COLLEGE DEBATERS MEET JAMESTOWN

ATKINSON, GAME TO UPHOLD NEGATIVE; BRIDGES AND DOKKEN DEBATE

Tomorrow, March 18, two M. S. T. C. debate teams will go to Jamestown, where they will meet two teams representing Jamestown College in two debates. It is planned that the following people will represent the College in these debates: Women's negative team—Martha Atkinson, Moorhead, Inez Game, Glyndon; Men's affirmative team—Wilson Dokken, Thief River Falls, and Jack Bridges, Moorhead.

The M. S. T. C. two-man negative team was defeated by the North Dakota State College team in a debate before a crowd of 200 people in an audience decision debate at Detroit Lakes last Monday evening. Those representing M. S. T. C. in this debate were Rupert Krienbring, Fergus Falls, and James Tye, Backus. Mr. Loewen, debate coach, accompanied the team. Frieda Panimon, Fargo, and Howard Kilbourne, Fargo, represented the N. D. S. C. in this debate.

The first step, my son, is the one on which depends the rest of our days.

ALL-COLLEGE PARTY

The first All-School party of the term will be held in the Gymnasium and Ingleside. The January Jubilee orchestra under the direction of Dale Hallack will play. Martha Atkinson will begin her duties as Social Commissioner.

PLANS ARE BEING COMPLETED FOR MODEL ASSEMBLY

C. DOUGLAS BOOTH, LECTURER
ON BALKAN AFFAIRS
MAY SPEAK

Concordia and North Dakota State College have generously offered to cooperate with M. S. T. C. as hosts in sponsoring the Model League Assembly.

Continuing elaborate preparations for the third annual Model League of Nations Assembly to be held here April 7 and 8, a number of committees have been appointed to take care of general arrangements for the session, according to Clarence Glasrud, president of the International Relations Club.

A large delegation to the Assembly from colleges in the Twin Cities has been assured by the acceptance of four St. Paul Schools: St. Thomas, St. Catherine's, Hamline, and Macalester. In addition to this it is expected that a large number of colleges throughout Minnesota and North Dakota will accept invitations to attend the meeting.

It has also been announced that there is a possibility that C. Douglas Booth, noted lecturer and authority on Balkan affairs, will address one of the League sessions. Mr. Booth has written numerous books and articles on international affairs, for which he is well-known throughout the United States.

Committees which have been named to take charge of the three main sessions are as follows: Economic conference—Donald Bird, chairman, and Edith Alexander; Manchurian situation—Wilson Dokken, chairman, Charles Jahr, Ward Thompson, and Russell Munson; Disarmament Conference—Kenneth Johnson, chairman, Axel Taffin, Hazel Deal, and James Tye.

Other committees named so far are as follows: Registration. Gorman Thompson; Publicity, Donald Bird and Axel Taffin; Housing, Helen Walker, Edith Alexander, Hazel Deal, Russell Munson, and Bernice Cox are at the heads of various committees in charge of general arrangements.

DANIEL PRESTON IS GIVEN HONORS BY LOCAL CHOIRS

DIRECTS TWO-HUNDRED VOICE
CHORUS; PERSON, JOHNSON
GUEST SOLOISTS

Mr. Preston was signally honored by the church choirs of Fargo and Moorhead in that he was given the direction of the massed choirs from the following local churches in the concert last Sunday at the First Lutheran church, Fargo: First Presbyterian, First Methodist, First and Plymouth Congregational, First Lutheran, First Baptist, Christian, Pontopidan Lutheran, Fargo; and the First Congregational in Moorhead.

With a chorus of over two hundred voices, supported by able soloists, the director produced choir music that is seldom heard in the northwest. From the loudest fortissimo, to the softest pianissimo, the steady flow of music seemed to have a gripping quality that gave the audience quite a thrill. To prove the ability of such a gigantic organization, the director presented numbers ranging from beautiful hymns to excerpts from oratorios.

The climax of the program was reached with the rendering of the "Hallelujah Chorus" from the "Messiah" by Handel. Among the other numbers on the program were "The Old Rugged Cross", "Surely He Hath Borne Our Griefs", and "Christians Awake". Guest soloists were: Mrs. Paul Person, contralto, Mr. Kenneth Johnson, the Sigma Alpha Iota sextette, and the Male Octet from the Teachers College. Coffee and doughnuts were served to the choir in the basement after the concert.

LYCEUM SERVICE GIVES PROGRAM

ENTERTAIN GROUPS AT ARGUSVILLE, ADA, DILWORTH, AND DEERFIELD

The newly organized lyceum bureau has been busily engaged in presenting programs in nearby communities the past few weeks. One group of students entertained the Dilworth Farmer's Club last Friday while a similar group was performing for the Argusville P. T. A.

At Dilworth, Axel Taffin, Winger, talked on the farm allotment plan, while Reynold Christensen, Evan, and Lawrence Peterson, Moorhead, gave instrumental and vocal solos. Bernice Maland, Marietta, and Clara Jorgenson, Erskine, presented readings. A vocal solo was sung by Fern Smith, Kennedy. Dorothy Hoel was the accompanist for all the musical numbers.

The Men's Octet sang several numbers for the Argusville Parent Teachers Association the same evening and were well received.

Plans for future lyceums are not very definite, but the Heidelberg quartet is scheduled to go to Deerfield this weekend, possibly Saturday. This group is composed of Lawrence Peterson, Vance Hallack, Jules Heiman, and Joe Best.

Books are the best things, well used; abused, among the worst.

CALENDAR OF EVENTS

Tonight—8:30—All-College party, Ingleside and Gymnasium.
Saturday—Sorority rushing parties.

READER GIVES UNIQUE PROGRAM

JESSIE RAE TAYLOR PLEASES
STUDENTS AT CHAPEL
EXERCISES

Presenting a very varied range in her characterizations during chapel exercises last Wednesday, Miss Jessie Rae Taylor showed remarkable ability in her startling character changes. In the unique program the following characters were portrayed in rapid succession: Irving Cobb's Peep O' Day, Miss Wiggs of the Cabbage Patch; an Italian; an Irishman; a Bowery tough. Each character presented, ably and rapidly made up behind a small screen on the stage, distinctly stood out, though the first character Peep O' Day, Miss Taylor's favorite characterization, possibly impressed the audience more than did the others.

At today's assembly program movies were presented for part of the period by Dr. Archer, two reels being purchased by the Student Commission. The College Orchestra played several numbers following the movies.

F. Bordsen Addresses Study Club Meeting

The monthly meeting of the Schoolmasters Study Club was held in Detroit Lakes Wednesday, according to Dr. C. P. Archer, secretary.

The program included a speech on improvement in English instruction by Francis Bordsen, head of the English Department, Detroit Lakes high school; a general discussion, and a band concert by the Detroit Lakes high school band.

STUDENTS ENTERTAIN

On the program of the Moorhead unit of the American Legion Auxiliary held last Wednesday evening were a clarinet solo by Lila Harstad, and a violin solo by James Shannon.

NEMZEK PLANS SCHEDULE FOR SPRING SPORTS

PROGRAM INCLUDES FOOTBALL
TENNIS, TRACK, GOLF AND BASEBALL

With basketball togs hung on the hooks until next year, and the beginning of spring football this week, an extensive program of spring sports intending to include all men of the college has been instigated by Coach Nemzek.

Spring football in the form of drill and chalk talks will be confined indoors until weather conditions favor drills on Memorial Field. Fundamentals of blocking and tackling will be stressed in early drills by Coach Nemzek, assisted by Chester Gilpin and Arlo Baldwin, former Dragon stars.

Other Sports Included

Other sports to be included in the extensive athletic program will include baseball, track, golf and tennis. Much interest has already been displayed by men of the campus, and it is expected that fine teams will represent all of the above mentioned sports.

Tennis practice has been in progress for some time, and with the beginning of this term there will be practice four times a week. The prospects for a good tennis team this year are exceedingly bright. Last year's team including Ed Eastman, Stan Swenson, and Pat Hewitt, Moorhead; Clarence McAllister, Park Rapids; Al Cocking, Fargo, and Donald Bird and Clarence Glasrud, Detroit Lakes, is back intact, and with the addition of promising freshman material such as Herbie Lange, Moorhead, and Web Rowan, Hillsboro, N. D., it should develop into the best tennis team the Dragons have turned out. Rupert Krienbring of Fergus Falls, a former star, will probably not see much action, because of a physical ailment, but will very likely lend a hand in the coaching. Don Wilson, Moorhead, may also join the squad. A school tournament is planned for this spring including singles and doubles in addition to a new feature, mixed doubles.

Track Prospects Bright

Extensive work in track is planned for the prospects are promising. Here again, freshman material has strengthened the team considerably. Wally Erickson, David DuVall, and Maynard Thompson of Moorhead; and Wayne Stevens and Ross Stevens, Aitkin, are the new members expected to "show something" for the Dragons. Veterans of last year's squad who will participate again this year include Buzz Robinson, Bill Robinson, Hank Booher, Manhattan, Montana; Wilbur Bailey, Erskine; Jim Blaine, Frazee; Red Monson, Cass Lake; Julian Bjerkness, Doran; Duane Benoy, Mentor; Floyd Ellison, Gary; and Cecil Veitch, Fargo. Plans are being made to hold a Conference track meet at St. Cloud. There is also a possibility of the Dragon team attending the South Dakota Relays.

Plans for baseball are not well advanced as yet, but it is likely that conference games will be scheduled.

A spring golf tournament will be held this spring for all golfing enthusiasts. The squad will include among others Cliff Rasmussen, Al Cocking, LeRoy Boyd, and Pat Hewitt, all of Fargo.

A.A.U.P. Luncheon Is Held Wednesday

At the luncheon of the American Association of University Professors held at the Hollyhock Room in Comstock Hall, last Wednesday noon, Miss Rainey, Mr. Schwendeman, and Miss Lommen spoke on education problems.

Miss Rainey dealt with the Childhood Education section, which stressed the value of the kindergarten as an important unit in character training. It was stated that this training should be kept even in times of economic difficulty.

Mr. Schwendeman made a report on the Yearbook of the Society for the Study of Education stressing the various controversies on ways to teach geography. The principle controversy in the field centers around whether geography should be taught as a unit or should be merged with other social science studies.

PLATFORM

1. One hundred per cent participation in extra-curricular activities.
2. Equalization of extra-curricular activities to give maximum service both to the individual and to the College.
3. Standardization of routine duties to insure more time for cultural life.
4. Greater emphasis placed on standards in the profession of teaching through longer periods of training.

THE NOVICE ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION

Again the fine program of the women's physical education department is being continued by the formation of a Novice Athletic Association. The purpose is to allow those who are not members of W. A. A. to participate in a varied extra-curricular sport program. Every form of athletic endeavor is included, and a wide choice is offered the members.

By participating in this club the members will gain points which will be applied toward membership in W. A. A. (Women's Athletic Association). Also, what more ideal program could be offered to those who heretofore have complained of the small number of sport activities offered to the women of the College?

Now everyone will be able to join and to learn "to play the game" just as it should be played. Anyone who is interested and who has failed to join should do so at once, and she will find that her school program will be enriched one hundred percent, and she will be a better teacher because she has learned the secret of worthy use of leisure time.

MORE MINOR SPORTS

With the entrance of the Dragon basketball team into its first year as a member of the Northern Teachers Conference and with a football season concluded that saw the Dragons established as co-champions, it might be well to search farther and see what action, if any, is taking place in the minor sports. These minor sports, boxing, swimming, and hockey, are of such a nature that nearly everyone participates or would like to participate in one or another of them and this spring is being given a chance to do so.

Some individuals are complaining that basketball and football receive too much prominence and that only a few men get an opportunity to play. There may have been grounds for charges such as this, but not now since the spring program has opened up new opportunities. Hockey and tennis are two of the minor sports in which action has been taken by enthusiastic individuals and in which there has been enough enthusiasm so that the teams have managed to engage in competitive matches outside the College.

If boxing and swimming advocates are desirous of securing outside competition, they might follow the example set by the hockey and tennis teams. Certainly the flaying of basketball and football, which after all, hold an appeal to most of us (if not as active participants, at least, as spectators), is not going to achieve the desired effect. Better that these people boost their own sport than to knock somebody else's.

-E. E.

KEEP OFF THE GRASS!

M. S. T. C. is at the present time boasting one of the most beautiful potential campuses in the state. Several weeks of balmy spring weather will reveal a landscape of which any university might be well proud.

However, spring is not yet here. The grounds are in a state of muss and slop. They are only suggestive of what they are to become. Within the reach of every M. S. T. C. student lies the combination to a beautiful campus. Cutting corners now and then doesn't seem very much of a sin, does it? But do you know that every time you cross portions of what will soon be newly-seeded ground you will be pushing the grass seed far down into the earth? Naturally few of these seeds will grow. Another thing is that in walking on wet soil, a certain amount of it sticks to your shoe soles, and when you enter the corridors, it is deposited there.

So, students, resolve in your minds that you will stay on the sidewalk. After all that is why they were constructed.

-L. B.

From The Editor's Semicircle

Those who profess to know tell us that prosperity is just around the corner, but they steadfastly refuse to say whether it is going or coming.

It never rains but it pours. Anent the recent earthquake in California it seems that it is not sufficient that we have political and economic upheavals but mother nature must needs do her part to give the newspapers something to talk about.

Apropos the poor attendance at the student recital last week, it is unfortunate that there are so many who do not appreciate the really worthwhile things that are being given us free of charge.

THE OPEN COLUMN

BIGGER AND BETTER ASSEMBLIES

Our chapel programs can be a better type and attract more people. This fact was proved by a recent program given by a group on the campus. There was variety in that it provided the serious and the hilarious element. It was connected with the students because it mentioned personalities outstanding in college life.

The main issue now is: Why not have more of the type which have a direct appeal to the students? If it is a student chapel, why not consult them and then make the programs along these lines? Student initiative and force can be rallied in no better way. Why not have contests to see which class can have the largest attendance or which can give the best program?

Also, movies with a nominal cost would prove a worthwhile project. The movies could be chosen by a student committee. The proceeds derived could be used to purchase additional films and defray running expenses.

Let's do something about our Friday chapels or Assembly. Any ideas are appreciated.

-A Junior Co-ed.

NOW WHAT?

Well boys, now that the girls have gone cultural—what about us? Isn't it going to be rather inconvenient for us to have the fair sex well versed in how to behave? Is it going to be necessary for us to place our calls at Wheeler and Comstock at least a week in advance so that the board may convene, and decide as to the desirability of one of their members accepting our invitation to a dance?

Laying all joking aside; isn't it time for us, as men, to organize? There are two fraternities on the campus that should promote this project.

Oh, we don't want to go high hat or anything like that. Neither do we want to be pansies. But wouldn't we like to know when to say "How do you do" or "Pleased to meet you?"

After all, we're going to be teachers too. Surely a teacher should know the proper way to consume his food at a banquet. He should also know what fork to use.

We may not attain the cultural standards of Oxford men, but nevertheless we might improve our present conditions.

So fraternity men, at your next meeting—why not think and talk over this subject that the young women of the College have so rightly suggested?

-A Fraternity Man.

ANOTHER VIEWPOINT

Just a word to the wise. Referring to the open column letter of grievance in the preceding MiSTiC, the library should like to make additions. What should be said of the person who would carelessly leave a book in the MiSTiC Office? The privilege of free text books can not be overemphasized, but the students of this school can pay their respects to the fact by looking after the books which they have borrowed from the library. When books are signed out by them, the student who writes his name on the card is responsible for that book. Thus the other side of the story is given. The borrower can not be too careful of borrowed property. Do not leave books lying about.

Then there was the usual excitement after the report cards came out. At least its over until June.

One was able to tell by mere actions what kind of marks certain individuals received, for instance—good (Cocky attitude inclined to walk through the halls.—medium (a temporary attempt at being studious)—bad (a hang-dog expression and studying with nose deep in a book).

Then And Now

One Year Ago

The local delegation to the Model League of Nations assembly of Minnesota Colleges at Northfield brought back the announcements that the 1933 meeting is to be held at M. S. T. C. next spring A definite program has already been announced for the Model League this year, the event to be held at M. S. T. C. April 7 and 8.

Two Years Ago

With the registering of students for the spring term practically completed, 510 men and women, representing five states, are enrolled at the college. This shows a marked increase over any previous spring term roll, 483 being registered in 1930 The enrollment this spring term numbers 621.

Three Years Ago

The Student Commission is sponsoring a contest for a new name for the athletic teams to take the place of Peds. A cash prize will be offered for the best name submitted Now M. S. T. C. teams bear the name of "Dragons", a very appropriate means of designation.

Four Years Ago

The second number on the year's lyceum course will be given by the combined choirs under the direction of Mr. Preston. Assisting the chorus are the Radio Girls and Men's Double Quartet This should remind us of the recital last week.

Notes Of A Browser

If one refers to the MiSTiC of last week, he may find the list of books donated to the library by the local International Relations Club through the Carnegie Library Fund. All of these books are more than well worth reading.

"Business and Politics in the Far East" by Edith E. Ware, is divided in two parts, one dealing with China, the other with Japan. Will the Chinese, contrary to their local ideals and principles, turn to Communism? Is it possible to prevent Manchuria from becoming "The Balkans of Asia"? Will Japan in the near future desert the age-old politics of power long practiced by nations now her colleagues? These are some of the pertinent and timely questions discussed. East and West are meeting in China today. But how? This searching analysis supplies the answer.

"Far Eastern International Relations" by Morse and MacNair presents a survey of the incidents and conditions in the relations of the countries of the Far East with each other and with the nations of the West. In thirty chapters the outstanding facts are told in unbroken sequence from the earliest times to the present date. This study is a collaboration of an American professor and an English author. Their joint work is sure to quicken Americans and Europeans to the realization that the "Pacific is their front door toward the world."

"The Society of Nations" by Morley gives a comprehensive examination of the origin, structure, and functioning of the League of Nations, and explains the theory of the regularized international cooperation on which the organization is based. Much heretofore unpublished material dealing with the evolution of the League is inclosed, in addition to the first comprehensive analysis of international action in the Sino-Japanese dispute.

Pack Up Your Troubles! Smile, Spring Is Here

Summer is a-comin in,
Loud sing cuckoo;
Growth seed and bloweth mead,
And springeth the wood anew,
Loud sing cuckoo—

And may not the cuckoo only sing loud? May not we all!

The snow is going—let it go! Bluster as you will, March winds; while you carry away the snow and cold, we welcome you.

I heard a crow this morning. "Caw, caw," he called to me beneath the dripping eaves. Cheerio, old top. That song is sweeter than the Christmas carols. But be careful, old pal of mine, you must sing louder yet—for listen—, that clear voice, far away but coming nearer, is that the meadow lark already? Indeed, you must call louder, old man crow; for soon the screeching, red-winged blackbird is coming back to his home in the cat-tail marsh. He will outdo you. Well, so long then; may your breakfast be luscious.

And the sun is so warm. As the cat curls up and paws at its rays, so would I. I am glad I am not the snow that runs away from the sun. I would rather stay with it.

Who said the term was ended? Who said perhaps I "flunked"? God grant I never flunk a course in happiness, when spring alone is teacher, class, and student.

The sixth grade art class under the direction of Miss Sylvester are making recipe booklets which will be covered with glazed chintz. They are to be Mother's Day presents. As the conclusion of their study of the Italian peninsula, the sixth graders have made a movie called "Sunny Italy".

Pi Delta Sigma is continuing the coffee sales every Tuesday afternoon from three to five o'clock. The proceeds go toward purchasing books for their library.

The second grade are working out a library unit. Friday they visited the children's room at the public library where they learned to draw out books. For the past few days they have been engaged in mending their own books and putting in pockets.

Koed Karousel Happy Occasion Though Manless

The "Koeds Kiddie Karousel" which took place Friday, March 10, proved to the fair feds of the College that a manless party can be enjoyable—even hilarious. Each girl was accompanied by her best "boy friend" who saw that she had a good time and who also saw that there were no "wall-flowers" (you know—those little buds that blossom at dances and are never picked!) Ahem. Kiddie games and dancing provided the main portion of the evening's entertainment. Shirley Soule and Lorraine Sande gave a tap dance; Frances Olsen entertained the group with vocal solos; and Verna Olsgaard was featured in a military tap dance.

BABY DRAGONS IN EXCELLENT FORM AS SEASON ENDS

MEMBERS OF THE BABY DRAGON TEAM TO HAVE BANQUET TONIGHT AT 8

With an impressive finish in the district basketball tournament, the College High School Baby Dragons, under the tutelage of Chet Gilpin, turned in its most successful basketball season. The Baby Dragons wound up the season by giving Moorhead High School's Spuds a big fight before being nosed out by a 28-23 count in the final game of the tournament.

Prospects for next year's team look brighter than ever, as only one regular will be lost from this year's team through graduation. Captain Cliff Olson, Floyd Maring, and Hugh Price are the only Seniors on the Squad, while four regulars will return for next year's squad. They are: Captain-elect Vincent Oss, Doc Elstad, Ken Englestad, and Wayne Boothroyd. With this array of talent returning, the Baby Dragons will be one of the outstanding contenders for the District Championship next year.

The members of the Baby Dragons squad with the College High School faculty members as guests, will hold a banquet in the Hollyhock Room of Comstock Hall, tonight at 8:00 p. m. The Baby Dragons amassed a total of 436 points to their opponents' 395 and won 10 out of 19 games. Captain-elect Vincent Oss led the scorers of the Baby Dragons.

WOMEN'S SPORTS PROGRAM BEGUN

LORRAINE SANDIE IS ELECTED PRESIDENT OF NOVICE SPORT CLUB

With archery, kittenball, tennis, swimming, cricket, and golf, every girl in the school will be able to avail herself of the privilege of supervised instruction in any one of the sports. Every girl is eligible and especially the juniors and seniors are asked to partake in at least one of the games offered this term. The only qualifications are that an A or B physical rating is required for swimming and kittenball. The equipment of tennis shoes, gym suit, tennis racket and balls and tank suit for swimming must be furnished by the girls. The object of these sports is to work towards a tournament and to form a team.

The free period on Thursday at 9:00 is to be given over to cricket. Every Thursday a different game is offered in order to acquaint the girls with the various games and rules.

The Novice Sport Club with Lorraine Sandie, president, Elsie Dommer, secretary-treasurer, and Verna Johnson, vice-president, met Tuesday. Paying 25 cents dues to defray expenses in getting new material and assistant coaches makes anyone eligible for membership, it was decided.

PROCEEDINGS OF THE COMMISSION

The new Student Commission, installed at Chapel exercises last Friday, held its first meeting on Tuesday, at which time several matters of importance were disposed of.

Two bills were allowed: one for $2.00 to Dr. Locke for prizes given at the last All-College party, and another for $10.00 to H. W. Brown for work on the telephone booth.

After some discussion on the matter it was decided that the admission price to the All-College party should remain at the usual figure of twenty-five cents instead of being reduced as had been suggested.

Continuing the practice, previously followed to some extent, of making the various commissioners responsible for some Chapel programs, it was decided that the program for March 24 be put in charge of the Music Commissioner, Lawrence Peterson.

Local Grad Makes Good As Coach

Say, WHAT'S going on out there at the Moorhead State Teachers college high school? Somewhat obscured by the more portentous front of the college itself in an athletic way, the Baby Dragons suddenly blossomed forth in all their basketball glory Saturday to upset a rangy Hitterdal quint that had just gotten through walloping Barnesville 62 to 28. This act took place in the first round of the sub-district tournament, but not satisfied with that comparatively important feat, the M. S. T. C. preps gave the surprised Moorhead high school Spuds a real battle in the bracket final, leading their share of the time and tying things up as though it was all in the day's work.

Now all this may be due to some sort of latent inspiration, suddenly come to life with gusto, but unless we miss our guess, we'll pin these preps progress on young Mr. Chet Gilpin, who only a year ago was winding up a brilliant collegiate career as star quarterback and guard par excellence on Dragon (the big ones) football and basketball combinations.

CHET HAD looked upon the Baby Dragons as his own proteges even when he was in college and when he was graduated the brilliance he had manifested in athletics was too bright to lose. So Chet was retained as an assistant to Coach Alex J. Nemzek, college athletic director, and as mentor for the training school athletes and it would seem that he has made phenomenal progress with them.

Handicapped by a shortage of man-power in football, Chet nevertheless developed a grid team successful in its share of the few games played against nearby small high schools. His basketball season has remained somewhat of a mystery but this very fact accounts for the surprising form displayed by the Baby Dragons in tournament play.

BELIEVED TO be, without question, the underdogs against Hitterdal, whose praises had been sung in sensational victories over teams expected to beat them, the Baby Dragons methodically rolled up a 29 to 18 victory, with Vincent Oss netting eight baskets and Clifford Olson three. Pitted against the Spuds, this doughty little outfit led 9 to 7 at the end of the first quarter and held their city rivals to a 13 to 13 deadlock at the half before succumbing.

— SUNDAY — "SHE DONE HIM WRONG"

with May West

Reader's Assistant

With time so valuable as it is around these diggins these days, the MiSTiC has found it inadvisable to require students to go through the entire paper searching for gems of news; hence—this colyum which will direct you to the real items. Here they are:

1. Spring Sports. This ought to be good, because young Vincent Schneider of the curly locks sketched it. Anyway, to be brief, there are going to be some, and if you don't believe it, turn to the story!

2. Debate, a question which is open to argument, but handled in a thoroughly authentic way by Oliver Asp. Boy, you ought to lamp the manuscript for this masterpiece.

3. Al Cocking, New State Editor, ex-makeup editor, has changed from lowly sports stories to such deep subjects as enrollment and student teaching.

4. Dorothy Hoel's picture appears on the front page of the MiSTiC. Don't blame Axel for not having the picture in before. He was only reserving the best for the last.

5. "Easy", Ed Eastman shows great versatility in his stories. Besides writing many of the sports stories, including the intramural games this week, he also wrote about such ponderous questions as the Model League of Nations.

6. No Kampus Kapers this week. Kurtz takes a vacation every other week to look for his Meteorology book.

7. and 8. Elianor Laing has achieved in her two compositions a height of style which hasn't even been attempted by Don Bird, the lexicographer. Don't miss her feature on the all-women's party, and her little treatise on Wednesday and Friday chapels will knock you cold.

9. Football schedule for next year. This won't interest weekenders or seniors, but for the remainder of the red-blooded persons, this will be interesting. The story has been in the tray for weeks, but Sliv didn't say anything about getting it in until this week.

10. Exchanges and Old News, the old news which we can't rewrite into modern stuff, we dump into this colyum. Anyway, scan it and read all about your big sister's discharge from the College. All the choice gossip from papers of schools throughout the nation appears in the exchanges.

11. The rest of the news, and read it all, even our ads, because there might be a special on for hairpins, etc.

DRAGON GRIDDERS TO MEET BISON IN HOMECOMING TILT

FOOTBALL SCHEDULE IS NEARLY COMPLETE FOR NEXT FALL CAMPAIGN

In addition to the Homecoming game five other matches have been booked, including two conference tilts. Coach Nemzek is dickering for another league game to make his team eligible for the Conference competition.

The schedule, to date, is as follows: Sept. 23—Jamestown College here; Sept. 30—Concordia College there; Oct. 7—Winona Teachers there; Oct. 14—open; Oct. 21—Aberdeen Teachers there; Oct. 28—Bemidji Teachers there; Nov. 4—North Dakota State here.

If a home game can be scheduled for the October 14 date, the schedule will present a nicely balanced season. Playing Concordia there of course mean virtually a home game, since it will be in Moorhead.
