Rodney Baker among finalists for Woodrow Wilson grant

by Bonnie Hallett

Rodney Baker, MSC senior from Breckenridge was interviewed last Saturday in connection with being a finalist for the Woodrow Wilson Graduate Fellowship.

Those giving the interview at the Curtis Hotel in Minneapolis were headed by the Region Chairman Prof. James Archer from the University of Wisconsin.

From 10,000 students all over the U.S., 2,500 were picked as semi-finalists and these finalists were granted interviews by representatives of the fellowship.

March 15, 1963, will mark the final decision for awarding the fellowships and 1,000 students out of the top 2,500 interviewed will receive the graduate fellowships. The other 1,500 will be awarded with honorable mentions.

The names of the 2,500 semi-finalists will be sent to major colleges and universities in the country together with the date of their graduation and the name of the college or university they are attending.

Rodney's interview was directed generally to the senior project in psychology that he is working on here at MSC.

The Woodrow Wilson Graduate Fellowship directs most of its interest for applications to students expressing a desire to teach on the college level in the humanities or social sciences. If awarded the fellowship, the student would have one year of graduate study paid for.

Being a senior at MSC and President of the Student Commission, Rodney is an active student around campus.

If awarded the fellowship, Rodney hopes to do graduate study at the University of Oregon in psychology. He would work another four years on a doctorate degree.

Prominent recreation leader to speak here

Dr. Catherine Allen, a nationally-recognized authority on recreation and physical education, will be in Fargo-Moorhead January 23-25 to make appearances at NDSU, Concordia College, and Moorhead State College. Her topic will be: "Human Resources, A Key to the Future."

A recipient of numerous distinctions, Dr. Allen is currently vice-president of recreation, American Association of Health, Physical Education and Recreation, an organization of more than 20,000 members. She is also professor of physical education at the Bouve-Boston School.

Dr. Allen, coordinator of special activities, Tufts University, is joint guest of the three schools. She will make half a dozen appearances, starting with a lecture during the Concordia Chapel at 10 a.m. on Wed., Jan. 23. Dr. Allen will be the guest at a dinner at 6:30 p.m. Wednesday, sponsored by the Fargo-Moorhead Physical Education Association.

The Thursday schedule will include a convocation address at NDSU at 9:40 a.m. and in the evening a dinner for all students of the three schools majoring or minoring in health, physical education and recreation. The dinner will be at the Student Union, NDSU, at 6 p.m., preceded by a reception at 5 p.m.

On Friday Dr. Allen will speak at a 10 a.m. convocation at Moorhead State College. An informal coffee hour will be held for students and faculty following the convocation at 11 a.m. in Ingleside.

A noon luncheon has been set for Kise Commons. In attendance will be Commission members and officers of campus organizations. Her last appearance will be at a workshop in leadership for social recreation to be held in the Campus School Gymnasium, Moorhead State, at 7:30 p.m.

The above mentioned presentation will include the preparation of party activities, mixers, the folk arts, songs and song leading, as well as a discussion of the techniques of leadership.

Although Dr. Allen is primarily guest of the three schools in Fargo-Moorhead, her Friday evening workshop is expected to draw a large number of college and high school educators from outside the two cities, as well as recreation leaders from the church and community.

In charge of arrangements are: Joan Hult, head, department of physical education for women, Concordia; Beulah Gregoire, head, department of physical education for women, NDSU; and Mary Montgomery, instructor, department of health and physical education, Moorhead State College.

Science 480 seminar winter schedule set

The remaining schedule of Science 480 seminars for winter quarter, to which visitors are invited, is as follows:

January 21, Dr. Treumann; January 28, Mr. Evett; February 4, Dr. King; February 11, Dr. Meeks; February 18, Dr. Collins; February 25, Mr. Krzyzaniak; March 4, Dale Loff; March 11, Walter Eliason.

Dr. Noice, chairman of the science department at MSC, spoke at the first seminar, which was held January 14.

The seminars are held on Mondays from 5-6 p.m.

KNA to become national frat

Tomorrow afternoon, the small, triangular crests on the jackets of Kappa Nu Alpha fraters will be replaced by the TE-KE crest when they assume national status as an Iota Epsilon Chapter of Tau Kappa Epsilon.

The ceremonious festivities will begin at 9 a.m. tomorrow and conclude Sunday at 5 p.m. with the installation banquet.

At the banquet, the chapter will receive their charter and new officers will be installed.

They will be Terry Hull, Prytanis (president); Arnett Luhnning, Epiprytanis (vice president); Doug Grouws, Chrysophylos (treasurer); Joe Simmons, Grammateus (secretary); Tom Bertek, Pylortes (sergeant at arms); Dale Larson, Histor (historian); Dan Zinda, Hegemon (pledge trainer); and Jim Kragnes, Hypophetes (chaplin).

The first TEKE pledge class was formally pledged Jan. 16.

The Iota Epsilon Chapter will sponsor a free all-college dance tomorrow evening following the game with Winona at Kise Commons.

Religious foundations begin luncheons

Leaders of the six religious foundations at Moorhead State College will initiate a series of special luncheon meetings with faculty members Monday noon, January 21 at Kise Commons when Father Jerome Docherty of the Neuman Foundation will speak on "The Second Vatican Council".

At a second luncheon on Thurs., Jan. 31, Dr. Frank Noice, chairman of the MSC science department, will discuss "The Religious-Scientific Evolution". Rev. Alden Hividston, campus pastor of the MSC Luthern Student Association, will serve as moderator for both meetings.

Mr. Matthew Stark, dean of students at MSC, said the speakers will present 15-minute talks to be followed by general discussion.

MacLeod praises "new spirit" shown by students this year

To the editor:

During the eight years that I have coached basketball at Moorhead State, it has been our good fortune to win many "big" games. It is also true that we have suffered through several disappointing losses.

The support accorded us by the student body has varied through the years. Ordinarily the more games the team was able to win, the more enthusiastic would be the backing.

The 1962-63 basketball team quite generally expected to be somewhat weaker than in previous years and the team members and myself did not expect much in the way of student support.

However, we seem to have underestimated the "new spirit" which has taken hold. The tremendous support given to us, so far, has been a truly wonderful experience. I sincerely believe that the enthusiasm shown by our rooters has transformed our team into a squad which just doesn't give up. This was shown quite clearly in the Cobber game. The student supporters continued their encouragement and the team responded by turning a runaway game into a close, exciting one.

We don't know who or what is responsible for this change but the team and myself are deeply appreciative and will make every effort to provide you "real" fans with an entertaining and winning basketball team.

Mr. Stark named to Civil Liberties post

Mr. Matthew Stark, dean of students at Moorhead State College, has been named a member of the board of directors of the Minnesota chapter of the American Civil Liberties Union.

Suggestions for Snow Ball made

What's wrong with the women students on campus?

Isn't there any femininity — don't they care about baubles, bangles, etc. anymore?

Let's see if we can't make the Snow Ball a more dress-up affair! Short or long formals, long gloves, let your imagination run wild!

Name withheld on request

Stark, elected to the board in a statewide mail ballot, will serve a three-year term.

A long-time member of the Minnesota Civil Liberties Union, Stark recently served on the Governor's Human Rights Commission and was chairman of the Governor's Housing and Relocation Committee.

"Twelfth Night" tickets on sale

Student tickets for the Canadian Player's Production of Shakespeare's "Twelfth Night" will go on sale from 10 a.m. — 2 p.m. Mon. and Tues., Jan. 21-22, at the Weld Hall Box Office. The price is 15c.

Regular prices of the tickets are $4, $3, and $1.50. After Tuesday at 2 p.m., students will be required to pay the regular student price of $1.

Students must show their activity cards and are entitled to one ticket each.

Married students are entitled to two tickets.

MSC senior to go to France in June

Circle K and the Moorhead Kiwanis Club are co-sponsoring a summer exchange work program this year involving MSC senior Darwin Boutiette and a French student unknown at this time.

The basic qualifications Darwin had to meet were ability to speak French, an age range from 20-26, and good character and health. He passed with flying colors and on June 17 he will be leaving for the University of Louisville and a week of orientation.

From Louisville, he will leave for France and 64 days of work, fun, and a chance to practice his French.

Darwin's home is Abercrombie, N.D. His hometown in France is still unknown, but the student from France will be from the area where Darwin will be spending his summer.

International Student Council plans dance

The first ten couples will be admitted free at a dance sponsored by the International Student Council tonight from 9 to 12 p.m. in Kise Commons.

After the first ten couples ten cents will be levied on each person to raise money for a scholarship to international students. With this special scholarship the International Student Council hopes to attract more foreign students to MSC, thereby improving the college and the relationship between American students and students from other countries.

Collegiate Digest distributed today

The January, 1963, issue of Collegiate Digest is being distributed with today's on-campus circulation of the Mistic.

"Mistic" back issues available

There are a number of copies of each issue of this year's Mistic left.

Any students desiring back issues should come to M208, the Publications Office, at their earliest convenience.

Brandt - Panson co-captain MSC pucksters

Richard Panson and Keith Brandt have been elected by their teammates to co-captain the 1963 hockey team. Both pucksters are fine leaders with great hockey ability.

Richard Panson

"Rich" is a 5'8" 184-pound junior from Winnepeg, Manitoba. The ex-Winnepeg Junior A hockey player started for the St. Boniface Canadians. A top notch performer on the ice, he was helected to the Junior A all-star team. He also played a year of freshman hockey at the University of North Dakota.

Keith Brandt

Keith is a 5'10" 180-pound sophomore from Roseau. He started for Ram Coach Oscar Aomquist for three seasons where he held down the defensive spot. Was an all-state performer his sophomore year in high school. Keith attended the University of Minesota for two years and was an excellent prospect his freshman year, but felt the grim pinch of a broken jaw during the early part of pre-season workouts. The injury kept him form competing the entire season.

Hockey team loses first three

The Moorhead State College hockey team lost their first three starts of the ice sport when dropping a twin bill to St. Cloud and a solo tilt to Bemidji.

Coach Neal Johnson's pucksters rolled into the granite city and met head on with a Huskie team that took 21 straight victories into the contest.

Newcomers and veterans alike starred in the victories. Gerald Weber, the troublesome Huskie football quarterback, is not only tough on the gridiron but has also proved to be a worthy performer while on the ice. Weber, a junior from North St. Paul, scored the three-goal hat trick in both games and picked up four assists for ten points.

Close behind was Phil Gens, a senior from Minneapolis, who scored two goals in each game and two assists for six points. Jack Burke, also a junior puckster from St. Louis Park, counted six tallies, Dale Carmichael, the fine Huskie netman, played goalie in both tilts despite a broken nose sustained in practice.

On the Dragon side of the ledger it was Rich Panson countering the first goal with assists from Dave Johnson and Ray "Skip" Adams. Johnson connected on the second goal with assists coming from Panson and Adams.

Then this past Monday afternoon found the Dragons's hosting the Beavers from Bemidji. A much-improved looking aggregation held the men of Vic Weber scoreless for the initial period. The Beavers jumped out ahead, however, and won the contest 4-1.

Next Tues., Jan. 22, the team is host to the Cobbers from Concordia. The time has been set for 3:00 p.m. at the Nemzek rink.

Dragons lose to Cobbers

by Larry Larson

Concordia's Cobbers built up a 21-point halftime lead, then held off a determined Moorhead State aggregation to win the intra-city basketball game by a 73-61 margin.

The tall Cobbers, led by the first half heroics of Frank Johnson, helped pave the way to the 44-23 halftime lead. The former Henning High School product cashed in on five field goals and dumped in four of five gift shots to lead his mates with 14 points at the half way mark.

Coach Larry MacLeod's determined Dragon contingent fought back desperately in the last half and did close the gap at 65-59 with 2:15 left but the Cobbers held off their last desperation efforts.

Concordia scored their last basket of the game with :03 remaining but it took 12:30 to get it as their final field goal came with 12:33 left when they enjoyed a 21-point lead at that point.

Gary Larson, the 6'5" strong-boy, led the Cobber attack with 20 points. Frank Johnson managed five points in the last half to get 19.

Don Wermager, the Dragon's leading scorer on the season, hit 19.

Moorhead State made 18 of 58 shots from the field for 32 per cent while their opponents made 24 of 71 for 29 per cent. From the foul line it was the Dragons once again as the crimson and white clad cagers hit 25 of 32 while the Cobbers managed 25 of 36. Forty nine fouls were assessed in the rivalry contest.

The story of the contest came once again from underneath the boards where the shorter Dragons collected only 34 rebounds while their opponents managed 52, including 35 in the first half.

The win gave the host club a 5-7 record on the season while the men of MacLeod dropped to a 4-8 mark.

Ineligibles add depth; face NDSU herd Tuesday

Editor's Note: The five below mentioned basketball players have been long awaiting the day of January 22 to arrive. For next Tuesday marks the day that these transfer ineligibles can compete in varsity sports for the first time at MSC.

Jerry Hegna, a 5'10" sophomore guard from Granite Falls. The former Kilowatt high school product transferred from the University of Minnesota after spending his initial year of college at Gopherland. Jerry was a three-sport star in high school. He was named all-state at his fullback position in football, twice named all-tournament in the state's high school tourney and one of the prep catchers in the state his senior season. Good outside shot with great determination.

Peter Lysaker, a 6'2" sophomore forward from Detroit Lakes. The former Laker high school dandy transferred from Concordia College last year after being named the most valuable freshman cager at that school as a freshman. Pete started for his high school head mentor George Hanson (former U. of Minnesota cage guard) for three seasons. A real good outside shot.

Dennis Raffenburg, a 5'11" sophomore guard from Detroit Lakes. Teammate of the above mentioned Lysaker while in high school. Attended Knox College in Illinois last year. Started three years in high school at the backcourt spot and was named to the Resort Region all-conference team his senior season. Good ball handler that can drive well.

Larry Graham, a 6'2" sophomore forward from Meadville, Pa. The well-built lad transferred from Buffalo University last year. "Turtle" (sometimes called by his teammates) is a great outside shooting threat that will break open any ball game. Should help underneath with his crafty board work.

Don Sweeney, a 6'2" freshmen from Sheboygan, Wisc. Don didn't play high school basketball but plays like college material. Has great determination with a good outside jump shot. Very fast despite his 6'2" frame.

Tom Engh, a former 6'4" Fargo Central high school basketballer, has decided to give up the cage sport in this his senior year at Moorhead State College. Tom was the sixth member of the ineligible crew that was set to be ready for action against NDSU next Tuesday night.

Jerry Roepke, the 6'5" 245-pound pivot ace from St. Cloud State College has rejoined the basketball team there.

Tom Pearman, a 6'1" freshman guard at North Dakota State University was a member of last year's South St. Paul High School team. His prep Packer club finished to runner-up St. Louis Park High School for the state's championship. Pearman was named all-tournament and will face the Dragon freshman team next Tuesday night at NDSU.

Tim Marsten and Bob Dew scored 25 and 19 points respectively Tuesday night to pace MSC High School to a thrilling 59-58 win over the Locomotives from Dilworth.

Two unbeaten basketball conference powers in St. Cloud and Michigan Tech meet head on tomorrow night in Houghton, Michigan. Both teams which go by the nickname of Huskies will match 4-0 loop records with the winner given the inside track in the league race.

Ron Cragmile, the small but dynamic St. Cloud State College guard, leads the NSCC in scoring with 77 points in four loop contests for a respectable 19.3 average per game.

Don Wermager, 5'9" Dragon playmaking guard from Twin Valley, leads the team in the scoring department with 183 points in 12 seasonal games.

Darrell Barth, 6'1" junior guard from Howard Lake and the other starting backcourter on the Dragon squad, is in the runner-up spot with 142 counters.

Jim Kampen, Northern State Teachers College basketball forward, was named the outstanding athlete in the state of South Dakota for the year 1962. Kampen scored 23 points against the Dragons in a 75-56 Wolve win on November 29.

Winona State in Saturday

by Larry Larson

Much improved Mankato and winless but troublesome Winona invade Alex Nemzek Fieldhouse this weekend for Northern States College Conference basketball games against the Moorhead State College Dragons.

Coach Bill Morris' Indians from Mankato haven't been munching leftovers in their wigwam but have been feasting of late. Their 2-2 loop mark and 8-5 overall record doesn't mean much.

Two backcourt brothers in Joel and Jon Hagen give the Indians that always needed guard help. Joel, a 6'1" senior, is a deadly shot. The former Belview High School star is the nation's leading small college percentage leader with 57 for 91 and a .626 mark.

Cornermen Jim Tetzlaff (6'2") and George McKay (6'3") team with pivot ace Les Sonnabend (6'5") to give the Indians that rangy front line.

Saturday night's foe, Winona State's Warriors, also have a top-notch brother combination in the presence of Dick and Lyle Papenfuss. These two Warrior shooting artists have combined for 75 points between themselves in but three conference tests.

Wrestlers top Omaha

The MSC matmen out-wrestled the University of Omaha 21-8 last Saturday and made it three dual meet victories in a row for the season.

Bucky Maughm was his typically stellar self and pinned his man in 3:45 to start off the afternoon.

Earl Stottler, wrestling for the first time in two years, played it a little too conservative and was beat, 6-2.

Raphael Gonshorowski, the colorful freshman from Greenbush, Minn., won 6-0 in the 137 pound class.

At 147, Freshman Buddy Starks lost on riding time 6-5.

Bo Henry wrestled like the tiger he is and got his first pin of the year in dual matches. The time was 7:16.

In the 167 lb. class, Frank Mosier, another outstanding freshman star, drew with George Crenshaw, runner-up in the NAIA last year, 7-7. Crenshaw took an early 6-2 lead, but Mosier came back and went ahead 7-6. Then, in the closing seconds, Crenshaw got an escape for the tie.

Ed Arneson's shoulder injury seemed to be heeled as he won quite handily, 12-5.

Heavyweight John Dano drew a big 240 pounder and beat him 2-1, closing out the afternoon.

The decisive victory over Omaha was another indication of the strength in this fine group and another reason why we hate to see them on the road. But that's where they are today and Saturday.

Western Illinois is the opponent for today and Eastern Illinois will play hos to the Dragons tomorrow.

Northern Illinois, previously scheduled for Thursday this week, reneged.

Just a reminder; Winona will be here next Friday.
