Scripture Reading---

Canst thou by searching find out God? canst thou find out the Almighty unto perfection? It is as high as heaven. The measure thereof is longer than the earth, and broader than the sea. If he cut off, and shut up, or gather together, then who can hinder him? For he knoweth vain men: he seeth wickedness also; will he not then consider it? For vain man would be wise, though man be born like a wild ass's colt. If thou prepare thine heart, and stretch out thine hands toward him; if iniquity be in thine hand, put it far away, and let not wickedness dwell in thy tabernacles. For then shalt thou lift up thy face without spot; yea, thou shalt be steadfast, and shalt not fear: Because thou shalt forget thy misery, and remember it as waters that pass away: And thine age shall be clearer than the noon-day; thou shalt shine forth, thou shalt be as the morning. And thou shalt be secure, because there is hope; yea, thou shalt dig about thee, and thou shalt take thy rest in safety.

Response---

How gentle God's commands!
How kind His precepts are!
Come, cast your burdens on the Lord,
And trust His constant care.

Hymn--- Almighty God, in Humble Prayer

Almight God, in humble prayer
To Thee our souls we lift;
Do Thou our waiting minds prepare
For Thy most needful gift.
We ask not honors which an hour
May bring, and take away,
We ask not pleasure, pomp and power,
Lest we should go astray.
We ask for wisdom: Lord, impart
The knowledge how to live;
A wise and understanding heart
To all before Thee give.

Minnesota, Hail to Thee

Minnesota, hail to thee!
Hail to thee, our college dear!
Thy light shall ever be
A beacon bright and clear.
Thy sons and daughters true
Will proclaim thee near and far.
They will guard thy fame
And adore thy name
Thou shalt be their Northern Star.

Like the stream that bends to sea
Like the pine that seeks the blue
Minnesota, still for thee
Thy sons are strong and true.
From their woods and waters fair
From their prairies waving far,
At thy call they throng
With their shout and song
Hailing thee their Northern Star.
