

Only twelve more shopping days left until Christmas.

The Dragon-Sioux basketball game last night proved conclusively that the team with the highest score wins the game.

The annual football banquet held last week officially brought to a close the 1932 grid season and now we can turn our attention more completely to basketball.

"O wad some power the Giftie gie us

To see ourself as ithers see us," quoth Robert Burns quite some time ago, but anent Pres. MacLean's talk in chapel last week about loafers, yodelers, gallopers, and crabs, it might very easily apply to us.

Don't forget the three act comedy, "Pigs", which will be given to-night in Weld Hall auditorium.

With the Praeceptor staff completed and work begun under the able direction of Editor Clarence Glasrud, we can look forward to another splendid year book next Spring. However, the cooperation of every student is necessary to make it truly representative of the College.

Through The Week At M. S. T. C.

(With apologies to Mr. Movius of the Fargo Forum)

A poetic (?) summary—

On Tuesday school began with pep . . . a new term, now we'll have to step . . . the marks came out and showed a few . . . that there were things they shouldn't do . . . Didn't our orchestra play just fine? . . . why not hear them another time? . . . the Thaviu concert praised long and loud . . . by a very enthusiastic crowd . . . The debaters are ready and have a good line . . . Sorority rushing provides social time . . . The Dramatic Club presents "Pigs" tonight . . . as a school event, it's a shining light . . . Two of our men on N. T. C. Conference team . . . At Bill and Hank we certainly beam . . . Moberg and Knauf make second berth . . . who can doubt that our men are worth? . . . and so for this week here ends this patter . . . with just a bit of nonsensical chatter.

Here's to Eastman and Cocking
Whose actions surely are shocking
One's just too much
Both are always in dunch
And they set the whole building a-rocking.

Said Soc after a "mile-a-minute" ride with young Cocking: "You know I never before appreciated the feeling of security life insurance gives one."

Jim Krajeck will be singing new tunes now. Something like—"Rock-a-bye Baby", "Sonny Boy", and "They Call Him Junior".

Bud Ruegamer says that no one can pull the wool over his eyes. You see he's a Montana sheep herder.

Said the Chef to the Waitress: "Cakeyououttonight?"
She replied: "Nodoughnuttowear!"

Prosperity must be here again! The other day a dime fell out of Al Cocking's pocket! Really!

The meanest woman in the world—Bertha Anderson. She woke Herman Krajeck when he was sleeping in the Library the other day.

MissLommenEntertains Training School Faculty

The Training School faculty were entertained at a dinner in the kindergarten on Monday evening by Miss Lommen, head of the Training School. Each department put on a stunt—and together put on one for Miss Korsbrek, which was a kitchen shower. Miss Korsbrek has just moved into an apartment. Special guests at the dinner were Mrs. Henry Weltzin and Mrs. Ethel Durboraw's sister, Miss Bonta of Lamonti, Iowa, who has come to spend the winter with Mrs. Durboraw.

Miss Comstock Is Featured In Sunday Forum

The Sunday edition of the Fargo Forum carried a story about Ada Louise Comstock, educator and pioneer. The study was made by Mrs. R. G. Price of Moorhead, former faculty member of M. S. T. C., and the paper presented before the Moorhead Women's Club.

Miss Comstock was the first dean of women of the University of Minnesota, the first full time dean of Smith College, and is at the present time president of Radcliffe College for women, affiliated with Harvard.

M. S. T. C. is not the only school to have honored the name of Comstock. M. S. T. C. has its Comstock Hall, named for Mr. S. G. Comstock, while at Smith College the new dormitory has also been named Comstock Hall, but this one was named for Ada Comstock, said the Forum story. Miss Comstock was graduated from M. S. T. C. in 1898.

Plans Made For Regulation Of Campus Parking

Haphazard parking of vehicles driven to the campus by the faculty and students of M. S. T. C. is conducive to a general appearance of cluttering and to difficulties in the form of inaccessibility of the buildings to visitors and delivery vehicles. The committee on traffic regulation feels that a definite plan for regulating the parking is necessary. The following regulations are submitted as a tentative plan.

First: Student parking.
Students shall be required to park on the east side of eleventh street, parallel with the curb, and facing to the north; to the north of Wheeler and Comstock Halls, at an angle to the curb on the south side of the street, facing the vehicles to the east; and on the north side of the Campus Circle, parallel with the curb fronting the Training School, Men's Dormitory, and Weld Hall, facing the vehicles to the west.

Second: Faculty parking.
The faculty members shall be allowed to park vehicles anywhere on the Campus Circle, parallel with the right hand curb. It is urged and expected that discretion will be exercised.

Third: Entrances.
No vehicle shall be parked within five feet of the walks leading in from the curb to the main walks or to building entrances.

Fourth: Passageway between MacLean Hall and the Physical Education Building.

No vehicles shall be parked in the passageway between the two buildings named above excepting those of the physical education faculty, which latter may be parked against the south wall.

Fifth: Driving on Campus Circle.
All driving on the Campus Circle shall be to the right.

Sixth: Tagging of vehicles.
Vehicles parked contrary to the above regulations will be tagged. On the tags will appear suggestions for changing the particular mode of parking to conform with the plan.

Seventh: Stop-signs.
One stop-sign will be placed to either side of the passageway between MacLean Hall and the Physical Education Building in order that student and faculty traffic between the two buildings and across that passageway may be protected.

The committee recognizes the possibility of need for modification of the above plan. Suggestions for improvement are welcomed and will reach the committee if addressed to Dr. Lura and turned in at the Exchange.

SIGMA TAU DELTA TO HOLD CHRISTMAS SUPPER

Sigma Tau Delta is planning a Christmas supper for Thursday evening, December 15, at the home of Edith Wagner. Dr. Locke will be the guest speaker.

By mistake the debate story in last week's MiSTiC omitted the name of Ruth Hillestad on the women's squad and substituted that of Evelyn McGrann, a debater last year who did not try out this year.

Judging from the crowded conditions in the library and the serious look on many heretofore frivolous brows, the marks must have convinced many that a "little studying now and then is needed by the best of men."

To Organize Clubs

Various members of the faculty and students explained the possibilities of club organizations last Friday to the High School students. After a discussion the pupils indicated first and second choices of club interests. These were the clubs in which most were interested: Junior and Senior English, Science, and Mathematics, French, Art, Music and Social Science.

Pep Meeting Held

A pep meeting was held this morning in the High School to precede the first home basket ball game which will be played at 7:30 tonight in the college gymnasium. The High School plays Glyndon. The High School students have invited their parents as their guests to this game. Following the pep meeting the clubs met for organization. Each pupil will belong to one club and will meet once a month during assembly hour.

Interesting Variety Features Assemblies

A secret has been discovered! It seems as if some one has been trying to hide the fact that in student assembly long, but it's out. The November 18 there will be movies—real (reel) pictures, and how! Maybe the people who knew the secret didn't know about it issue of the MiSTiC had printed the schedule for the winter term assemblies, but movies were not mentioned—they were hidden by the word "tentative". No, the movies won't be given next Thursday evening—only something just as good, as a Syrian merchant would say.

Anyway movies are coming and coming soon. Besides movies, pepfests, speeches (not the dry kind) music, readings, and plays will be presented. This does not mention the announcements and warnings that would be sure to affect the fellow who is not there.

Oh yes, no admission is charged. It's all free—only the student body has already paid for it. Everybody is not only welcome but expected to be there.

Class is Organized in Scout Leadership

Thirty-three college men interested in Scout Leadership congregated in the small gym a week ago Wednesday with Karl Parsons and A. Mattiola, assistant Scout Master instructor of Fargo, in charge of the group. Dr. C. P. Archer gave a talk on the purpose and values of scouting and scout leadership. Patrol Leaders, J. Bisek, S. Swenson, L. Wambach, R. Monson, and J. Krejack were chosen by the group. Menser Anderson was chosen scribe.

The general plan of conducting the class is very similar to a regular Boy Scout group.

It is planned that this class meet for two hours every week on Wednesday from one o'clock to three o'clock. Two quarter hour credits are given to all students completing the course satisfactorily. A Scout Masters certificate is issued to all members completing the course.

With The Alumni

Robert Walls, B. E. '32, and teacher at East Grand Forks, was one of the soloists in the annual Christmas program of the Thursday Musical Club of Grand Forks, which was given Sunday in the United Lutheran Church. Mr. Walls sang "Every Valley Shall Be Exalted" from "Messiah".

Ivan Ruliffson, husband of Adelle (Adams) Ruliffson, died in a Fargo hospital on Sunday from complications following an accident on his farm near Absaraka, N. D., last Thursday. Mr. Ruliffson's arm was caught in the belt of a corn shredder and suffered two fractures of the arm. Funeral services were held on Tuesday in Fargo.

To Mrs. Ruliffson, (Adele Adams) and young son, Willard, the friends of M. S. T. C. extend their sympathy.

Mrs. Oscar Erickson, (Florence Thompson) a two year graduate in 1924, whose home was formerly at Crookston, now lives at Elbow Lake.

Henrietta Ekern, a graduate of the two year course in 1924, whose home was at Lake Park and who formerly taught at Detroit Lakes, is teaching at Klamath Falls, Oregon.

Mrs. Minnie (Hagen) Lynner, Mrs. Lena (Roen) Putney, and Mrs. H. H. (Roen) Ewy, all of Fargo, entertained the alumni members of the Gamma Nu sorority at a Christmas dinner party on Monday evening at six thirty at the home of Mrs. Lynner in Fargo.

Conference Chatter

The game with the "U" last night opened a schedule which is full of opportunities to see the Dragons in action against high-class competition. Three conference games, with Bemidji, Duluth, and Mankato will be played on the home floor.

Non-league tilts with Aberdeen, La-Crosse, St. Thomas, and three games with our old rivals, the Concordia Cobbers, are already listed to be played in Moorhead. Such a program should gladden the heart of the most ardent basketball fan.

Mankato Teachers opened the season last weekend with a 47-27 victory over Concordia of St. Paul. If we do as well against Concordia of Moorhead, who's gonna crab?

St. Cloud Teachers College coaches have laid plans for intramural basketball with probably fifteen teams entering the competition. Allowing seven to each team, this system will give about a hundred men a chance to participate in competitive sports.

When the Moorhead Alumni quint defeated the Moorhead High Spuds the other night, four Dragon Freshmen, Wally Erickson, Herb Lange, Matty Knauf, and Dave DuVall, were star performers for the Alumnus.

PROSPECTS BRIGHT FOR HOCKEY TEAM

LARGE TURNOUT INCLUDING 4 LETTERMEN INSURE A FAST TEAM

With twenty-five men expressing their desire to play hockey, M. S. T. C. promises to have a fast aggregation on the ice this winter under the direction of Lottie Wambach, one of the outstanding stars of this section of the country.

Four lettermen from last year are back, including Wilbur Brown, Bob Jeffrey, Leonard Larson, and Al Cocking. Carl Maedl, a veteran from the team two years ago, is also back along with "Tonnie" Davis, who directed last year's team and will probably play in non-collegiate contests this season.

Genetti, Chisholm, and Gilbert from the Michigan range country should undoubtedly give strong competition for regular berths, while others who will begin practice in the near future include: Jerome York, Ragnar Hanson, Richard Melbye, Milo Monson, Murphy Matthew, Vance Hallack, John O'Brien, Olaf Stockstad, Louis Costello, David Gallagher, Willis Uggen, Pete Meyers, Ellison, and Duaine Benoy.

In the event the present plans of building a rink on the campus are unsuccessful, the team will practice on the Moorhead rink and play its home games on the Island Park ring in Fargo. Any men of the College desirous of playing should sign up on the bulletin board or confer with Lottie Wambach.

Art Club Initiates Nine New Members

The Art Club initiated nine members into its organization in the Social Room at 7:15 Monday night. The entertainment was furnished by the initiates Edna Benson and Hazel Bilstad dwelt on the composition and structural elements used in masterpieces of painting. Ernest Flohr demonstrated the making of the M. S. T. C. dragon in soap sculpture. A piano solo was given by Adelaide Wigtil, and a sketch of Santa Claus made by Naomi Hall. The steps in the making of a silk wall hanging were explained by Maribel Sylvester. Agnes Sorkness played a piano solo, and an original composition called "The Harp" was played by Dorothy Hoel and Altha Gabrielson.

MRS. KISE TAKES PART IN TWO MUSICAL FUNCTIONS

During the past week Mrs. Kise took part in the presentation of "Elijah" at the Trinity Lutheran Church, in which she sang a contralto solo, "Oh Rest In The Lord." This afternoon Mrs. Kise will take part in the cantata, "Elijah," at the meeting of the Moorhead Music Club.

FRATERNITY INITIATES HONORARY MEMBERS

The Alpha Epsilon Wednesday initiated three honorary members, Mr. Murray, Mr. Bridges, and Mr. Weltzin. Informal initiation services are being held for Lawrence Peterson, Georgetown, and Ray Mogenson, Evan.

DRAGONS, WOLVES TO PLAY TUESDAY

guards will probably form the Wolves' starting lineup. The last four men named are familiar to Dragon fans as members of the football eleven that played here in the Homecoming game.

Concluding the pre-vacation basketball activities for the Dragons will be the game Saturday, December 17, with the LaCrosse Teachers. The style of basketball used in the part of Wisconsin in which LaCrosse is located seems to be based on the theory that "a good offense is always the best defense", for there is always produced in that section high-scoring cage quints. Last week LaCrosse fell before the onslaught of Gustavus Adolphus, but only by the close score of 40-38.

Booster Game Dec. 30

On December 30 will come the first of the season's annual classic battles with the Concordia Cobbers. This game is the annual "booster" tilt, and students will not be admitted on their activity tickets.

The Cobbers, whom the Dragons defeated in three out of five games last year to win the city championship, have lost only Cliff Halmrast and Pinky Falgren last from season's quint. Coach Cleve's veteran stars, Moran, Hilde, and Bjerke, will be aided by a freshman star, Duaine Darkow, of Crookston, who is reputed to be as good as Cliff Halmrast. Incidentally Halmrast was an All-State man for three years, so Darkow will have to be good to fill his shoes.

If Darkow is able to handle the center position as well as is predicted, the Dragons will have plenty of competition for the city championship title.
