First Inter-Sorority Autumn Dance To Be Held Tomorrow Night

Gymnasium To Be Scene Of Party Which Will Replace Four Customary Dances

Tomorrow night the large gymnasium will be the scene of the first Inter-Sorority Autumn Dance ever sponsored on the campus. Through the Inter-Sorority Council, members of the social sororities are sponsoring the affair. Members, their escorts, faculty members and their guests will be in attendance.

The presidents of the sororities, who with their escorts will form the receiving line, are: Beta Chi, Margaret Fugle, Barrett; Pi Mu Phi, Nina Jorgensen, Pilot, N. D.; Psi Delta Kappa, Frances Olson, Fargo. Because of the illness of Ethel Erickson, president, Aileen O'Laughlin, Moorhead, will represent the Gamma Nu sorority in the line.

The decoration scheme will be carried out in autumn colors in the gymnasium and in Ingleside, where bridge tables will be arranged for those who are not dancing.

This inter-sorority dance takes the place of the four separate fall parties which are customarily held. The committee in charge of arrangements for the dance is Ethel Lasure, chairman; Jeanette Thompson, Signe Olson and Gladys Flom.

Miss Lommen Speaks On Education Trends

Predicts Growth In Junior Colleges; More Successful Vocations

Miss Georgina Lommen, head of the Training School, speaking before the assembly last Wednesday on "Trends of Education," stated that the principle of education by an evolutionary process is adapting itself to fit the demands and needs of the American people. Quoting from Sanderson, the great Scottish schoolmaster, Miss Lommen declared, "The school should be in miniature a copy of the world we would love to see."

"The University of Chicago, in an effort to adapt itself to the needs of its students, has recently reorganized the type of education offered, has introduced a new method of selecting students, and has introduced the use of comprehensive examinations."

Miss Lommen predicted a growth in junior colleges in the next ten years as a means of adapting education to fit the needs of the students in finding their life work and to eliminate many unnecessary failures. "Twenty-eight forums have been established in Des Moines, Iowa, in an effort to satisfy the demand for adult education."

Miss Lommen concluded her speech by quoting Morrison's social formula for education, "What evolution has been to the human organism, what civilization has been to society, that education should be to the personality."

Dramatic Groups Play "Tartuffe" Last Night

An enthusiastic crowd attended the presentation of "Tartuffe," under the direction of Miss Ethel Tainter, last night. Alpha Psi Omega, Dramatic Club, and the Play Production class comprised the cast of the play. The Dragon Band featured special numbers by the double string quartet and a xylophone solo by Helen Rauk. A review will appear in next week's MISTIC.

Commission Enforces Activity Point System

Six Students Exceed Extra-Curricular Quota; 150 Not Active In Any

The point system which was introduced last year has been projected and is being used again. The purpose of the point system is to prevent any student from carrying too heavy a load of extra-curricular activities and to encourage every student to have some interests outside his academic work. The project is sponsored by the Student Commission and is under the supervision of John Chisholm, commissioner of education.

The maximum number of points any student can carry is twenty-five. The editorship of the Praelator and MISTIC receives fifteen points, student commission members, business manager of publications, and presidents of organizations receive ten points; all other officers, members of athletic teams, and yell leaders get four points. Three points are given to members of musical organizations, the debate teams, and all organizations except national honorary societies. A major part in a play receives five points and a minor part three points.

There were six students who were carrying more than the maximum quota. Four students carry 20 to 25 points; eleven have from 15 to 20; thirty have from 10 to 15; fifty-eight have from 5 to 10; and one hundred eighty-four students have less than five. One hundred fifty-seven students, or one-third of the student body, are not represented in any extra-curricular activity.

Current Subjects Topic Of Schoolmasters' Club

"A Minimum Program for Equalizing Educational Opportunity" and "The Townsend Old Age Pension" will be the subjects discussed at the November meeting of the Schoolmasters Study Club of Western Minnesota at Comstock Hall on Wednesday, November 21.

Dr. Donald Tope of the N. D. A. C., will speak on the first subject. He has made an extensive study of this problem in Iowa for his doctor's dissertation and is said to have some good applications for Minnesota and North Dakota.

Attorney P. B. Garberg will discuss the proposed Townsend Old Age Pension. He has been instrumental in the organization of pension clubs and has made a special study of the proposed plan.

The College Male Octet will present several musical numbers.

Deacon Hundebly will take charge of the festivities in M. S. T. C.'s hayloft at a shindig given by the good citizens of this fair city of Greenfrosh tonight.

Our good mayor, who is also the constable and the janitor of the Opey House, says the reason the Harvest Festival is going to be held in the Hayloft is because at the last revival meeting in the Opey House a large piece of plaster came down and the House is being repaired.

Committees Selected; Begin Drafting Script For 1935 Jan-Jubilee

Promise "Glorious Extravaganza" For Annual, Original All-Student Venture

With an extra committee appointed during the past week, plans for that "glorious extravaganza," the 1935 January Jubilee, are being prepared and by the end of the quarter, script for the production will have been completed. By this time also all committees will have been named and will be working on this all-student venture, written, directed and produced by the students of the College.

Complete management of the Jubilee this year has been placed by the Student Commission in the hands of an executive committee composed of Edward Eastman, chairman; Joe Best, Tryouts for the girls' choruses of the 1935 January Jubilee will be held Monday at 3 p. m. in the small gymnasium. Helen Peoples, in charge of the chorus work, is urging that every girl in the College try out, since a large group will be selected. Candidates are asked to come dressed in gym clothes.

Adele Jensen, Aileen O'Laughlin, Mabel Peoples, Miss Frick, and Dr. Christensen. This group, however, will appoint committees of students to take charge of the various divisions of the production.

In charge of the script, which will be completed by Thanksgiving, are the following group, named last spring: Joe Best, chairman; Aileen O'Laughlin, Mabel and Helen Peoples, Vance Hallack and William Wallace.

Other committees which will be announced next week include music, orchestra, wardrobe, scenery, and publicity. A cast will be selected the first week of the winter quarter.

Training School To Present Operetta

"Hansel And Gretel," Under Direction Of Miss Wenck, To Be Given

The Intermediate grades under the direction of Miss Maude Wenck will present the operetta, "Hansel and Gretel," adapted from the Opera of Humperdinck, by Bertha Elsmith, at two performances. The first performance will be Wednesday afternoon, November 21, at 2 o'clock (in the Training School Auditorium) and the second performance Thursday evening, November 22, at 7:30 o'clock. Tickets will be twenty-five cents, and they may be bought from the children or at the door.

The principal characters are: Peter, a binder of brooms, Gordon Ellingson; Gertrude, his wife, Mary Preston; Hansel and Gretel, their children, Teddy Kittleston and Ruth Bystrom. Other characters include Sandmen, Angels, Dew-men, Witches, Cookie Children, and chorus. Twenty-five musical numbers are featured.

The scene of the first act is in the home of Hansel and Gretel; in act two the scene is in the woods where the children realize they are lost; and in act three the scene is at the Witch's "goody" cottage.

Jubilee Chairman

Edward Eastman, who has been named chairman of the January Jubilee executive committee which has complete management of the venture.

Honorary Fraternity Elects Six Members

Offer Ten Dollars For Best Contribution To Literary Supplement

Plans for the year were decided upon at the meeting of Sigma Tau Delta, national honorary English fraternity, Tuesday night. The group decided to offer a ten dollar prize to the student making the best contribution to the literary supplement. Plans for the Northwest Regional convention of Sigma Tau Delta were discussed, the amalgamation with Althalia, honorary English fraternity, was completed, and six new members were admitted to membership. Those who were eligible for membership in Althalia will be considered for junior memberships of the national fraternity.

The literary supplement of the MISTIC is financed jointly by the Activity Fee Committee, Sigma Tau Delta, and the MISTIC. It is usually a four-page, illustrated publication consisting of original poems, stories, and essays, which is edited every spring. Any student may enter the contest.

The Sigma Tau Delta chapters of four colleges: Aberdeen Teachers College, Jamestown College, N. D. A. C., and M. S. T. C., will hold their regional convention on the M. S. T. C. campus some time during the spring term.

Catherine Jones, Moorhead; Vincent Schneider, Davenport, N. D.; Florence Williams, Fargo; and Mrs. May Miller, Detroit Lakes, were elected to active membership in the organization. Two students, Jerome Johnson, Little Sauk, and Edward Eastman, Moorhead, were admitted to associate membership.

Pledging services will be held December 18. The formal initiation services and banquet will be held in January, when Miss Lumley and Mr. Loewen will also be initiated.

Conference Meets For Ineligibility Settlement

That the issue of the Dragon players' ineligibility will be settled tomorrow was predicted by Mr. Schwendeman, faculty athletic representative, who with Coach Nemzek, leaves today for a meeting of the Northern Conference Board in Minneapolis. Basketball and football schedules will also be worked out at this meeting.

Football Squad Will Be Entertained At Banquet

The annual banquet given by the faculty men in honor of the Dragon football squad will take place Tuesday, November 20, at Comstock Hall at 6:30 p. m. In addition to the coaches and football men, among those present will be Dr. G. L. Gosslee, resident director of the College; Dick Hackenberg, sports editor of the Moorhead Daily News; James Hurley, sports writer of The Fargo Forum; Clarence Jesten, Herbert Lange, pep commissioner; and Carl Fridlund, MISTIC sports editor.

Several Former Students Succeed In Fall Elections

The fall election proved successful to a number of M. S. T. C. graduates and former students. Melvin Johnson, who attended M. S. T. C. in the summer of 1932, was elected state senator in Richland county, North Dakota. Leonard Eriksson from Fergus Falls was re-elected as state representative of Minnesota. Mr. Eriksson is a member of the College Alumni Board at the present time.

The following were elected county superintendents: Cora Werner, 34, of Traverse county; Clarissa Berquist, 32, Becker county; Ellen M. Anderson, of Clay county; and John Henderson, re-elected in Ottertail county. Orlean Weik, also a former student, was elected deputy of Ottertail county.

Stimulation Needed

ACTION HAS been taken to enforce again the extra-curricular point system adopted last year by the Student Commission and the Faculty scholarship committee.

Being designed to limit excessive participation in extra-curricular work, the purpose of the plan is doubtless worthwhile. Certainly whatever benefits may be derived from these activities are nullified when one takes part in so many that he cannot more than "half-do" any one of them. Further, it is desirable to spread out the opportunities among more persons by preventing the over-zealous ones from monopolizing all the activities to the exclusion of the less-assuming.

That the system isn't perfect is generally admitted. Improvement might be made in the apportionment of points. For instance, playing football which requires two to four hours a day is rated four points, the same as being vice president of a minor organization, which obviously requires much less time. A staff position on the MISTIC, which requires several hours per week, receives no points while a Student Commissioner, who ordinarily spends just a few hours, receives ten points. These discrepancies are technical and might easily be adjusted.

Worthy as the system may be, however, over-participation does not seem to be a major problem at this time, inasmuch as only five students, less than two percent on the campus, exceed their quota, according to a check-up made recently. On the other hand, 150 students, over a third of the student body, do not participate in any extra-curricular activities whatsoever.

Moderate participation in such activities as music, dramatics, athletics, and journalism is acknowledged to be highly desirable. Therefore, from the standpoint of the numbers involved, it seems that to stimulate activity on the part of non-participating students is a greater problem than to limit the few who are over-active.

A Challenge To Colleges

THERE ARE FEW college students who have not pondered over the significance of the American college and the actual contribution it makes to the individual and to society. The editor of the Forum magazine, Mr. H. G. Leach, has attracted widespread comment upon the challenging ideas he presented recently in this connection.

He says in part: "What do average American colleges offer to make living happier, or nobler, or more efficient? They have not provided our public life—as the British colleges have provided Parliament—with a race of brilliant politicians. Nor have American colleges enlivened our civilization—as the Danish colleges have—with a laughing, sophisticated society which quotes its axioms and its puns not from local slang, but from foreign languages.

"What has been the chief function of American colleges? Their chief usefulness has been the training in amiability. Their smiling graduates are useful to society by serving gas human lubricants and ball bearings. . . . Granted this achievement, few will deny that the social emphasis of American college life has been overdone," the Forum editor asserts.

The typical student enters college with such queries as: "Why should I prepare for life? And what is it all about?" These are fundamental questions, Mr. Leach believes, and he criticizes the American colleges for not adequately aiding its students in their answer.

Judging from the number of students who intend to go out for debate, there will be no armistice with the munitions makers on this campus.

The Jan-Jubilee should be good this year. The committees writing it are lousy with ideas, according to Miss Prick. Just keep them away from the Flit syzayer.

The Open Column

WHAT ABOUT THE SOCIAL HOUR?

What has happened to our social hour? I believe that the general sentiment of the student body is overwhelmingly in favor of a weekly social hour and would be even more so if an adequate place were to be provided for the students to enjoy an hour's relaxation. When school began this fall many of the returning students looked forward to the social hours as an opportunity to become acquainted with new students. Nothing was said by them as the weeks went by and still no notice appeared; it was assumed that these hours would be resumed as soon as "orientation" had been completed. Sufficient time has now elapsed to warrant the supposition that if the student body doesn't assume the initiative in this regard, there won't be a social hour for the remainder of the school year.

In the courses taught in this "institution" we are constantly reminded that one of the most important things to be taught in college and in other schools is the social aspect. We are forced to admit that very few opportunities are offered to our students, as a body, to become more than casually acquainted. Nearly all opportunities now offered are for some special group and if one happens to be a newcomer or not one of these special groups, he is left almost entirely out of the social life of the school.

It seems obvious that the social hour serves a definite and undisputed purpose and I believe that the student body as a whole agrees with this. I might point out that every social hour held last year was well attended—so well, in fact, that many didn't come merely because there wasn't room for them.

It might be well to have a vote of the students on the question, and if found favorable, it seems that the administration should be heard from.

—W. C. CHRISTOPHERSON.

This Business of College

ONLY TWO OF the 158 graduates of the class of 1934 Arizona State Teachers College (Flagstaff) have not received employment to date, and we complained because a mere 85 percent of our grads were placed.

THE CREATION of a college police course for the University of Wichita (Kansas) is being considered by officials of that institution.

"OXFORD UNIVERSITY is still in a medieval state. The dismal atmosphere of the place reminded me of Sleepy Hollow," says Maxwell Lancaster. "I was particularly impressed by the lack of bath tubs."

A MOVE has been started by the University of Georgia (Athens) to obtain a free transportation service for co-eds following an edict by authorities which prohibits them from hitch-hiking after 6 p. m.

Way Back When—

Four Years Ago

Despite a stubborn defense and indomitable spirit the Dragons lost to the North Dakota Agricultural College with a score of 19 to 6. . . . The superiority of the Dragons has reached the 1934 climax when the Bison were outweighed by a score of 13 to 12.

Three Years Ago

The mystery play, "Somebody's Crooked," staged by the local chapter of Alpha Psi Omega, national dramatic fraternity, under the direction of Miss Tainter, proved to be all that one could wish for an evening of entertainment. . . . Last night that organization presented Moliere's "Tartuffe."

Two Years Ago

On the eve of the most bitterly contested election in recent years all of the major political parties had an opportunity to make their final campaign pleas, when the gigantic political rally was sponsored by the International Relations Club. The gym was well filled by students and townspeople in attendance at this program of speeches on behalf of the chief gubernatorial and presidential candidates.

Throughout the day, energetic campaigns were carried on by the various political parties in an endeavor not only to influence the vote of the College straw poll but to arouse their partisans to make an enthusiastic demonstration at the evening rally.

An Analysis and Interpretation of the Highlights
Occurring in the Week's News
By Maynard Tvedt

IN SPITE OF the fact that twelve months have elapsed since our recognition of Soviet Russia, the claims and debts issues remain unsettled and trade lags. Nevertheless, the feeling of mutual respect and friendship which has developed is a worthwhile achievement.

WITH THE SAAR plebiscite, German re-armament, and Balkan-Italian agreement hanging in suspense, French affairs, both domestic and foreign, are tense as the new premier, Pierre Flan-drin, takes office. It is only in her present need of leadership that France feels the full costs of the war. Her superb war-time leaders—Foch, Clemenceau, Briand, Barthou—are dying off; the war generation does not exist; and, the post-war youth are as yet too immature for leadership.

NOW THAT Governor Olson has received the endorsement of the voters of Minnesota, he proposes to submit the public ownership program of his party to the public for endorsement. Nobody can object to that.

EARLY IN DECEMBER the nation will again gather around their radios for another of President Roosevelt's fireside talks. Everyone is waiting eagerly for the administration to reveal its legislative plans regarding the budget, relief, the bonus, and a host of accompanying problems.

REPORTS FROM Germany indicate that the attempt of the Nazis to coordinate the Protestant churches into a single National Socialist church has failed completely. Apparently the German people still insist on religious liberty even though political liberty is a thing of the past.

COMSTOCK COMMANDMENTS

I. Thou shalt have no other consideration above thy Comstock Hall lest thou be most swatted therefor.

II. Thou shalt not make unto thee any graven or otherwise copied images of anybody's assignments unless thou art darn sure thou canst get away with it.

III. Thou shalt not take the name of the M. S. T. C. in vain for the M. S. T. C. will not hold him guiltless who taketh its name in vain.

IV. Remember House Rules to keep them holy. Five days shalt thou keep them but thou canst shun them on the other two.

V. Honor the Dean of Women that thy days may be long in the college where they father's dough hast put thee.

VI. Thou shalt not kill—time.

VII. Thou shalt not take blind dates, except at thine own risk, for peaches don't grow on lemon trees.

VIII. Thou shalt not steal—thy roommate's clothes, but if thou shouldst borrow and forget to return, it is all right, if thou dost not get caught.

IX. Thou shalt not covet thy brethren's lids, but shalt make good use of them when said brethren have left early for their respective dates.

X. Thou shalt not swear except under extraordinary circumstances such as flunking a quarter or being accused (wrongfully, of course) of cutting classes.

COMPETITION FOR SWIMMING MEDALS STARTS TODAY

Silver Trophy Awards To Be Made To Teams Gathering Most Points

Edlund And Vinette Are Strong Contenders For Honors

The first of a series of intramural swimming meets to be held this year gets under way today at four o'clock. This year a new plan is being installed with each organization permitted to enter a swimming team in the meet. There will be three divisions of competition: beginners, intermediate, and advanced groups. A person is allowed to enter only one of these three divisions and compete in only three events.

Cups To Be Awarded

A silver cup will be awarded to the organization garnering the most points. This cup must be won two terms in order to gain permanent possession of it. A silver cup will also be presented to the man having the highest number of points and the woman having the highest number of points. Joe Edlund, last year's winner, is back for competition along with Bob Marquardt, who promises to be a "big splash" in the meet. In the women's group Naomi Vinette, medalist last year, is an outstanding candidate. A nominal charge of one cent per capita will be charged for spectators.

Sideline Slants

By Carl Fridlund

When the season's play terminated, the football careers of five seniors, Bjerkness, Matson, Edlund, Brula and Russell Monson ceased also, and no longer will they be able to don football togs for the Dragon institution. They have done their share to bring honors to the college and their absence will be keenly felt when the 1935 football season rolls around.

We doff our hats to Concordia, worthy champions of the Minnesota College Conference, who achieved their goal last Friday with a crushing 28-0 victory over Gustavus. They are a great team and are every bit worthy of being champions of their conference.

We read in the student paper of the Duluth State Teachers College "Duluth won a 'hollow' victory over the Dragons when the 'Committee of Three' declared Yatchak and Gotta temporarily ineligible." The paper goes on to say, "Coach Alex J. Nemzek built a team that made the Bulldogs so sick they looked like Pekinese." Nice compliment, huh?

Now that the football season of the Northern State Teachers College Conference is over the nominations for all-Conference selections are in order. Milt Hollister, named last year, should be a cinch to repeat at a halfback position because of his general all-around play and I think quite a few Dragons are eligible for the honor positions.

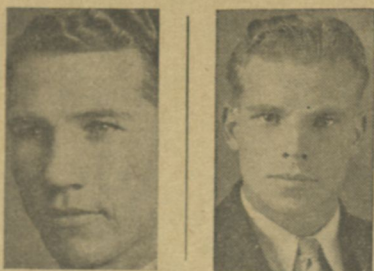

A comparison of total scores made by the Dragons against Conference competition, 100 to 6, will convince even the most skeptical that virtually all the Dragon players are eligible for the mythical all-Conference selections.

Walt Scheela, the "Carideo" of the Dragon team, certainly deserves a place on the all-Conference team because he is one of the smartest field generals ever to develop under Coach Nemzek and was easily the outstanding quarterback of the Conference. His coolness under fire, his inspiration to his teammates made him about the most valuable man on the squad.

Six Lettermen Are Present At First Basketball Drill

Coach Nemzek's initial call for varsity basketball practice was answered last night by a large squad of prospective hardwood performers.

With six lettermen back and a host of promising freshmen, the outlook for a successful season appears to be the first in years. Lettermen returning for the 1934-35 cage season are Captain Carl Fridlund, Harold Matson, Wally Erickson, Herby Lange, Alden Christensen and Maynard Thompson.

WAA Chooses Teams For Women's Sports

Regular Basketball Practice Begins Winter Athletics For W. A. A.

Formal initiation for eight members of the Women's Athletic Association Saturday evening, November 10, closed the fall activities of the group.

Fall sports teams have been chosen on the basis of ability, sportsmanship and attendance. On the hockey team are: Helen Krumholtz, Aileen Hurley, Pauline Eddy, Doris Thysell, Emma Germolus, Allen Krumrey, Rachel Askegaard, Marion Kylo, Ann Meyers, Mae Thortvedt, Naomi Vinette and Betty Hoag.

Those on the soccer team are: Ann Meyers, Charlotte Olson, Allen Krumrey, Naomi Vinette, Pauline Eddy, DeVoil Gill, Marion Kylo, Mae Thortvedt, Rachel Askegaard and Emma Germolus.

On the kickball team are: Rachel Askegaard, Ann Meyers, Emma Germolus, Allen Krumrey, Virgil Peterson, Helen Kellar, Eleanor Larson, Doris Thysell and Mae Thortvedt.

A good turn-out of girls for the first basketball practice on Monday promises an active season. A game between a temporary team captained by Cleora Schiedt and one captained by Irene Wicklund ended in a 14-12 score in Schiedt's favor. Basketball practices are scheduled for Monday, Wednesday and Thursday nights at 4 o'clock.

Baby Dragons Basketball Squad Numbers Forty

The Baby Dragons have hung up the moleskins and turned their undivided efforts to basketball. Coach "Chet" Gilpin is well pleased with the squad of forty men who answered his first call to practice. Gilpin claims he will be able to dress the largest and rangiest team in the history of College High, but the men will lack experience.

Reserve lettermen from last year will include Tom McCormick, forward; Earl Trichler, forward; Kenny Witsnack, center; Bob Peterson, captain and guard, and Philip Costain, forward. These men will form the nucleus about which the other material will develop.

1934 Dragons, Conquerors Of Champions, Achieve Football Hall Of Fame

(by Aldy Christensen)

Say, George, do you remember back in 1934 when the Dragon football team rolled up a total of 145 points to their opponents' 35 in the seven games of the season? Why, that was an average of more than 20 points per game to their opponents' 5. Not only that—29 of the 35 points scored by Dragon opponents were scored by teams outside the Conference, namely: Concordia, Jamestown, and the Bison, leaving a mere 6 points for teams in the Conference as compared to a total of 100 points rolled up by the mighty Dragon machine.

Conquerors of Champions

And that's not all. The Dragons entered the hall of fame that year as conquerors of champions. They won from Jamestown, title holders in their Conference, defeated the Bison who in turn defeated the Nodaks, leaders in their Conference, and tied Concordia, champions of their Conference. These bare facts give the Moorhead State Teachers Dragons a share of conference titles in Minnesota, North Dakota, South Dakota, and part of Iowa.

The first 19 points of this grand total was chalked up against the Jimmies 4 under the footlights of the Jamestown College field. Jamestown started the scoring by converting two Dragon fumbles into safeties. From then on the Dragons did the scoring. Tie Cobbers

Next came the Dragon-Cobber football feud, which was a spectacular struggle resulting in a 13-13 deadlock. After lagging 13-6 at the half, the mighty Crimson machine came back in the second half with Milton Hollister making a beautiful pass over the goal line to Wayne Stephens. Then Captain Bjerkness came into the game and booted the ball between the uprights to tie the score.

The third game of the season was the 26-0 victory over Winona. Duluth was the fourth victim of the season to the tune of 17-0 at Duluth.

The Homecoming game with Bemidji was the track meet of the season, taking place in fog, rain, and mud. The Dragon team piled up a 44-0 score in spite of the rain.

That one lonely counter for the Conference opponents was scored on a heads-up break in the first quarter of the St. Cloud game when Perpich intercepted a lateral pass behind the line of scrimmage and made a beautiful 62-yard run to score. This aroused the mighty Dragons and they came back with a counter in the second and final canto with only one conversion after touchdowns, making the score 13-6.

The highlight of the season was in the 13-12 triumph over the mighty Bison of North Dakota State. The Bison scored first in the second quarter on a 20-yard pass from Hanson to Gerrels in the end zone. A bad pass from center cost the extra point. In the third quarter the Dragons counted and made the extra point good by a classic bit of strategy, making the score 7-6 for the Dragons. The final stanza held a Dragon blocked punt which resulted in a touchdown for the Herd. The score stood 12-7 for the Herd. At this point the Dragons unleashed a tricky attack, worked the ball to the six-yard line, and then scored on the first play after the Bison had taken time out. With six minutes left to play, the Dragons "sandwiched" the Bison until the end of the game.

And so, George, the leaves of time go by and we must look back into the football season of 1934 again sometime.

New Social-Economic Goals For American Life, Topics Of Speeches

Featuring a series of short talks on "New Social-Economic Goals for American Life," the P. T. A. of the college met in the Training School November 6, with Mrs. Walter L. Larson presiding.

President MacLean opened the panel discussion with introductory remarks on the subject. Talks were given by Dr. Archer on "Hereditary Strength;" Mr. B. H. Briggs, "Physical Security;" Miss Carlson, "Participation in an Evolutionary Culture;" Mrs. Price spoke on "An Active, Flexible Personality;" Arnold Kittleson, "Suitable Occupation;" Mrs. Wallwork, "Economic Security;" Other speakers were Mrs. R. J. McClurg, "Mental Security;" Mrs. H. O. Tlegen, "Equality of Opportunity;" Mrs. F. M. Scheel, "Freedom;" and Mrs. Henry Carpenter, "Fair Play."

The underlying theory of the speeches, in the words of the thesis of a report by the 130 committee personnel of the National Education Association, may be stated thus: "To accept, as the approach to our national goals, the enrichment of individual personality is not solely to seek a richer and more satisfying life for every individual; it is also to seek the refinement and enlargement of culture with resultant benefit to social living."

Between talks, Miss Eleanor Nesheim and Mrs. Preston presented musical selections.
