Sack Rush, Dress-Up Contest To Be Held On Saturday Morning

Sophs And Juniors To Combat Freshmen; Prizes To Be Awarded For Costumes

Immediately following the traditional organization breakfasts for alumni, faculty, and students on Saturday, October 20, a great crowd of Homecoming fans is expected to attend the Dragon Round-up and Dress-up contests. These new events may be developed into traditions in years to come by the enthusiasm of Homecoming.

The Sack Rush at 10 a. m. on Memorial Field will be a struggle for supremacy, Sophomore and Junior men against Freshmen men, to settle whether or not the Freshmen shall continue to wear their green caps until November 3.

Immediately following the Sack Rush will be the judging of the Dress-up and Whisker contest. The judges for the Dress-up contest will be off-campus people and four prizes will be given, as follows: Most grotesque individual, $2.50; most comical couple, $5.00; most original group, cup; most original faculty costume, surprise prize.

The Sack Rush will be refereed by "Chet" Giplin and ten policemen composed of faculty and upper classmen. The contest will consist of 30 men on a team lined up on their respective goal lines and ten cement sacks filled with sand in the center of the field.

The rush will consist of three rush periods of ten minutes each with five minute rest periods between them. Each sack will be policed by a senior, faculty man, or other officer, and any sack which is brought completely behind the goal line shall count as a point for that team. Sacks taken out of bounds shall be considered dead.

Shoes with cleats will be barred, and any slugging, biting, scratching, kicking or other roughness will disqualify the rusher, the rules state. Substitutions are not to be allowed during rush periods. The object of the contest is to see which team scores the most points within the three rush periods.

Dragon Theme Will Feature Decorations

Dragons On Smokestack To Overlook Campus; Colored Lights Enliven Scene

Dragons to right! Dragons to left! The crimson and the white, traditional colors of M. S. T. C., will bedeck the campus for the gala event, Homecoming, October 19 and 20.

Once more the Decorations committee, with Mabel Peoples as chairman, is making plans for a colorful and artistic campus to greet the returning Dragon alumni. From its vantage point on the huge smokestack, a large crimson dragon will overlook the festivities accompanying Homecoming.

Two Dragons

Directly in front of the gates, there will be two upright Dragons. A hearty welcome is extended to all the returning alumni and friends by a sign placed just inside the entrance. From here can also be seen the sign post in the center of the circle.

Triangular, crimson and white pennants, and bows of red paper will wave from the light posts circling the campus. The large neon sign which was placed above MacLean Hall last year will be set on the balcony of Weld Hall this year. Colored lights will frame the border between Weld Hall and the skyline. All the lights on the campus will be covered with red paper, thus lending a rosy hue to the general effect.

The stage in Weld Hall will be decorated for the coronation of the queen. In the background will be found the traditional crimson dragon, enhanced by a few silver spangles.

The decoration committee is working hard to complete these plans. The sub-chairmen who are helping Mabel Peoples are: Weld Hall, Rudolph Peterson; football field, Eugene Harris; gateway, Milton Holten; campus proper, Violet Miracle; and queen's committee, Art Hafdah.

Invites Alumni

Orvin Richardson

Dear Alumni:

For the twelfth time the Dragon lair is being opened up for a joyous return of all M. S. T. C. Alumni to meet and frolic with the 1934 student body and faculty members on October 19 and 20.

The young cubs have been working diligently in preparation for the biggest of all Homecomings. Several changes have been made from our former programs in an attempt to provide more entertainment and arouse that good old Dragon spirit.

We are depending on all of you loyal alumni to return whether your class was '90 or '34. There will be a place reserved for all of you.

ORVIN T. RICHARDSON,
Pres. of Student Commission.

Alumni Luncheon Date Is Set For Saturday, Oct. 20

The alumni will be given an opportunity to meet the present students of M. S. T. C. at the Alumni luncheon on Saturday, October 20, during Homecoming. The luncheon, which will take the place of the usual Alumni banquet, will be in the dining room of Comstock Hall at 12:00 noon.

The tickets for the luncheon are $4.00. Students who stay in the dormitories will be charged $2.50 for the luncheon. On Tuesday, Oct. 16, there will be someone in the exchange to sell tickets. Those who attend the luncheon are asked to meet in Wheeler Hall before going to the dining room.

Philharmonic To Play Here Tuesday

Under the skillful direction of George Besant Shapiro, the Little Philharmonic Orchestra of Chicago will present the following program in Weld Hall on Tuesday, October 16, at 8:15 p. m. as the first Lyceum number for 1934: Overture, "Egmont," by Beethoven; symphony, "Adagio, Allegro, Largo, Menuetto, Finale," by Joseph Haydn; "Intermezzo Op. 2," by B. Kalinkow; "Allegro Con Grozia" (from Symphony No. 6), Tschalkowsky; "Reverie Du Soie" (from Suite Algeriene), Saint-Saens; and "Marche Militaire Francaise," Saint-Saens.

Urges Attendance

R. B. MacLean, President

Dear Alumni:

The Alumni of the Moorhead Teachers College have always been loyal and enthusiastic in the support of their Alma-Mater. The faculty of the institution has been proud of the achievements of the graduates. The administration wishes to follow former students as they live and serve in the big world community. The students and faculty would be pleased to have you pay a personal visit to Moorhead Teachers College. Why not plan to visit back home on the official Homecoming?

Personally, I should like to see you. Pay me a visit in my office, greet me at the game, or say "How do you do" at the luncheon.

If you cannot come won't you write me a little letter and tell me what you are doing to let us know that your heart is still loyal to the old college?

Sincerely yours,
R. B. MacLEAN.

Saturday morning will start with the annual organization breakfasts. At 10:30 a. m. there will be the Dragon Dress-Up and Round-Up program featured by the Freshman-Sophomore "Sack-Rush." The Alumni luncheon will be served in Comstock Hall at 12:00 noon. The Dragon-Bemidji game is the main afternoon event held on Memorial Field at 2:30 p. m. At 8:30 p. m. Saturday there will be entertainment and the annual dance in the Physical Education building.

Homecoming Queen

Mildred Casperson

Mildred Casperson Is Homecoming Queen

Is Chosen At Election Oct. 5; To Rule Over Homecoming Festivities

Mildred Casperson, of Walcott, N. D., who was chosen Homecoming queen at the annual election Friday, October 5, will preside over the 1934 festivities following her coronation Friday evening. Miss Casperson is a Sophomore. She is a member of the Euterpe Singers, the Concert Band, is rushing captain of the Psi Delta Kappa sorority, and took part in last year's January Jubilee.

Attendants of Miss Casperson are Aileen O'Laughlin, Moorhead; Uva Cortright, Fargo; Thordis Henjum, Hoffman; and Margaret Fuglie, Barrett.

The queen will be crowned Friday evening, October 9, during the first of the Homecoming activities. She will ride at the head of the torchlight parade. Saturday she will appear at the game in the afternoon and at the dance Saturday night.

M. E. A. ALUMNI DINNER

The M. S. T. C. Alumni Reunion Dinner and get-together at the M. E. A. will be held at the Curtis Hotel, Minneapolis, Friday, Nov. 2, starting at 5:30 p. m. Dinner will be held in the Solarium at 6:15, at $1 per plate. Send reservations to Henry B. Weltzin, M. S. T. C., Moorhead, or make reservations in the Minneapolis Auditorium Exhibit Hall, Booth No. 9.

BAND GOES TO ST. CLOUD

It is now definitely known that the band will accompany the football team to St. Cloud, October 26. They will leave Friday morning as the game will be played Friday night.

For the first time in the history of the school, the band will be in full dress uniform at the torchlight parade. Vance Hallack, drum major, will lead the procession.

The band is planning a surprise for Dress-up day. Band music will be featured all during the Homecoming activities.

Several new events have been added to this year's program which should help make this Homecoming one to be remembered. A "Sack-rush" between the Freshmen and upper classmen, a dress-up contest, a beard-growing contest, and several home talent productions are only a few of the attractions scheduled for the reunion. The traditional football game and Homecoming dance will, of course, be the biggest attractions of the occasion.

Friday Program

The festivities will start at 7:30 Friday evening, October 19, when the huge bonfire east of Comstock Hall will be ignited. A torchlight parade, which will contain over five hundred lights, will form and begin its march across the Campus and through the business section of Moorhead. A new type of torch has been perfected by Dr. Christensen which will enable the parade to last longer than usual.

At about 9:00 p. m. everyone will assemble in Weld Hall, where Mildred Casperson will be crowned 1934 Queen of the Dragons.

Saturday Program

The dawn of the "big day," Saturday, finds many of the campus organizations holding their traditional breakfasts from 7 until 10 a. m.

At 10:30 a. m. a new feature will be inaugurated in the form of a Dragon Costume Exhibit where the varied costumes of the students will be reviewed by the students and alumni guests. The Freshmen and upper classmen are also scheduled to vent their pent-up material emotions upon each other at this time in a "sack-rush" to decide whether or not the Freshmen will continue to wear their green caps until November 3.

At noon the Alumni luncheon will be held. The Dragon-Bemidji game is the main feature of the afternoon.

Saturday evening at 8:30 p. m. another new attraction will make its debut to the gathered alumni and students at the Homecoming dance. A special program of student performers will lend their talent to a sparkling program of song, dance, and merriment in general.

Following this new feature will be the annual Homecoming Dance with the orchestral accompaniment by the "Gloomchasers." At midnight taps will end another annual Homecoming celebration.

Lyceum Course

THE COLLEGE LYCEUM course begins Tuesday with the appearance of the noted Little Philharmonic Orchestra. If one can judge from the renown of the performers or the expense involved in obtaining them, the presentations of the current season supercede even the high quality of the predecessors.

As one phase of its development program, this College each year presents a series of the world's outstanding artists—musicians, writers, or dramatists. It provides opportunities for cultural entertainment which many students in the middlewest do not have either before or after their college years.

To procure such an array of talent requires a financial outlay mounting into thousands of dollars, most of which we students ourselves pay, through the activity fee. It goes without saying that any one who neglects to attend not only throws away the money which he has already paid but, more important, discards an opportunity for an enriching experience.

Coming Home?

HOME COMING HAS been in the headlines for a month—committees named—dress-up contested—queen elected—plans mature! What is it all about? Is it anything more than a lot of work, an empty custom, a whicker-growing contest?

Essentially, it is a time of festive celebration occasioned by the return of the alumni. All the events of the day—parade, dress-up, luncheons, football game, party, etc.—are designed to promote a joyous atmosphere.

Underlying the festivity of Homecoming, there is a unifying spirit which tends to integrate the college of today with the college of those who have gone before. The graduates are reunited for a time with the faculty and student body, and each group is brought to realize more fully its relationship to the unified whole. Homecoming, in a sense, is the Alma Mater at full strength.

College Of the Air

THE WISCONSIN COLLEGE of the air recently began its second term of education by radio, one of the most recent innovations in the educational field. There is now agitation to establish national radio schools both in this country and in Australia.

In Wisconsin, ten half-hour courses are broadcast once each week by the state university. The courses include studies on farm life and living, science at work, literature in other lands, social problems, and the world of music. Designed particularly for out-of-school young people, the lessons are utilized by many adults and by many high schools to supplement class work.

As a method of equalizing educational opportunities, radio instruction appears to have unlimited possibilities. Anyone can listen with no tuition fees, no book expense nor enrollment costs. As a supplement to the schoolroom, radio could be used to teach subjects when no qualified teacher is available, and it could bring the inspiration of the expert with a great personality into the school. It would have the additional advantage of preventing Johnny from talking back to his radio teacher.

New Deal For Fraternities

A new deal, which is expected to insure financial stability and increase educational value of fraternities, has been inaugurated at the University of Minnesota this fall. Under this cooperative plan, all societies which become voluntary members find available whatever aid in financial supervision or auditing they need from the dean of student affairs. This will stabilize fraternity finances and enable the administration to assure prospective members that membership will not involve serious financial obligations.

This plan also provides for social supervision by resident counsellors (graduate students or faculty members who will assist members in their studies, and in maintaining high social and moral standards in compensation for board and room) to be selected by unanimous vote of the organization, its alumni, and the dean of student affairs. The counsellor scheme is expected to give the University something of the English tutorial and dormitory scheme.

Adherence to the Minnesota Plan is to be strictly optional with the fraternities. Its general acceptance is expected, however. As the administration will recommend only those societies which meet the financial and social requirements of the University.

President L. D. Coffman has endorsed the plan and characterized it as a "forward step which will enhance and strengthen the position of fraternities at the University of Minnesota."

CONFERENCE CHAMPS???

Without such great line play that featured last Saturday's game with the Purples from Winona, there would have been little of the sensational runs by the Dragon backfield. I think too much emphasis is given to the spectacular idea of the game such as ball carrying and passing, and not enough attention concentrated on the work of the linemen who really make the difference between a good and a poor team. Did you ever stop to realize that if every man on the football team would complete his own individual assignment that a touchdown would be scored every time??

I'M A NIGHTOWL:

It seems that we have a few vampires (those who come out in the night) on the good old Dragon campus. Last Sunday night Quande and Yatchak, Hammes and "John Doe" went on their usual nocturnal prowlings in the nearby graveyard. Your old correspondent, who hid behind the largest tombstone, saw them. Oh, yes, "Monk" Monson, of the sensuous voice, was there with some Cobber flame, too. Can't you rate around here, my boy?

National Merry-go-Round

An Analysis and Interpretation of the Highlights Occurring in the Week's News
By Maynard Tvedt

RECENT ITALIAN DECREES emphasize the fact that Italy is the most militaristic nation of the world today. These decrees state that all boys from eight years old will be prepared "spiritually, physically, and militarily" to be ready at the age of 21 to "dedicate themselves exclusively to warlike instruction and the profession of arms." Is this policy in keeping with the spirit of the Briand-Kellogg Peace Pact which Italy signed a few years ago?

REVOLUTION IN SPAIN has caused 500 deaths and thousands of injuries. With the fall of King Alfonso in 1931 the liberals came into power and established a republican government. They promised to reform the feudal land system, limit the political control of the Catholic church, and to decentralize the government. They have failed to effect these reforms and now the conservatives have gained control of the government. The radical element therefore has resorted to armed uprising in an attempt to obtain reform. Regardless of the justice of the cause, the people of Spain are certain to suffer in the struggle between riotous lawlessness and militant authority which will follow.

The Open Column

THAT YEARBOOK NAME AGAIN

May I repeat the plea of "M. L." in last week's open column: "Why not let 'The Dragon' become the new traditional name of our yearbook and carry with it the spirit which the name implies?"

At the University of Minnesota the yearbook bears the name which is symbolic of the school, the Gopher; at the U. of N. D. it is "The Sioux;" at N. D. A. C., "The Bison;" and at Concordia, "The Cobber." But at M. S. T. C. the symbolic name "Dragon" is replaced by an austere, meaningless cognomen, "The Praeceptor." If this change seems too radical for some to whom the name Praeceptor has become dear, even a compromise such as "The Dragon Praeceptor" would be a decided improvement.

Why not conduct a straw vote to determine which of the names (Praeceptor, Dragon, or Dragon Praeceptor) the student body prefers? Then the matter would be acted upon by the Board of Publications, in which authority for making a change rests.

Way Back When—

Four Years Ago

Coming out of the scoreless tie game with Concordia in good shape, the Dragons will oppose the Wildcats at Wahpeton Science School at Wahpeton tomorrow afternoon as favorites. The Science School paper concedes the probability of a victory for the Dragons, but claims they have "a fair chance of downing the upstate school."

Do be careful!! . . . And Herby Lange is in a hospital now having it out with his appendix. So, the old cackler is getting a bit sentimental and he wishes Herb a speedy recovery and is counting the days till again we see the old kid in the library. We need you this winter, Herb, for that good old game of basketball, and so I'm hoping everything surely comes your way (except smallpox!!!).

And the old cackler closes with a bit of an adage, yowsah. "It is better to keep your mouth closed and be thought a fool, than to open it and remove all doubt." So help me!

The Book Shelf

AN EPISCOPAL SUNDAY SCHOOL magazine quotes the following from a book written by Richard de Bury in 1344, more than a hundred years before the invention of printing:

"Books:—These are the masters who instruct us without rods and ferules, without hard words and anger, without clothes and money. If you approach them, they are not asleep; if investigating you interrogate them, they conceal nothing; if you mistake them, they never grumble; if you are ignorant, they can not laugh at you. The library, therefore, of wisdom is more precious than all riches, and nothing that can be wished for is worthy to be compared with it. Whoever, therefore, acknowledges himself to be a zealous follower of truth, of happiness, of wisdom, of science, or even of the faith, must of necessity make himself a lover of books."

"Black Elk Speaks" Through John G. Neihardt

JOHN G. NEIHARDT, WHO appeared on our 1934 lyceum course, has given the life story of the Holy Man of the Ogalala Sioux, in "Black Elk Speaks." To get Black Elk's story he stayed with the old Indian on the reservation, becoming his fast friend and confidant. Neihardt insists that he is only the interpreter of Black Elk, but his great story-telling ability makes the epic of the great Indian fascinating. The story of Black Elk, famous warrior and medicine man of the Ogalala Sioux, would be interesting to any casual reader. But those who care to go deeper will find revealed an unusual spiritual life of an unusual race of people.

The illustrations are especially interesting. They are by Standing Bear, the friend of Black Elk since childhood. His pictures are the true visions of the medicine man, primitive, unrefined in power of color and form, but unforgettable.

Anecdotes Revealed In "Great Musicians As Children"

FRANCISKA SCHWIMMER'S "Great Musicians as Children," recently added to our library, is a collection of biographical sketches of the childhood of great musicians. The stories are all true—and all interesting. They tell how Edward McDowell hired his brother for two pennies to bang on the piano while Edward read a new book instead of practicing; how little Wolfgang Mozart tamed the customs guard with his music; how Walter Damrosch had stage fright over his first appearance as a cymbalist. It is a book that makes musicians very friendly and human.

Bemidji Beavers To Combat Dragon Team In Homecoming Game

Crimson And White Gridders Will Seek To Avenge 2-0 Defeat Of Last Year

(By Carl Fridlund)

With the goal posts and bleachers decorated in the traditional Crimson and White, Memorial Field will present a vivid picture to the Homecoming grads as they await the signal for the football clash between the Dragons and the Bemidji Teachers. The game is scheduled for 2:30 Saturday afternoon, October 20, and gives promise of being one of the outstanding conflicts of the school year.

When the Dragon gridders engaged Bemidji last year they were the victims of a 2-0 setback. The memory of this struggle still rankles in the minds of the football men, and they are straining at the leash, ready to prove that they are the better team. This observer believes that Coach Alex Nemzek has one of the most powerful and versatile aggregations ever to come under his capable tutelage. With a wealth of reserve material, men who are all practically on a par, the genial mentor can substitute freely without weakening the team, and this factor leads to the prediction that the Dragons will fight their way to a smashing victory. If the Dragons can defeat the Duluth Bulldogs tomorrow, they will be the favorites to cop the Conference title.

The probable lineup for the Dragons will have Stephens and Wohlwend at the end positions; Serbin and DuVall at tackles; Bjerkness and Mikulich at guards and Wally Erickson at the pivot post. The backfield will be composed of Hollister and Burke at halfbacks, Scheela at quarter and Yatchak at fullback, with Gotta and oormick ready for any emergency.

Ready to help the Dragon forward wall at any time will be Matson, Marconeri and Elmer Johnson at ends; Schranz, Brula and Snyder at tackles; Monson and Meyers at guards, and Marquardt and Berlin at center.

All-American Grid Team To Be Selected

With the grand old sport of football occupying the limelight more and more each day, voting for the Collegiate Digest All-American Football team for 1934, to be selected by the undergraduates of the United States through The Western MISTIC and Collegiate Digest, is rapidly increasing in volume.

Under the rules of the contest, it is not necessary to wait until the end of the season to cast a vote for your favorite players, because each student is allowed to make changes in his or her original selection in case spectacular playing by some individual or team makes such a revision seem advisable. Ballots may be brought in or mailed to The MISTIC office, or mailed direct to the All-American Editor, Collegiate Digest, P. O. Box 472, Madison, Wisconsin. Use the coupon provided on page 8 of this week's Collegiate Digest.

The rules under which the contest is being run are as follows:

Each individual may submit one complete team as his or her selection for the 1934 Collegiate Digest All-American. In case the voter's first selection does not seem to be the best one after the ballot has been cast, the voter is free to select another complete All-American team. The only restriction is that each individual is not allowed to vote for more than one complete team each week.

At the end of the contest, the closing of which will be announced by The MISTIC and Collegiate Digest at a later date, gold medals will be awarded the 11 men selected through Collegiate Digest, as the representatives of the undergraduate bodies and student newspapers throughout the United States.

After watching the game this week, don't forget to look over the scores of other games. Study the players which have distinguished themselves throughout the country and cast YOUR vote.

Presenting Dragon Grid Stars of 1934

College High Team Wins Two Victories

Defeat Dilworth 20-0; New York Mills 32-0; Lose To Hawley 6-0

The College High grid men are doing themselves proud this season under the expert tutelage of Coach "Chet" Gilpin and his assistant, Howard Ruegamer. They have been beaten once so far, by the Hawley High School eleven, 6-0, and have turned in two decisive wins, one from New York Mills, 32-0, and the other win from Dilworth, by a score of 20-0.

The Baby Dragons have games scheduled with Fargo high reserves, a return match with Hawley and a tentative game with the Moorhead High Spuds on October 26. The Gilpinmen haven't tangled with the Spuds since 1932, when the final tally was 6-0 for the Spuds, and it is expected that this year's game will mean a lot to the young Dragons.

Future Dragon stars from Gilpin's squad are likely to be Ed Johnson, fullback; Tom McCormick, quarterback; Bly and Grover, tackles, and Ralph Pederson, an end who has scored four touchdowns via the aerial route.

W. A. A. Plans Fall Party To Be Held November 10

Plans for their fall party on November 10 are being formulated by the W. A. A. No definite plans have yet been made. The organization will have a supper for the active members and alumnae on Saturday during Homecoming.

Because of the other numerous activities during October, the fall sports program is not proving as successful as it might be. Nevertheless, the W. A. A. urges those girls who are interested in sports and who have the time to participate. A more intensive program will be carried on after Homecoming activities are over, and the W. A. A. invites each and every girl to come out and enjoy herself.

"The function of the liberal college is to give young people the enrichments of life out of which comes success. Because of the over-emphasis of the profit motive, students get the money perspective and are dissatisfied," says Dean Louis H. Dirks, of dePauw University (Greencastle, Ind.).

Dragon Gridders Flash Real Power Against Winona In Scoring 26-0 Victory Saturday

Conference Chatter

Duluth	1	0	1.000

LAST WEEK'S CONFERENCE GAMES
 Dragons, 26; Winona, 0.
 Duluth, 14; St. Cloud, 0.
 Mankato, 13; Bemidji, 0.

Well, the "Skipper's" Dragons emerged from their conference tilt with a decisive 26-0 victory over the Purple from Winona. What a forward wall! Not to mention the "Bessemmer Bomber," Yatchak.

Quote the "Skipper," "Duluth's victory over St. Cloud stamps the northern team as potential conference champions." By the way, the Duluth Bulldogs chewed their way to this victory by the score of 14-0. Sharpen your fangs, Bulldogs, we're coming!

"Bibs" (Basket-ball) Matson played heads-up ball by using Walt Scheela, his favorite pass tosser, and a Winona back to convert two aerials into touchdowns. The Dragons pass-defense is still strong, as Winona completed only one short toss out of an attempted four.

Co-captain Bjerkness blames his irregularity of after-touchdown points to an "offside toe." Get a carpenter's plane, Julian, and square it off.

Not that "Holly" and "Hamburger" Burke didn't indulge in weekly Saturday night abulations—but, anyhow, "Sliv" took the boys to New York Mills for a well-known Finn bath to cure their injuries. We hope it doesn't "finnish" the boys! A 45-yard "pun" average.

Woe in the Dragon camp as it looks as if John Chisholm, scrapping guard from Bessemer, Michigan, will be out for the remainder of the season with a sprained knee.

Down Purple Team, 26-0, To Open Conference Season; Matson Tallies Two Touchdowns

(By Webbie Rowan)

Led by the brilliant ground gaining of Vincent Yatchak, powerful fullback, the Dragons smothered Winona's offense, tore their defense to shreds and came out of the fray with a 26-0 victory in a game played on Memorial field last Saturday afternoon.

In the first quarter neither team seemed to function well, although the Dragons pounded out a single down to Winona's none. With the second quarter well under way, things began to happen, but it was Yatchak who started the Dragon attack rolling. After two plays through the line had netted a gain of only two yards, Yatchak took the ball on the Winona 40-yard line, slipped through the Winona forward wall and raced 17 yards to the 22-yard line. Then with the crowd still roaring, on the next play he again ripped through left tackle, shook off all tacklers and galloped across the goal line to score. Bjerkness' attempted kick for the extra point was low.

Matson Counts

The second touchdown came when Walt Scheela intercepted a Winona pass in midfield and carried it back to the 40-yard line. On the next play he tossed a 30-yard pass to Bibs Matson, Dragon end, who scampered across the goal. Again Bjerkness tried for the extra point, but it was outside. Less than three minutes later, with Winona in possession of the ball on their own 20-yard line, Yatchak reached up and batted a Winona pass into the hands of Matson who, behind beautiful interference, ran 25 yards for another counter. On a fake place-kick Yatchak dove through the line for the extra point, the half ending with the Dragons ahead, 19-0.

Coach Nemzek revamped his line-up at the outset of the second half and the offense functioned well, piling up 88 yards from scrimmage while Winona could hardly gain an inch. Twice the Dragons advanced the ball to Winona's 12-yard line, but each time penalties and a stronger Winona line halted them. The Dragons' last touchdown came in the final quarter, climaxing a 50-yard sustained drive headed by Hollister, who carried the

Dragon, Duluth Gridders Will Clash Tomorrow In Conference Struggle

Game At Duluth Brings Together Two Of Strongest Teams In Northern League

(By Eino Aho)

A smashing, hard-fought battle with the conference championship in the background is on the books for tomorrow when the Dragons and the Duluth Teachers line up for the opening kick-off at 2:30 in Duluth. Coach "Sliv" Nemzek left with his charge this morning and the schedule calls for a light workout on the Duluth field.

Both teams will be fighting to break the 7-7 tie of last year's contest while Moorhead will be looking for revenge for the 7-6 defeat in 1932 and for a chance at the mythical crown. It will be a game of breaks and smart football between the two evenly matched juggernauts of the gridiron. Boasting undefeated records, both teams are featured by heavy forward walls and shifty, hard-hitting backfield combinations.

Heavy Team

Leading the Bulldogs will be Captain O'Hehir, big 200-pound tackle—and Irish. Last year's captain, Neil Scott, holds down the center of the line. Gorman, all-conference halfback last year, calls the signals for the crew from the head of the lakes while Vucinovich, shifty fullback who tips the scales at 198 pounds, batters the opponents' line in plunges and power plays.

From tackle to tackle the Duluth team is composed of six-footers, averaging close to 200 pounds. The Dragons will have their hands full when they tie in with the Bulldogs and the game should be a stubborn struggle from start to finish.

So far in the season, Duluth has won two games, taking Virginia Junior College into camp with an 18-0 tally and following with a knockout punch against St. Cloud, resulting in a 14-0 score. The Dragons haven't done so badly either, with two victories and a tie against Concordia on their side of the ledger. The victory against Winona showed the power of the Moorhead Teachers' offensive, and the defensive strength also appeared well developed. Duluth made 13 first downs to 3 for St. Cloud, while the Dragons made the same number while they held Winona to one first down.

The Dragons may not be in full strength for the contest since Burke and Hollister both received injuries last Saturday and Gotta is still recovering from a sprained ankle. Much of the offensive work will rest on Yatchak, star fullback for the Moorhead team. Injured or not, the Dragons will make a real contest of the game.

pigskin across from the 2-yard line. Bjerkness booted the ball through the uprights for the extra point.

Arns Outstanding

For Winona, the play of Arns, freshman quarterback, was particularly outstanding. He directed his team well during the entire game and was himself responsible for most of the yardage gained by Winona. Mollanen and Thompson also performed well in the Winona backfield. In the line, Prentiss, guard; Chase, center; Irwin, tackle, and Kozlowski, their captain and star end, time and again stopped the Dragon backs as they tried to penetrate the line.

In the Dragon line-up, Yatchak was the sparkplug of the Crimson and the White attack, along with Bibs Matson, who did some neat work in receiving Walt Scheela's passes. Hollister, averaging seven yards every time he took the ball, was a constant threat and played smoothly throughout the game. Joe Edlund and "Aldy" Christianson worked well in the backfield, the former breaking loose twice for 30-yard jaunts.

In the Dragon line, Serbin, Bjerkness, Mikulich, and Erickson bore the brunt of the defense and caused the Winona backs no end of trouble. Elmer Johnson, Snyder, and Berlin, reserve linemen, saw action in the game and played strongly both on offense and defense.

Come on home, grads, for the Homecoming game, because we can guarantee you a game full of thrills with Eward Serbin, mighty tackle, throwing opposing line men into your laps. The Bemidji men may not be Laplanders but they'll come to you anyhow.

Seven snakes, including two venomous reptiles, are now in the biological collection of Hobart College (Geneva, N. Y.).

Press Convention Held Here Attended By 500 High School Students

Round Tables, Speeches, Banquets, Teas, Features Of Sessions Held Last Week

Five hundred high school journalists were guests of the Moorhead high school at the annual Minnesota State High School Press Association convention held on the M. S. T. C. campus October 5 and 6. College instructors, alumni, musicians, and publications staff members aided in the various programs.

Highlights of the convention proved to be the speeches by Maud Hart Lovelace, John Raper, Miss Clara Richards and W. P. Davies. Mrs. Lovelace, author of "Early Candlelight," and other stories of early Minnesota history, spoke Friday evening on "Adventures of a Novelist in Search of Material." Mr. Raper, Cleveland Press humorist, has as his topic "Chasing News." Mr. Davies spoke Friday morning on "The Search for Truth."

Attend Tea

About two hundred fifty of the visiting journalists and their advisers attended the tea given Friday afternoon in Ingleside by the publications staffs of the College.

The convention featured a series of forty-eight round table discussions on various phases of journalistic work led by well known specialists in each field.

Miss Richards, librarian of the North Dakota Masonic Grand Lodge library, had an exhibit of rare prints and etchings typical of periods from 1491 to 1934 on display in MacLean Hall. She also spoke on "Printing Rarities and the Library" at the general session Saturday morning. Several commercial exhibits were on display in Weld Hall.

Contests in all forms of journalistic work were held during the sessions. The convention closed with a banquet held Saturday noon in the Moorhead high school auditorium.

Ninety college and university presidents will attend the inauguration ceremonies at the University of Iowa (Iowa City) when Dean Gilmore is inducted as president of that institution.

Important Facts Revealed by Dr. Christensen In Thesis Concerning High School Graduates

Study Is Made In 45 High Schools Within Radius Of 70 Miles

Alumni of M. S. T. C., as well as teachers and administrators throughout this section of the northwest, will be interested in many of the facts disclosed by Dr. A. M. Christensen of the College Education department, who recently completed a study of more than two thousand high school graduates of western Minnesota. The study, entitled "The Educational and Social Aspects of the High School Graduate," was submitted as a doctoral dissertation at the University of Iowa, where Dr. Christensen has been pursuing graduate work. Material was submitted to him by many school people within the area of 10,000 square miles with Moorhead as its center.

In his research Dr. Christensen found that there was a ratio of 60 boys graduating from high school to every 100 girls. This, he said in a Chapel talk on October 10, was probably due to the fact that this is an agricultural country and that the boys remain on the farm. He continued by saying that jobs would open up and unemployment be less if more boys were to go to high school.

"Scholarship is important." Questionnaires that Dr. Christensen sent out to schools show that the graduates having high scholastic records are the ones who are, in the majority of cases, successful people. He divided who had gone to college, and found that they were superior in scholarship; those who were employed, chosen because of higher grades, especially true among girl graduates chosen; and those unemployed, who showed lower grades.

Dr. Christensen pointed out that we need the very best to teach our schools. The belief now is that it is the four-year curriculum students that are the best. In 1930, the one-year curriculum was outstanding but now the condition is reversed, with the four-year curriculum leading.

The aim of high school is to make its pupils civilized. The most helpful subject in this direction is social science. Yet, nearly all high school graduates listed this as one of the least important subjects taught in high school.

Large Crowd Hears Maud Hart Lovelace

Noted Writer Speaks On Gathering Material For A Novel

Maud Hart Lovelace gave an interesting talk to a large audience of delegates to the Minnesota State High School Press Association convention assembled at Weld Hall last Friday night. She spoke on "Gathering Material for a Novel."

Mrs. Lovelace vividly described the extensive research work she did before writing the novel "Early Candlelight." As the novel had its setting in Minnesota, much of the research work was done there. She visited historical places such as Fort Snelling, Randall's Trading Post, Sibley House, and also followed the Minnesota River almost to its source.

Delos Lovelace, journalist on the New York Sun and her husband, collaborated with Mrs. Lovelace in her more recent novels.

Pioneer Spirit

Mrs. Lovelace, in speaking of the spirit of the pioneers she has interviewed said: "The pioneers seem to be very optimistic and cheerful. They are extremely proud of their hardiness and told me that when they were young, every one thrived but the doctor." At the conclusion of her talk, she stated that she wrote on Minnesota history because of her enjoyment of living here and her intense interest in the history of the state.

Adult Education Program Attracts Attention In Rural Districts

"Parental education and problems of the day" are the two phases of the adult education program being put into effect by the state, according to Dr. Archer, head of the Education department.

Under the first phase of the program child study groups have been organized in different communities for the purpose of discussing various child problems, such as stealing, lying, fighting, heredity, and fears. Wallace Berg, who is enrolled in work under Dr. Archer, is leading these discussion groups. Mr. Berg received his bachelors degree at the North Dakota State College and his masters degree at the University of North Dakota. Informal Rushing To Begin Next Monday

Each Sorority To Hold One Party; Formal Rushing Is Set For December

Beginning on Monday, October 15, the four sororities on the Campus will entertain rushees at various forms of parties. Informal rushing activities will last through Thursday.

As has been the custom, each sorority will have but one party during informal rushing, during which the sorority girls will become better acquainted with the new students. This is preliminary to formal rushing, which will be held in December.

The sororities have chosen the following ways to entertain their rushees:

Northern Lights

Spying on the recent football impact between the Dragons and Cobbers, your expert noted that the boys appeared to feel that the "golden rule" is a sort of sissy quotation.

When Burke or Hollister was brought to earth with that well-known dull sickening thud of which the fancy writer often speaks he was completely inundated by the bodies of two or three foes.

It was apparent that the visitors who happened upon him when he was down were merely headed in his general direction and could not get their feet on the brakes in time to prevent the collision.

Serbin had great fun in that game when he would put his paws on the opposing guard or tackle and shove him back into the next township.

He claims that he has lost many opposing linemen in the crowd that way, particularly if they were off balance and unable to stop going until they hit the stand.
